Rotulus Parliamenti tenti apud Weſtm', in Craſtino Sancti Martini, Anno regni Regis Henrici Sexti poſt Conqueſtum Decimo Octavo.

A. D. 1439. 18 Hen. VI.

Pronunciatio Parliamenti. (m. 16.)

1. MEMORAND', quod in Craſtino Sancti Martini, videlicet, Duodecimo die Novembris, Anno regni Regis Henrici Sexti poſt Conqueſtum Decimo Octavo, ipſo Domino Rege Sede Regia in Camera depicta apud Weſtmonaſterium reſidente, aſſiſtentibus quampluribus Prelatis, Proceribus & Magnatibus regni, ad preſens Parliamentum convocatis; Venerabilis Pater Johannes Epiſcopus Bathon' & Wellen', Cancellarius Anglie, cauſam ſummonitionis Parliamenti predicti, ex ipſius Domini Regis mandato, egregie pronunciavit: aſſumens pro ſuo Themate, Adaperiat Dominus Cor veſtrum in lege ſua, & in preceptis ſuis, & faciat pacem. Secundo Machabeorum, primo. Pro cujus Textus declaratione, Duo in eiſdem verbis principaliter annotavit. Primo, videlicet, deſiderium ſaluberimum a quolibet Criſtiano pro ipſius debitis reformatione & reconciliatione, in apperitione cordis ſui ad obſervantiam Legis & Preceptorum Dei, contra omnimodam cordis duritiam obſtinatam maxime affectand'; cum dicit, Adaperiat Dominus Cor veſtrum in Lege ſua, & in preceptis ſuis. Secundo, pacis bone perquiſitionem ac ejuſdem pacis finalem perquiſitionem, qua quilibet Criſtianus pro Mercede ſua ſibi plurimum oportuna ultimatim gaudere deſiderat & affectat; cum dicit, & fac' pacem. Pro primo, ſiquidem cum dicitur, Adaperiat Dominus Cor veſtrum, & non corda veſtra; unitatem quam univerſalis Populus circa rem publicam affectaret & haberet, prout habuit Populus Dei, ſe de injuria ſibi per Populum Gabian opprobrioſe illata vin-

Electio Prelocutoris.

9. ITEM, die Veneris, Secundo die Parliamenti, prefati Communes, per quoſdam Socios ſuos, declaraverunt Dominis Spiritualibus & Temporalibus in preſenti Parliamento, quod ipſi mandatum Domini Regis pridie ſibi injunctum cum omni diligentia exequentes, elegerunt quendam Willielmum Treſham, Prelocutorem ſuum; humilime deprecando quatinus de preſentatione dicti Prelocutoris ſui Domino Regi faciend', quibuſdam urgentibus de cauſis, uſq; in diem Sabbati tunc prox' futur' poſſent reſpectuari: quod eis extitit conceſſum.

Preſentatio Prelocutoris.

10. ITEM, Die Sabbati tunc prox' ſequen', videlicet, Tertio die Parliamenti, prefati Communes preſentaverunt Domino Regi, predictum Willielmum Treſham, Prelocutorem ſuum; de quo idem Dominus Rex, de aviſamento Conſilii ſui, ſe bene contentavit. Qui quidem Willielmus, poſt excuſationem ſuam coram Domino Rege factam, pro eo quod ipſa ſua excuſatio ex parte dicti Domini Regis admitti non potuit, eidem Domino Regi humilime ſupplicavit, quatenus omnia & ſingula per ipſum in Parliamento predicto nomine dicte Communitatis proferend' & declarand', ſub tali poſſet Proteſtatione proferre & declarare, quod ſi ipſe aliqua ſibi per prefatos Socios ſuos injuncta, aliter quam ipſi concordati fuerint, aut in addendo vel omittendo declaraverit, ea ſic declarata per predictos Socios ſuos corrigere poſſet & emendare, & quod Proteſtatio ſua hujuſmodi, in Rotulo Parliamenti predicti inactiari. Cui per prefatum Dominum Cancellarium, de mandato Domini Regis, & aviſamento Conſilii ſui, extitit reſponſum, quod idem Willielmus tali Proteſtatione frueretur & gauderet, quali alii Prelocutores hujuſmodi, tempore dicti Domini Regis ac nobilium Progenitorum ſuorum, in hujuſmodi Parliamentis uti & gaudere conſueverunt.

TO the right nobles, wiſe and diſcrete Communes of this preſent Parlement ; Beſechen mekly William atte Loue, and othere Tenauntz of oure Lorde the Kynge, as of his Caſtell and Honure of Tutbury, parcell of his Duchie of Lancaſtre, dwellinge atte Scropton in the Countee of Derby. That where as one John Forman, of the Towne of Snelleſtone in the ſeide Countee of Derby, for diverſe grete and notables cauſes and offenſes done by the ſame John, withinne the Fraunchiſe and Juriſdiction of the ſaide Caſtell and Honure, was lawefully arreſted atte Barton Bakepuz withinne the ſame Fraunchiſe, by Sr̄ Thomas Blount Knyght, Depute unto the worſhipfulle Lorde the Erle of Stafford, Steward of the ſaide Caſtell and Honure, and othere Officers there, and there uppon committed unto the ſaide William Suppliaūt, and othere Tenauntz forſeide, ſaufly to kepe and bringge hym unto the ſaide Caſtell of Tuttebury ; and as they were goynge to bringe hym there, on Sonday after Criſtemaſſe day laſte paſſed, atte Sudbury withinne the ſaide Fraunchiſe, cometh one Piers Venables of the Towne of Aſton Gentilman, withinne the ſaide Countee of Derby, with many othere unknowen, in manere of Werre, Riote, Route and Inſurrection arraied, with force and armes, and made a reſcours, and toke awey the ſalde John Forman fro theym, and in the ſaide William and othere Tenauntz made an aſſaute, and thaym bedde, wounded and evil tretid there. And after that tyme, the ſame Piers Venables, havynge no liflode ne ſufficeante of goodes, gadered and aſſembled unto him many miſdoers beynge of his clothinge ; that is to wete, Thomas Sayne of Aſton in the ſaide Counte of Derby Yoman, Herry Hele of Dowbrigge in the ſaide Counte Yoman, Robard Bochere of the ſaide Towne Yoman, Nicholas Normanton of the ſaide Towne Yoman, Thomas Taillour of the ſaide Towne Yoman, Thomas Hobbeſſone of the ſaide Toune Yoman, John Flecchere of the ſaide Towne yoman, John Savage of the ſaide Towne yoman, Nicholas Smyth of Weſt Broughton in the ſaide Counte Yoman, John Smyth of the ſaide Towne yoman, Thomas Smyth of the ſaide Towne yoman, Thomas Warde of Sudbury in the ſaide Counte Yoman, Robert Forman of Ereſton Aroungomery in the ſaide Counte Yoman, Rogere Laude of the ſaide Towne yoman, Thomas Bene of Snelleſtone in the ſaide Counte Yoman, with many other unknowyn ; and, in manere of Inſurrection, wente into the wodes in that Contre, like as it hadde be Robynhode and his meyne ; and ſo after that tyme they come diverſe tymes withinne the Fraunchiſe atte Scropton forſaide, called Scropton home, and othere places withinne the ſaide Fraunchiſe, and the ſaide William and alle othere Tenauntz there duellinge, fought and manaſſinge to ſcle, ſo that the ſaide Tennauntz dare nat abide in thaire Tenures and Places, ne no laboure there do, neither Baillifs, Clerkes, ne other Officers there, dare nat come there to holde the Courtes, withoute grete power and ſtrenghthe, and ſo they kepyn the Wodes and ſtrange Contrays : and atte ſome tyme they gone in to Cheſtreſchire, that they can nat be take to be juſtefied by the lawe, but ryde and gone as outelawes, waitynge a tyme to murdre, ſclee, and other grete harmes in that contray to do, but yf it be remedied, in contempt of oure Lorde the Kyng, and ayene alle his Lawes and Statutes in this partie made.

Pleſe it unto youre wiſe diſcretions, to conſidere thes premiſſes, and there uppon to praie the Kynge oure Soverain Lorde, to ordeigne by aſſent of his Lordes Spirituel and Temporel, by auctoritee of this preſent Parlement, that a Writte of Proclamation may go oute of the Chauncerie, conteinynge the ſpace of tyme withinne whiche twey Schires may be holden, direct unto the Schirref of the ſaide Schire of Derby for the tyme beynge, commaundynge hym, on peine of cc li., to proclame in tho twey Schires nexte ſuynge after the date and reſceit of the ſaide Writte, that the ſaide Piers Venables, and other miſdoers afore reherſed named in the ſame Writte, appere afore oure Lorde the Kynge wher ever he be in Inglonde, in preſence of his Juſtices, to his Plees before hem to holde aſſigned, atte a certaine day in the ſame Writte conteined, for to anſuere unto oure Lorde the Kynge, and alſo to alle ſuche Perſones of his Tenauntz, and other Inhabitantz of and withinne the ſaide Lordeſchipe and Fraunchiſe of Tuttebury, that ſchall ſeverally or jointly ſewe ayene them atte that tyme, of alle ſuche maters as ſhall be declared and purpoſed by Bille there ; and yf the ſaide perſones in the ſaide Writte conteyned, or any of thaym, appere atte the day conteined in the ſame Writte, that thanne the ſaide Juſtices have power, by the auctorite aforeſaide, to procede, here and determine, all ſuche maters as ſchal be propoſed and declared ayen theym, and everiche of hem, that ſo apperith by Bille in the fourme forſaide, after the cours of the commune Lawe: And that the ſame Juſtices, by the ſame auctorite, have power to committe everiche of hem that ſo apperith to the Marchall ys Warde of the Kynges Benche, there to abide, unto everiche of hem ſo committed, finde ſufficeant ſuerte after the diſcrecion of the ſaide Juſtices, to appere in propre perſone afore theym, atte day and daies by the ſame Juſtices to been aſſigned and lymited, tille all the ſaide maters ayene hem that apperith declared, be fully ended and determined, and alſo tille the tyme that everyche of hem that ſo apperith, finde ſufficeant ſuerte bifore the ſaid Juſtices after thaire diſcretion, of his good berynge, and to bere pees ayene the Kynge and alle his peuple. And if the ſaide Writte be retourned, and Proclamation therof made by the ſaide Schirref duelly certefied in the fourme aboveſaide, and the ſeide perſones in the ſeide Writte ſpecified, or any of hem, appere nat atte the ſaide day conteyned yn the ſame Writte, that thanne he and everiche of hem that apperith nat, and that defaute recorded; that thanne upon that defaute, the ſame Juſtices have fulle power, by the auctorite forſaide, to yeve Jugement and awarde execution there uppon, ayene them and everiche of hem that ſo apperith nat, as ayene hem that ys atteint of Felonie, by dewe proceſſe atte common lawe; and that he forfaite Londes and Goodes, in fourme and manere as he that ys atteinte of Felonie: and yf the ſaide Schirref for the tyme beynge, retourne and execute nat the ſaide Writte, unto hym be tyme reſonable delivered, that thanne he forfaite unto oure Lorde the Kynge, the ſaide peyne conteyned in the ſaide Writte.

Qua quidem Petitione, in Parliamento predicto lecta, audita & plenius intellecta, de aviſamento & aſſenſu predictis, reſpondebatur eidem in forma ſubſequenti:

Pronunciatio Parliamenti. (m. 15.)

1. MEMORAND', quod in die Converſionis Sancti Pauli, Anno regni Regis Henrici Sexti poſt Conqueſtum Viceſimo, videlicet, Primo die Parliamenti, Venerabilis Pater Johannes Epiſcopus Bathon' & Wellen', Cancellarius Anglie, in preſentia prefati Domini Regis, Sede Regia in Camera depicta juxta magnam Cameram Parliamenti infra Palatium ſuum Weſtm' ſedentis, ac quamplurium Dominorum Spiritualium & Temporalium, necnon Communitatis regni Anglie, ad Parliamentum predictum de mandatis Regiis convocatorum, ex ipſius Domini Regis mandato, cauſas ſummonitionis Parliamenti inferius annotatas & inſertas notabiliter pronunciavit & declaravit; aſſumens pro Themate ſuo ſeriem hanc verborum. Rex & Thronus ejus ſit innocens. Secundo Regum XIIII. In quibus verbis Duo ſpecialiter annotavit. Primo, videlicet, excellentiſſime perſone dicti metuendiſſimi Domini Regis per ſapientiam preſervationem, in hoc quod dicit 'Rex'. Secundo, illuſtrorum Corone & Regni ſuorum proſperitatem, in hoc quod dicit, ' & Thronus ejus ſit innocens.' Et quia Rex a Regendo dicitur pro utroque ſimul ſcribitur. Rex qui judicat in veritate, Thronus ejus in eternum firmabitur, Proverb' XXIX^no Cap.—Ac pro declaratione materie Thematis ſupradicti, quendam Textum Libri Regum, in quo continetur, qualiter nobilis Rex Salamon, tempore pacifico Regni ſui, quendam magnum Thronum de Ebore puro fecerat fabricari, quem in auro puriſſimo includebat, qui quidem Thronus Sex habuit gradus, per quos aſcenſus fieret uſque ad Sedem ejuſdem Throni, ſuper quos quidem gradus, Duodecim Catuli Leonum perſtiterunt, unus videlicet ſuper quemlibet Angulum cujuſlibet graduum predictorum, Dueque manus Sedem Throni predicti tenentes extiterunt inibi controfacte, & qualiter non fuit adeo ſolempne opus humanum in aliquo alio Regno, prout ſacra refert ſcriptura, notabiliter introduxit: in qua quidem introductione egregie demonſtravit, qualiter Thronus predictus cum toto apparatu & ſingulis pertin' ſuis, bonum regimen, per quod bonum publicum cujuſlibet Regni creſcere, ac in proſperitate valeat ſtabiliri, in ſe miſtice comprehendit; & qualiter Thronus ille Regni Anglie, conſideratis antiquitate & diuturnitate fidei Criſtiane in eodem Regno, nobilitateq; ejuſdem Regni in Prelatia, Militia, Clerimonia, Mercandiſis, Culturis, Artificiis ac Comunitate populoſa, a non modico tempore tranſacto habitis & continuatis in eodem, ſine quibus aliquod opus grande hujus Regni nequit firmiter ſtabiliri, nec Policia inter regni illius incolas continuari, ſpecialiter ſignificat & deſignat: ac pro ulteriori proceſſu in materia Thematis ſupradicti, declaravit qualiter juxta Intencoem ſuam, gradus predict', Sex virtutes morales quamlibet Communitatem in omnimoda bonitate, quouſque ad ſedem proſperitatis pveniatur, elevantes & conſervantes ſignificant & deſignant; que quidem virtutes digne & commendabiliter practiſate, ſex abuſiones Mundi, prout recitat Sanctus Auguſtinus, diruunt & excludunt. Prima namque Virtus, eſt intentio bona, que in ſingulis cogitationibus, verbis & operibus primo & principaliter eſt habenda, juxta illud Sci Ambroſii ſuper finis Intentionis eſt Actio: principium vero Actionis eſt Intentio. Secunda namque virtus, eſt benigna & humilis ſubjectio, que obedientia nuncupatur, & que timore pene nullatenus conſtringenda exiſtit, ſet ex amore debito proceſſura, prout ſcribit Gregorius XXX^o moralium ſuper illum Textum Samuelis, quaſi peccatum ariolandi eſt repugnare, & quaſi ſcelus idolatrie eſt nolle adquieſcere; ſcribitur etenim ad Hebreos ultimo, Obedite prepoſitis veſtris & ſubjcite eis, ipſi enim pervigilant quaſi rationem pro Animabus veſtris reddituri. Tertia virtus, eſt amicabilis & cordialis affectio, videlicet, cum quis ad Pacem & Amorem, per quos quies & tranquillitas interius incrementumque exterius adquiruntur, ſe obediat & conformet; ſcribitur enim ſic, Cuſtodi innocentiam & vide equitatem, quoniam ſunt reliquie hujuſmodi pacifice; P'° XXXVII°. Et quia Tres Virtutes ſupradicte ſunt quodammodo quedam ſpeculativa conſideratio qua quis ſe interius ſpiritualiter contempletur, conſequenter ſubſequntur ex fundamentis earumdem alie Tres virtutes conſimiles, adeo neceſſarie & oportune ad practicam boni omnium & ſingulorum Hominum, cum hoc quod opere & facto debite impleantur; quarum Prima virtus, eſt prudens ordinatio, ob quam cauſam Parliamenta & Conſilia principaliter convocantur & tenentur, ubi idem Cancellarius notavit quam neceſſarium ſit tam pro dampnorum & inconvenientiarum evitacoe quam pro proficuo & incremento Commoditatum hujus Regni, nedum contra illud nephandum Crimen perjurii in hoc Regno, ad grandem Dei offenſam plus ſolito uſitatum, verum etiam contra alia inconvenientias & delicta indies inibi contingentia, novas Leges condere, ac veteres Leges ubi neceſſitas exigit & requirit renovare; ſcribitur enim ſic, Leges neceſſarie ſunt ad gubernationem rei publice; Seneca, Epiſtola nonageſima quarta. Item, Sanctus Auguſtinus de libero Arbitrio minime refrenato ita ſcribit, Lex iſta que regend' Regnis & Civitatibus fertur multa relinquit impunita, que per divinam providentiam vindicantur. Item, Sanctus Auguſtinus ad Macedonium, Epiſtola XXIIII, non inutiliter metu Legum humana cohercetur audacia, ut tuta ſit inter improbos innocentia, & in ipſis improbis, dum formidato ſupplicio frenatur facultas, invocato Deo ſanetur voluptas. Secunda virtus, eſt hujuſmodi Ordinationum & Statutorum diligens executio, ſine qua fruſtra conduntur Ordinationes & Statuta. Scribitur enim ſic, Parum eſt jus eſſe in Civitate, niſi ſint qui jura exequantur. F. de ordinatione juris lege ſecunda J. poſt originem combinavit namque egregie idem Cancellarius

Ordinationem

A. D. 1441-2. 20 Hen. VI.

Ordinationem & Legem ac executionem earumdem in hoc textu ſacre Scripture, Sedes ſuper Thronum qui judicas juſticiam, & ſequitur, increpaſti gentes & periit impius, paravit in Judicio Thronum ſuum, & ipſe judicabit Orbem Terre in equitate: ubi dictus Cancellarius per quamplures Textus notabiliter declaravit, quam neceſſaria & expediens exiſtat Ordinationum & Statutorum diligens executio. Tertia virtus & ultima, eſt perſeverantia; dixerat enim ibi prefatus Cancellarius, qualiter ſummitas Throni predicti erat in parte rotunda, in qua quidem rotunditate, que omnimodo ſuo fine privabatur, notavit perſeverentiam, de qua quidem perſeverantia ita ſcribitur, Elegit Dominus Regem ut ſederet in Throno Dei ſuper Iſrael, & dixit, Firmabo Regnum ejus in eternum. Si tamen perſeveraverit facere Precepta mea atque Judicia, ſicut & hodie; primo Paralipomenon' xxviii°. Quibus quidem ſex virtutibus, dictos Sex gradus ut premittitur deſignantibus, per prefatum Cancellarium per nonnullas Auctoritates notabiliter declaratis, idem Cancellarius concludebat, qualiter ad providend' ut infra dictum Regnum annuente Deo virtutes predicte creſcere & florere, indeſinenterq; ibidem continuari, vitia & abuſiones inibi extirpari & deleri, & exinde Pax, Tranquillitas & Proſperitas in eodem Regno conſequi valeant & haberi, prefatus metuendiſſimus Dominus Rex dictum Parliamentum ſuum fecerat convocari. Quapropter dictus Cancellarius, prefatis Communibus nomine Regio dedit firmiter in mandatis, quod in Domo ſua communi & conſueta, in Craſtino convenirent, & unum Prelocutorem ſuum eligerent, ac ſic electum eidem Domino Regi preſentarent; declaravit inſuper idem Cancellarius, de mandato dicti Domini Regis, qualiter idem Dominus Rex voluit & conceſſit, quod omnes & ſinguli Domini Spirituales & Temporales, ac Communes predicti, omnibus & Singulis Libertatibus & Privilegiis, eis & eorum cuilibet per nobiles Progenitores ipſius Domini Regis quondam Reges Anglie conceſſis & minime revocatis, nec per Legem Terre revocabilibus, ſet per ipſos & eorum quemlibet rationabiliter uſitatis, gaudeant & utantur. Et ut Juſticia conqueri volentibus poſſet celerius adhiberi, idem Dominus Rex certos Receptores & Triatores Petitionum in predicto Parliamento exhibend' conſtituit & aſſignavit in forma ſubſequenti.

MEMORAND', quod iſta clauſula de Purveu, facta fuit de aviſamento Dominorum Spiritualium & Temporalium, & Servientum Domini Regis ad legem.

WHERBY hit appereth openly, that the ſeide clauſe of Purveu, was made withouten knoulech or aſſent of your ſeide Communez, and ayenſt the Statuit in ſuche cas made in tyme of the ſeide Kyng your noble Fader; of the whiche Eſtatuit a copy ys annexed to this Bille. Upon whiche Acte in Parlement made in fourme as afore, the ſeide Suppliant come afore my Lorde of Wyncheſtre, now Cardinall of Inglond, thenne Chaunceller of Inglond, openly in the Chauncellarie at Weſtm', in the Terme of the Trinite then nexte folowyng, and there ſhewed his goode and ſufficiantz taillez, accordyng to the ſeide enqueſtez conteyned and ſpecified in the ſeide Petition in Parlement, after the fourme of the ſeide Act of Parlement, deſiryng that he, be auctorite of the ſame Parlement, myght entre into all the ſeide Lordſhips, Manoirs, Londez, Tenementz, Feez, Advoeſons, Poſſeſſions and Enheritances, in the ſeide taillez and enqueſtez ſpecified, be vertu of the ſeide Act in Parlement; whiche entre, by the ſame auctorite, was thenne and there graunted and awarded hym by the ſame Chaunceller, as hit more pleynly appiereth of record in the ſeide Chauncellarie; and the ſeide Suppliaunt, in all the ſeide Lordſhippes, Manoirs, Londez, Tenementz, Feez, Advoeſons, Poſſeſſions and Enheritances, in the ſeide taillez and enqueſtez ſpecified, be vertu of the ſeide Act and award enterid, and theim peaſibly enjoyed; unto now late that Criſtofre Conyers, late the Eſcheitour of Yorkſhire, ſeiſid certeins of the ſeide Lordſhips, Manoirs, Londez, Tenementz, Feez, Advoeſons, Poſſeſſions and Enheritances, into your noble hondes, be vertu of certeins Inquiſitions taken before hym be vertu of his office, coloured be matier conteyned in the ſeide clauſe of Purveu. In whiche Inquiſitions hit was founden, be men unenfourmed in eny wiſe of the right of the ſeide Beſecher, that the ſeide Henry late Lord Scrop, was ſeiſed the day of his ſeid forfaiture, of the ſeide certeins of the ſeide Lordſhips, Manoirs, Landez, Tenementz, Feez, Advoeſons, Poſſeſſions and Enheritances, in his demeſne as of Fee ſimple; whereoppon your ſeide Beſecher hath bene, to his anientiſment of body and godez, gretely vexed and laboured. And that ye Soveraigne Lord, of your excellent rightwiſneſſe, graciouſly conſideryng the ſeide concience of your ſeide noble Fader, the auctorite of the ſeide Parlement, the age and the long ſervice of your ſeide Beſecher, to you and to your noble Progenitours withoute reward; and in eſpeciall, how that atte tyme of the ſeide Act and clauſe of Purveu made, all the ſeide Lordſhips, Manoirs, Londez, Tenementz, Feez, Advoeſons, Poſſeſſions and Enheritancez, ſeiſed into your ſeide noble Fadrez hondez, be reſon of the ſeide forfaiture as afore, weren thenne ſeverally graunted be Lettrez Patentz of the ſeide Kyng your noble Fader, or of you Soveraigne Lord, to divers perſonez, remaynyng at that tyme in your ſeide hondez no part of hem; ſo that ye, be that clauſe of Purveu, ne any thyng ther ynne conteyned, may have noon availe, bot your ſeide Beſecher continuell vexation and trouble, ayenſt all good faith and concience; will ordeyne, by the advys of the Lordys Spirituell and Temporell in this preſent Parlement, be auctorite of the ſame Parlement, that the ſeide entre ſo made be the ſeide Beſeecher, and poſſeſſion be hym had be force of the ſame entre, in all the ſeide Lordſhips, Manoirs, Londes, Tenementz, Feez, Advoeſons, Poſſeſſions and Enheritances, with all theire appurtinaunces, in all the ſeide Inquiſitions ſpecified, be vertu of the ſeide Act, be good, juſte, effectuell and availlable in lawe, be auctorite of this ſame Parlement; the ſeide clauſe of Purveu, or any thyng conteyned there yn, and all thyng' folowed, dependyng, and executed there oppon, notwithſtondyng. And that ye Soveraigne Lord, of your ſeide benynge grace, will, be the ſeide auctorite of this ſame Parlement, amoeve your ſeide hondes of all the ſeide Lordſhips, Manoirs, Londes, Tenementz, Fees, Advoeſons, Poſſeſſions, and Enheritances, with all theire appurtenauncez, in all the ſeide Inquiſitions ſpecified; and to ordeyne, that he, be the ſame auctorite, may entre into the ſame Lordſhips, Manoirs, Londez, Tenementz, Feez, Advoeſons, Poſſeſſions and Enheritances, with all theire appurtenaunce; and them to have, enjoye and enherite, accordyng to his title founden for hym in the ſeide Enqueſtez, taken be vertu of the ſeide Commiſſions, graunted oppon the ſeide Petitions of right ſpecified in the ſeide Act of Parlement; and therto to be reſtored, with the iſſues and profitz therof taken and reſceyved from the day of the ſeide Inquiſitions afore the ſeide Criſtofre Conyers. And that the Chaunceller of Inglond for the tyme beyng, graunt and make to the ſeide Suppliaunt, ſuch and as many Writtes, to ſuche and as many Officers, Fermers and other, as nedeth or ſhall nede in this cas; ſavyng all way to you oure Soverein Lorde and youre Heirs, the Right, Title and Intereſſe of reverſion of Fee ſimple, that

Pro Abbate de Valle Regali. (m. 11.)

13. ITEM, quedam alia Petitio exhibita fuit eidem Domino Regi, in Parliamento predicto, per prefatos Communes, pro Abbate de Valle Regali, in hec verba:

TO the right wyſe and diſcrete Comunes of this preſent Parliament; Beſecheth mekely Thomas, Abbot of the Monaſterie of oure Lady of the Vale Roiall in the Counte of Cheſtre, the whiche is of the fundation of Kyng Edward the firſt, Progenitour to the Kyng oure Soverayn Lord that nowe is. Where he is ſeiſet of an Eſtate perpetuell as in the right of the ſeid Monaſterie, of a Chirche callid Llanpadernvaure, with othir Landes and Tenementes within the Shires of Kermerdyn and Kardygan in South Wales; in the whiche Shires, ther is ones a yere a gret Ceſſion holden afore the Kynges Juſtice, or his Lieutenaunt there for the tyme beyng; and alſo a petit Ceſſion, holden afore the ſaid Juſtice, or his Lieutenaunt there for the tyme beyng, fro monyth to monyth, yerely, within the ſaid Shires; in which petit Ceſſions, the ſaid Juſtice and Lieutenaunt, and aythir of thaym, have power to receyve in the ſaid petit Ceſſions, as well as in the ſaid grete Ceſſions, all maner of Appelles and Enditementz, and theropon to make Proceſſe by diſtreſſe or capias as the caſe requirith, the firſt Proceſſe retournable atte the next petit Ceſſion aftir ſuche Appell or Enditement receyvet, and ſo makyng Proceſſe forth from Ceſſion to Ceſſion, unto the partie ſo appellet or endityd be outlawet. And for aſmuche as in the ſaide Shires, afore this tyme have be and yet be, divers Walſhemen, to whom the ſaid Abbot and his Predeceſſoures, have not gyven ſuch rewardes as the ſaide Walſhemen have diſiret, and yet deſire, they have endityd the ſaid Abbot and his Predeceſſoures in the ſaid Ceſſions, of divers felonies wherof they were never gylty, ne never came in that Cuntre afore that tyme, to thentent to compelle the ſaid Abbot and his Predeceſſoures to gyve hem ſuche Fees and Rewardes as thay wold hem ſelf deſire; upon which Enditementz, Proceſſez of Exigend' have be awardet, aſwell agaynes the ſaid Abbot as his Predeceſſoures, or he or his Predeceſſoures couth have any notice of the ſaid Enditementz or Exigend', be cauſe the ſaid Monaſterie of the Vale Roiall, where the ſaid Abbot is abydyng, is $\frac{xx}{vi}$ myle and more out of the ſaid Shires. And where the ſaid Abbot hath comen afore this tyme to appere to Enditement taken in the ſaid petit Ceſſions, he couth not paſſe thurgh divers Lordſhippes Roiall which be in his waye, with out ſave conditz for hym and his Servauntz, and yette hath he be aſſautyd, and his Felyſſhipp beten and woundet, and ſumme maymet; wherfore he dar not come into that Cuntre but atte tymes of gret Ceſſions holden within the ſaid Shires, whille the Kynges be there.

Pleaſe youre wiſe deſcretions, the premiſſes conſideret, to pray the Kyng oure Soverayn Lord, to graunt and ordeigne, by thaſſent of the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell in this preſent Parliament aſſemblet, and be auctorite of the ſame Parliament; that uppon all maner of Appelles, Enditementz and Preſentementz, of Felonies or Treſon, to be taken ayenſt the ſame Abbot, or his ſaid Succeſſoures, in any petit Ceſſion, or othir Court then the grete Ceſſion, to be holden in any of the Shires and Places aforeſaid, uppon the which any Proceſſe ſhuld ben awarder, to take thaym by thaire bodies, or to diſtrayne thaym by thaire godes; that ther be a Capias awarded ayenſte the ſaid Abb' or his Succ'; returnable atte the next grete Ceſſion, to be holden within the ſaid Shires, or any of hem, next aftir the ſame Proceſſe awardet, and non othir; and that atte the ſame gret Ceſſion, open Proclamation be made of the ſaid Appell, Enditementz or Preſentementz, and of all maters in thaym comprehendet. And that the ſaid Abbot, or his Succeſſours, upon whom ſuche Appelles, Enditementz or Preſentement ben hade, come to unſware to the ſame Appell, Enditementz and Preſentementz, atte the next grete Ceſſion than there next to be holden; and then atte that ſecunde gret Ceſſions, then Proceſſe lawefull to be awardet ayenſt the ſaid Abbot and his Succeſſoures, aftir the comune lawe, if thay appere not; and if any Proceſſe opon any ſuch Appell, Enditement or Preſentement, ayenſt the ſaid Abbot, or his ſaid Succeſſoures, taken in the ſame petit Ceſſion or othir Court be hade, and Proceſſe theropon be wardet, in any othir fourme thanne as hit is afore deſiret, that thanne the ſame Proceſſe be voide and non' in lawe. And if any ſuch Appell, Enditement or Preſentement, be hade or taken ayenſt the ſaid Abbot, or his Succeſſoures, in any gret Ceſſions wythin the Shires aforeſaid, that then Proclamation be made in the ſame Ceſſion, of the ſame Appell, Enditement or Preſentement, and a Capias to be awardet ayenſt ye ſaid Abbot, or his Succeſſours, to be retournable atte the next gret Ceſſion, thenne next to be holden within the ſaid Shires; and then atte that Ceſſion, if the ſaid Abbat, or his Succeſſoures, appere not, Proceſſe aftir the commune lawe to be awardet; and if any Proceſſe of ſuche Appell, Enditement or Preſentement, taken in the ſaid gret Ceſſion, be awardet or ſervet in othir wyſe, that it be voide and non in lawe. And to conſider alſo, howe this ſame Petition paſſyd by the Comunes atte the laſt Parlement atte Redyng, and aftir was endoſett by the Kyng oure ſaid Soverayn Lord, that afore that the Abbot of the Vale Roiall for the tyme beyng be outlawed, Proclamation be made in the Shires aforeſaid, or on of hem, as the cas requiryth, atte iii of the laſt full Countees to be hade there, afore pronounſyng of ſuch Outlawrie; the which endocement is wers than the comune lawe, and non availe to the ſaid Abbot nor his Succeſſoures. And that for the love of God, and in waye of charite.

A. D. 1442. 20 Hen. VI.

Englond, Harry Archebisshop of Caunturbury, Waulter Lord Hungerford, and other, for the grete truste that he hadde in hem, of dyvers Castellez, Manerez, Townez, Lordschippez, Honurez, Londez, Tenementz, Rentes, Reversions, Servicez, Jurisdictions, Libertees, Fraunchisez, Fees, Avousons, and other Possessions, aswell in Englond as in Walez, as of his enheritaunce, parcell of his Duchie of Lancastre, of the yerely value of M. VI. li. and more by estimation, to have to theym and to theire Heirez, to the entent and effecte, to execute and perfourme his Wille upon the seide Feffement, to hem by hym made and declarid in writyng; the value of whiche Castellez, Manerz, Townez, Lordschippez, Honurez, Londez, Rentes, Tenementez, Reversions, Jurisdictions, Libertez, Fraunchisez, Avousons and Possessions, aftur the seide extente, fro the deth of your seide noble Fadir, into the Fest of Seinte Michell last passed, by the seide Feffeez resceived and to be resceived, amounteth to the somme of c. M. CCC. XIIII. li. and more by estimation. And how it is to suppose and conceyve, that the seide Wille of youre seide noble Fadir, by the seide Feffeez of so grete and notable sommes by hem resceived, of the Issuez, Profitz and Revenuz, comyng of the seide Castellez, Manerez, Townez, Lordschippez, Honurez, Londes, Tenementis, Rentes, Reversions, Servicez, Jurisdictions, Liberteez, Fraunchisez, Feez and Possessions, by so long tyme beyng in theire hondez, might afore this tyme dieuly have ben fully executed and perfourmed, above all other chargiez that are knowyn; whiche Wille perfourmed, it is to understond by all reson, good feith and conscience, that alle the seid Castellez, Lordshippez, Manours, Londez, Tenementz, and all the other seid Possessions, as the olde right and enheritaunce of youre seide noble Fadir, belongeth unto yow, Soverain Lord, as Heire to hym; conside ryng, that the seid Feffees have no title ner intereste therynne, but only upon trust, and to his use, to execute his Wille, as it is afore rehersid; and that the seid Feffeez be but fewe in noumbre, whereby of liklyhode the possession therof by casuelte of dethe, myght reste in oon of theyme, and so descende unto his Heirez that over lyved; in whiche case, and it fortune upon a Temporall man, thenne his wyfe were therof endowable, and by suche menys your right and intereste therof, by youre lawe, the further fro you thenne they now be, to youre grete hurte and to youre likly disheritaunce. Therof considered also, that in youre Counceill, the XV day of Juyn, the XII^the yere of your reigne, beyng thenne there my Lord of Bedford youre uncle, whome God assoille; the seid Feffeez desired that by yow, certeyne Lordez of youre Councell myght be depute to see the bookes of receyte, and of the ministration of the revenuez in all goodly haste, of thoo Londez that they were so enfeffid ynne; and that done, they agreed that ye myght have and resceyve alle that shulde growe of the seide feffement, aftur Michelmesse day thanne next comyng, by the hondez of the Officerez and Deputeez of the seide Feffeez, so that Proclamation schulde be made before the Parlement thenne next sewyng, that every man that wolde aske dette for Housholde, Chaumbre, Warderobe, Kyngez werkes, or for money borowed, brynge ynne to the seide Feffeez the growndez that they aske it by; and if it myght appere, that the sommez of the Assignementz or of the Revenuz of that yere, wolde not suffice for paiement for the Kyngez dettez afore rehersid, and for perfourmyng of his Chaunterye and of his Toumbe, thenne ye to make to the seid Feffeez, for the rest that schuld so be founde, dieu assignement and agrement: and if so were that the somme of the assignement made to the seide Feffeez, and the Revenuez of that yere, wolde amounte to a gretter somme thenne the somme of the dettez, and makyng of the seid Chauntrye and Tombe, thenne the residue therof to be paied up to yowe. And over that, the seid Feffeez, this done, willed and agreed to make astate to yowe, Soverain Lord, of alle the seide Londes and Tenementz that they stode enfeffed ynne; that is to sey, of that that was Fee taille, in Fee taill, and of that that was Fee symple, in Fee symple; how be it and ye toke astate therof of youre seide Feffeez in suche wise, or that they enseffe yowe therynne, ye myght not have, holde ner enjoye, the seide possessions in enheritaunce to youre availle and suerte, in suche maner and fourme of enheritaunce, and as parcell of youre seid Duchie, as youre seide noble Fadir hem hadde and helde at the tyme of the seid feffement, and before; upon whoos desirez, Writtez of Proclamation procedut accordyng to theise premisses. Considered also, that in the Parlement at Redyng, the XVIII^the yere of youre regne, the seide Feffeez among other, grauntid to yow, Soverain Lord, that aftur the dette that thenne was owyng unto the seide Cardinall and to the seide Archebisshop of Caunturbury paied, for the whiche Assignement was made by the seid Feffeez, upon the seid Castellez, Manerez, Townes, Lordschippez, Honurez, Londez, Tenementez, Rentes, Reversions, Servicez, Jurisdictions, Liberteez, Fraunchisez, Feez, Avousons, and other Possessions, compriséd by the seide feffement, by certeyne personez by your commaundement, to the use of the seid Cardinall and Archebisshop; reservyng to the seide Feffeez M. li. yerely, unto the tyme they hadde perfourmed the seid Kyngis Wille their Feffour; that thenne all the surplusage therof, schuld be delyverid to the Tresorer of youre Housholde for the tyme beyng, for the expensez of the same Housholde; of whiche surplusage so resceived, the seid Tresorer schulde accompt in your Eschequer; whiche dette, long tyme before the first day of this present Parlement, was paied to the seid Cardinall and Archebisshop: and over that, grete and notable sommes have ben resceyved sithyn the seid Parlement so beyng at Redyng. And therupon; of youre noble grace, theise premisses considerid, and for the counfort and ease of youre peple, that it plese youre Highnesse, by auctorite of this present Parlement, to ordeigne and assigne certein persones, suche as may like to your Highnesse, to here the declaration of the seide Feffeez, or of other persones by hem suche as thei will depute and name in writyng, of the seide Wille and of the execution therof, and of all the Dependentz therof, and of all the Issues, Profites, Revenuez, Paiementes, Costes and Expenses, of and for the seide Castellez, Manerez, Townes, Lordschippez, Honurez, Landes, Tenementz, Rentez, Reversions, Servicez, Jurisdictions, Libertees, Fraunchisez, Fees and Possessions; and that the seide Feffeez, or other persones by hem to be depute and named, be redy upon resonable warnyng, atte suche tymes and as ofte as the seide personez so to be assigned wolle ordeigne, to declare the trought of theise premisses, with alle the circumstances and dependentez of the same; and yif neither the seide Feffeez, aftur resonable warnyng to hem in that partie made, ner other personez for hem, in the fourme aforeseide to be by hem namyd, come for to declare the seide Wille and execution therof, and of alle other premisses; or elles, if they come and wolle not declare theis premisses in the fourme afore rehersid, afore the seid persones so by yow to be ordeyned and assigned; or ellys, if it may be founden by suche declaration, for the parte of the seid Feffeez, afore the seid persones so to be assigned, that the seide Wille is perfourmed and executed, or elles that parcell therof restuthe and remayneth unperfourmede and not executed; and ye, aftur reporte therof to you made, agree and contente the seide Feffeez by sufficiaunt assignement or other wise, for the execution of the seide Wille, of as moche as thenne remayned unperfourmed and not executed; that thenne it be levefull to you, Soverain Lorde, by the seide auc-

30. PRAYEN the Communes, that hit please the Kyng our Soverain Lord, for the sauff kepyng of the See, to ordeyn and auctorise by the auctorite of this Parlement, certains Articles and appoyntmentes, conteyned in a Cedule to this Bille annexed.

TENOR vero Cedule predicte sequitur in hec verba.

For as muche as it is thought be alle the Communes of this Lande, that it is necessarie the See to be kepte, there moste purviaunce be made for certeine Shippes defensablez in maner and fourme after folowyng.

FIRST, it is thought, that the lest purveaunce that can be made for the worship of the Kyng our Soveraigne Lord, and welfare and defence of this Roialme of England, is for to have upon the See continuelly, for the sesons of the yere fro Candilmes to Martymesse, VIII^e Shippes with forstages; ye whiche Shippes, as it is thought, most have on with an other, eche of hem CL men; summa, $\frac{c}{xii}$ men.

A. D. 1442. 20 Hen. VI.

ITEM, every grete Shippe most have attendyng opon hym a Barge, and a Balynger; and every Barge most have in $\frac{xx}{iiii}$ men; summa, $\frac{c}{vi}$ and XL men.

ITEM, Vetaillyng for a month, drawith atte XIIII d. the man in the weke, summa $\frac{c}{v}$ XXVII li. VI s. VIII d.; summa for the month, in Vitaillyng and Wages, $\frac{c}{vii}$ LXI li. VI s. VIII d.; summa for VI moneths for this yere, $\frac{M}{iiii}\ \frac{c}{D}$ LXVIII li.; summa for VIII monethes yerely folowyng, duryng the graunte of Tonage and Poundage, $\frac{M}{vi}\ \frac{xx}{iiii}$ X li. XIII s. IIII d.

ITEM, it is to be remembred where the saide Shippes shulle be hadde; First, at Bristowe, the Nicholas of the Toure, and Katerine of Burtons. Item, atte Dertemouthe, the Spaynysshe ship that was the Lord Pouns. Item, atte Dertemouth, Sir Phelip Courteneys grete Ship. Item, in the Porte of London, II grete Shippes, one called Trinite, and that other called Thomas. Item, atte Hull, a grete Ship called Taverners, y^e name Grace Dieu. Item, atte the Newe Castell, a grete Shippe called the George. Item, VIII Barges to be had; first, of Herry Russell of Weymouth, a Barge. Item, of Phelippe Courteney Knyght, I Barge. Item, atte Plymmouth, the Barge called Mangeleke in the water of Saltasshe. Item, atte Wynchelse, II Barges, one of Morefores called the Marie, and that other pratte Barge called Trinite. Item, of London, a Barge of Beaufitz and Bertyns called Valentyne. Item, of Saltasshe, a Barge called Slugge Barge. Item, of Falmouth, a Barge. Item, VIII Balingers; First, atte Newcastell, with the grete Ship there, I Balinger. Item, of Sir Phelip Courtneys, I Balynger. Item, atte Fowy, of Sir William Bonviles, a Balynger called Palmer. Item, atte Dovyr, a Ballynger called Pigfygge, of Wardes and Cooks. Item, atte Sandewych, a Balynger of Haywardes. Item, atte Hampton, a Balynger of Clyfdons called Jaket. Item, atte Seynt Oses, in Essex, a Balynger. Item, of London p Chirch, a Balynger. Item, atte Falmouth, a Balynger. Item, there most be hadde IIII Spynes; First, one of Herry Russell. Item, atte Hastyng, a Spynes. Item, atte Dertmouth, II Spynes. Item, it is thought that there shulde be chosen and nempned, VIII of Knyghtes and worthy Swyers of the West, of the South, and of the North, so that no Cuntre shuld be dispesid; and yerof the Kyng oure Soveraigne Lord chese suche on as hym liketh to be a chief Capytayne, and other VII as the Kyng liketh of the saide VIII, for to attende the saide chief Capytayne; so that every grete Shippe have a Capytayne withynne berde.

ITEM, it is to remembre, that the Kyng will gyff hem in charge, be his Officers to hem sent, yt all these

A. D. 1442. 20 Hen. VI. faide Shippes ſtuffed and arrayed, make theire firſt aſſemble in the Caumbre, there to obey ſuche rewle and governaunce, as be their Capitayne and undre Capitayns ſhall to hem be ordeyned, and there mouſtre of every Shippe to be ſene be ſuche perſones as the Kynge will depute therto be his commiſſion.

ITEM, there ſuche Proclamation and Ordenaünce to be made and eſtabliſſhed amongs and in the ſaide Navie, that none Shipp or Shippes, harme ne hurt none other Shippe of oure Freendes; where thorough any trouble or brekyng of pees myght falle betwene the Kyng our Soveraingne Lord, and other of his Freendes.

ITEM, it is thought neceſſarie, that if any Shippe or Shippes be taken as Ennemyes, whenne the goodes in the ſaide Shippes be broght in to eny Port of this land; that the godes ne the Shippes be nat diſperbled ne devided, into the tyme that it be duly knowen, wheder it be Enemyes goodes, or Freendes godes: Forſene alwey, that ye preſſe be made withinne VI wekes after the landyng or havenyng of the ſeide Shippe or Shippes and Goodes ſo taken.

(m. 3.) ITEM, it is to be remembred, how in tyme paſſid awners of divers Shippes, that have, be commaundement of the Kynges Counſeill, ſent their Shippes to the See, and they nought ſette in their Shippes Maiſters ne Maryners, for their meſpriſion on the See were putte in grete trouble and diſeaſe. Wherfore be it nowe ordeyned be auctorite of this Parlement, that noon ſuche awner of any Shippe atte this tyme goyng to the See, or here after ſhall goe to the See, for kepyng therof, be endaungerd or diſſeiſed, leſſe thenne he be in the See with his Shippe in his perſone, or ellis be partyner of ſuche goodes miſtaken; and if he ſo be founden, yan' he to anſwere to the partie that the goodes be myſtake of, to the value therof that comes to his handes, and in that caas he to be beleved be his othe, and II or III of his credible neyghbours with hym ſworne, and ſo to be acquitte. Forthermore it is aviſed, yat if it ſo be that any of the ſaide Shippes in this Ordenaunce appoynted, be nat in England, ne in the Portes afore named, or mowe not be had, y^t yanne it ſhall be lefull to the ſaide chief Capytayne, for to cheſe be hys wiſdome, an other Shipp or Shippes like to hem that lakketh of thoo that afore ar named; and that every under Capitayne, in the abſence of the chief Capitayne, have ppwer in the ſame fourme, and in caas like, for ſuche Shippes as ſhall be neceſſarie.

ITEM, it is thought, that the Goodes and Shippes that mowe happe to be taken by hem, or by any of hem, in the See of our Enemys, ſhall be departed in the fourme aftre ſewyng. That is to ſay, the Maiſters of the Shippes, Quarter Maiſters, Shipmen and Soudeours, ſhul have half the Shippes and Goodes ſo taken; and oyere half of the Shippes and Goodes, ſhal be departed in three, of the whiche the awners of the Shippes, Barges, Balingers and Spinaces, ſhall have II partes, and the chief Capitain and the undre Capitayns the thrid parte; of the whiche thrid part, the chief Capitayn ſhall have double that oon of the undre Capitains ſhal have.

ITEM, that the IIII^the parte of the half XV^me now graunted, after the fourme of exception and deduction in the ſame Graunte, and after the rate therof, accordyng to the deduction of ſuche parte of a XV^me by Knyghtes of the Shire laſt made, and after the afferaunt of the exceptions in this Graunte, be arrerid by the Collectours therto to be nevend, and by hem payed into the Kings receipt, at the moys of Eſtre next comyng; and that ſomme to be delivered by the Treſourer of England, to the chief Capitayn and undre Capitains, by the Kyng to be nevend, by Endenture bitwene the Kyng and the ſeid Capitayns yerof to be named, for the ſeid governaunce and keping of the See, and to noon oyere uſe; whiche kepyng ſhal begynne the XV^th day of May next commyng, and endure to the XV^th day of November yan next ſewing. And yan, at ye firſt day of March, next aftre the ſeid XV^th day of November, the keping of the See begynne in manere and fourme as is aboveſeid, to endure for the terme of VIII monethes yan next folwyng; the paiement therof to be made of the Tonage and Powndage in this Parlement graunted, by the Treſorer of England for the tyme beyng, to ſuche Capytayn and Capitayns as by the King ſhall be nevend, aftre the rate of the ſeid VI monethes, by Endenture bitwene the Kyng and the ſeid Capitayns to be made; and ſo forth ye next yere folowyng, in ſemblable wiſe: alwey forſayn, that yf ye ſeid Capitains or any of theym, or any of their mayne undre theym, abſent hemſelf out of the See any of the monethes or part of hem aforeſeid, that yanne he or they be diſalowed ſo moch of their Wages, as the rate comes to for the tyme of her abſenc'; leſſe yan the ſeid Capitain or Capitains, or ony man under yeym ſo abſent, leve a ſuffiſaunt man, or ſo many ſuffiſant men in their ſtede, for the tyme of their abſenc'.

ITEM, that noon of the ſeid Veſſelles, nor noon oyere Veſſel to he hadde in ſtede of any of hem, attendyng to the ſame Viage, be arreſted for any Viage of oure Souverain Lord ye King, appoynted or to be appoynted, nor in no oyere uſe, duryng the yeres aforeſeid.

38. TO the Kyng our Soverain Lord; Prayeth the Communs, that wher by the Ordinaunce of partition made uppon Wolles and Wolfelles in the Staple at Caleys, and by the long and ſtreite continuance therof, grete hyndryng and decrece hath comen to you, of grete notable ſommes of your grete Cuſtumes and Subſidies, aſwell in this your Roialme of Englond, as atte your Towne of Caleys, as it apperith ſufficiantly of record in your Eſcheqier; for the whiche, the Communes of this your Roialme have bene oftymes chargeed to ther grete damage, your Souldeours of Caleys and of the Marches there the wers paied of theire Wagees, youre ſaide Toune and Caſtell of Caleys not reparailled; and that alſo the ſaide ſtreite rule, hath cauſed Merchantz Eſtraungeers to labour unto their Lordes of their partie, to make ſo grevous and ſtreite ſerch uppon Bullion commyng unto your Mynt at Caleys, ſo that men of divers Countries in conveyeng of Bullion, hath bene gretely hyndered aſwell in theire perſones as in theire goodes, ſo that the ſeide Mynt is fallen into grete decay, and may not be ſuſteyned like as it was in the tyme of the regne of the Kyng your full noble Fadre, whom God aſſoile, and many yeres afor the ſaide partition furſt ordeyned. And that moreovir the Merchauntes of this your ſaide Roialme, beth therby gretely anientiſed, and of verrey nede the more party of thayme beth enforcid to leve their Merchaundiſes of Woll and Wollfell, be cauſe they may not be rulers of their owen goodes; and that diverſe men, the which may not abide the ſtreite rule of the ſaide partition, bribe and ſtele out of this your ſaide Roialme Woll and Wolfell, without paieng any Cuſtume or Subſidie to you therfor, the which hath bene and is daily, right grete decrece and hyndryng to the Navy of this your Roialme, and to Maiſtres of Shippes and Mariners, bi cauſe that thair lyvyng and yerly availle is gretely decrecyd and amenuſed, by the ſmall ſhippyng of Wolles and Wolfell to your ſaid Staple, for the cauſis aforſaide; and that the price and valugh of Wolles and Wolfell, by the ſaide ſtreit rules and ordinaunces of partition is ovir gretely decrecid and amenuſyd.

Pleaſe it your Highneſſe of your noble grace to conſidre this aforſaid, and for the univerſell wele, availe and encrece of richeſſe of this your ſeid Roialme, to graunt and ordeigne by the auctorite of this your preſent Parlement, that alle Wolles and Wollefelles, that ſhall be ſhipped here aftir to the ſaid Staple of Caleys, by Merchauntes Denizines of this your Roialme, be putte to ſale by the oweners of the ſaide Wolles and Wollefelles, or by here Attourneis ther, under due fourme and rule of the ſeid Staple, at the price and value of the ſeid Wolles and Wollefelles, as it is by the ordinaunce of the ſaid Staple at this tyme ſette and uſed, or at ſuch price as by the rule of the ſeid Staple ſhall be ordeigned and apoynted, as ofte and whenſomever it ſhall like to the ſame Merchauntes, or here Attourneis; ſo that the thrid part of the price and value for alle ſuch Wolles and Wollefelles, atte the ſaid Staple hereaftre to be ſolde, at the tyme of the ſale, and tofore the lyvere of hem from the ſeid Staple, be brought and hadde in Bullion of ſilver to the Kynges Mynte at Caleys, ther to be cuned by the overſight of the Meir, Conſtables, and Felyſhipp of the ſaid Staple for the tyme beyng, to be delyvered after it is ſo cuned, to the ſeid Merchauntes oweners of the ſaid Wolles or Wollefelles ſo ſolde, or here Attourneis, and by hem to be brought and hadde into your ſaid Roialme of Englond, by the ordinaunce and overſyght of the ſaid Meyr, Conſtables, and Felyſhipp of the ſaid Staple for the tyme beyng, withoute fraude, embeſelyng or withdraught therof in eny wiſe, and without eny partition of the money that ſhall come of the ſaid Bullion, or of eny paiement of the other parties, of the value of the ſaid Wolles and Wollefelles, to be hadde or made; and that this ſaid Ordinaunce endure to the ende of VII yer next ſuyng.

A. D. 1442. 20 Hen. VI.

As to the partition eſpecified in this Petition, the Kyng woll, that the Mair and the Feliſhip of the Staple of Caleys, reforme it among hem ſelf accordyng to the ſaid Petition, before the firſt day of Auguſt nyxt commyng; and that it be ſo kept forth duryng the VII yere eſpecified in the ſaid Petition. And if thay do it noght; thanne the Kyng wolle, as to the partition and the remenant in the ſame Petition conteyned, that it be as it is deſired.

26. UNTO the right wiſe and diſcrete Communes in this preſent Parlement aſſembled; Beſechen moſt mekely the Mair, Alderman, Baillifs and Burgeis, of the Engliſh Townes of our Soveraigne Lord in the parties of North Wales, and other true Engliſhmen of our ſeid Soveraigne Lord in that partie; that where in tyme of Kyng Edward the firſt after the conqueſt, upon the rebell of Walſh men in his tyme, for the ſuertee of his true Engliſh men, and for to kepe the ſeid Walſh men and their heirs, in ſubjection unto his Croun of Englond; made divers Ordenaunces, for to abide upon hem, and their heirs for evermore; the whiche gode Ordenaunces, ben of record in the Kynges Eſchequer of Caernervan. And in the tyme of the right gracious King Harry the IIIIth, Ayell unto oure Soveraigne Lord that nowe, for the ſecunde rebell of the ſeid Walſh men, the which aroſen with Owen of Glandoure traytour unto the ſeid Ayell, and maden grete werre, to the grete hurt, loſſe and coſt, of this noble Reaume. Wherfor in the tyme of the ſeid Ayell, there were made dyvers Ordenaunces and Statutz ageinſt Walſhmen, to avale their pompe and pride, and to holde hem in obeyſaunce, for the wele of this ſeid noble Reaume, and ſuertee of his trewe Lieges Engliſh there. And now it is ſoo, that divers of hem hav ſued to be deniſens, and other mo of hem purpoſe to ſue therfore, to thentent that they mowe be of the ſame fredom and libertee as Engliſhmen ben there, the which within ſhort tyme and it were ſoo, as God defend, ſhuld be the utter deſtruction of all Engliſhmen, in the ſeid Townes, and in the grounde there dwelling: For thei ſhulde paſſe in Juries and Triels of hem, and of her liſlodes, whom thei have no thyng in favour, but in grete diſpite, in hert, countenaunce and word. A. D. 1444. 23 Hen. VI.

Pleaſe it unto your high wiſdoms, conſidering that the ſeid Walſh men daily manaſſen the ſeid triewe Lieges Engliſh, for the ſlaughter and deſtruction of her Aunceſtres rebelles, in the tyme of Rebellion, by hem, and by her Aunceſtres ſlayne and deſtroyed; and for Londes and Tenementes, that her Aunceſtres rebelles forfaited in the ſeid tyme, and by the moſt victorious Prince King Harry the Vthe, thenne Prince of Wales, to the ſeid Lieges Engliſh, and to her Aunceſtres graunted; to pray the Kyng oure Soveraigne Lord, by thaſſent of the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and by the auctorite of the ſame, to approve, ratifie and afferme, all manere Ordenaunces and Statutes, made ageinſt Walſh men in your tyme, or in the tyme of your noble Progenitours; and over that, by thaſſent and auctorite of this preſent Parlement, to approve and afferme, all the ſeide Ordenaunces and Statutz, made aſwell in the tyme of his ſeid Ayell, ageinſt the ſeid Walſh men. And that no maner Walſh man of hole blode, ne half blode on the fader ſide, from the Ferſt day of Feverer, the yere of the reigne of our Soveraigne Lorde that now is XXIIIIth, be made Deniſen or Engliſh. And that no manere Walſh man, ſue ne purchace no Lettres Patentz of oure Soveraigne Lorde, ne of his heirs, of no maner chief office within the grounde of Wales, contrarie to the Statutes and Ordenaunces ageinſt hem made; and that no patent of the ſeide offices by our Soveraigne Lord ne his heires, to them or to their heires, after the Firſt ſeid day of Feverer to be made, all be it yat yei be with this clauſe non obſtante, be voide and of none effect. And that no manere Walſh man ſue contrarie unto the ſeid Ordenaunce, upon peyne of cc marcs, wherof that one part unto the King, and that other half therof, to him that will ſue for the King; and that he yat will ſue for the Kyng, may ſue aſwell in Englond as in Wales, for the ſeid part: except William Bulkeley, which is Engliſh of Fader and Moder, and in Englond born, which hath wedded a woman of half blode Walſh; and Griffith ap Nicholas; for the which afore this tyme your wiſdoms have prayed for, and paſſed the hous, and their Billes to the Lordes delivered.

30. BESECHEN the Commons in this present Parlement assemblid; that as where at the last Parlement of oure Soverain Lord the Kyng that nowe is, holden atte Westmonster, it was enacted, and bi oure Soverain Lord the Kyng, by thadvys and assent of his Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx in the saide Parlement beyng, atte Petition of his Communes in the saide Parlement assemblid, graunted; that as where, there were as well within the Citee of Norwich as the Counte of Norff', dyvers persones that maden untrue ware of all maner Worstedes, not beyng of thadsyses in lengith and brede, as they shuld be, and were of old tyme accustumed, and the Slayes and Yern therto belangyng, untruly were made and wrought, in grete disceite aswell of Deynzeyns as of Estraungers repairyng to this noble Reaume; that used to bey such Merchaundise, trusting that it were within as it shewith outeward, wher of trouthe it was contrary; and ther as Worstedes was somtyme fair' Merchandise, and gretely desired and lovyd in the partyes beyonde the See, be cause it was of untrue makyng, and untru stuff, noo man sette therby, to ryght gret hurt of the Custumes of oure said Soverayn Lord the Kyng, and gret harme and prejudice to his true Liege peple; that to the destruction of such defautes, that men of the said craft within the said Citee, shuld have power every yere atte fest of Pentecost, to chese IIII Wardeyns within the said Citee of the same craft, and tho Wardeins to have power to chese other two men of the said Shire, withoute the said Citee, and all the Wardeyns to come afore the Maire of the said Citee for the tyme beyng, upon the Monday after Corpus Cristi day thenne next folowyng, and ther to be sworn afore the Maire, to make true and due serche of all maner Worstedes, and of the stuff therto belangyng, made or to be made within the saide Citee or Shire; and that every pece of Worsted be suyng thurgh oute the clothe of true makyng, good and convenient Stuff, and that thei hold the length and brede, as the assise was wont to be of old tyme truly accustumed. That is to wite, Beddes of the most assise, in length IIII yerdes large, and in brede IIII yerdes large, thurgh oute the pece. And Beddes of the middell assise, XII yerdes long, and in brede thurgh oute the pece III yerdes. And Beddes of the lest assise, X yerdes longe large, and II yerdes and dī brode. And Monkes Clothes, XII yerdes long at the lest, and V quarters brode. And Chanon clothes, V yerdes long, and VII quarters brode. And Chanon clothes, VI yerdes long, and II yerdes brode. And double Worsted, X yerdes long, and V quarters brode; and half doubles, VI yerdes long, and V quarters brode; and rolle Worsted, XXX yerdes long, and half yerd brode large; and that ther shuld be put in noon of the saide Worstedes, ony Lambe Woll, nor pell Woll; and the Wardeyns of the said craft for the tyme beyng, shuld have power and auctorite to sease all such Clothes and Stuff so founde defectif; and that the Maire of the said Citee for the tyme beyng, have power to enquere, here and determyn, as well atte sute of oure said Soveraigne Lord, as atte enformation of the Wardeyns forseyd, of all thoo that doon ayenst the saide Ordenaunce within the said Citee: and in like fourme, the Justice of the peas in the Shire abovesaid, withoute the Citee, have power to enquere, here and determine, of all tho that doon ayenst the said premisses in the said Shire, withoute the Citee abovesaid. And if ony man therof, before the said Maire and Justices of peas be duely convict and atteint, that thanne the Worstedes and Stuff so founden defectif, be forfaite; that is to say, that on half of such forfaiture to oure saide Soverayn Lorde, and that other half, to the Wardeyns of the said craft for the tyme beyng. And the Maire for the tyme beyng of the saide Citee, and Justices of peas in the said Shire, have power to make such processes severally, ayenst such persone or persones that shull be founde defectif, be enquerre afore them to be taken of ony thing doon ayenst the premisses, as Justices of the peas make, upon Enditementz taken afore them, of trespas doon with force and armes ayenst the peas of oure saide Soverayn Lord: and that the saide Ordenaunce begynne to take effect, at Mighelmas next folowyng the saide Parlement, to endure to the ende of III yere.

Please it unto oure saide Soverayn Lorde the Kyng, that it wold please unto his noble grace to ordeine by auctorite of this present Parlement, to the wele of all his his people of this his noble Roialme, and in amendement of the faide Worſtedes, and in deſtruction of all maner deſceite to be doon and wrought in Worſtedes be them that worken hit, and the meanes therof, that men of the ſaid craft within the faide Citee, have power every yere atte Feſt of Pentecoſt, to cheſe IIII Wardeyns within the ſaid Citee, of the ſame craft; and alſo in lykewiſe, that the Craftymen of the ſame craft, dwellyng withoute the faide Citee, that is to wete, in the Counte of Norff', have power every yere atte faide Feſt of Pentecoſt, to cheſe IIII Wardeyns within the faide Counte, of the ſame craft; and that thei, nor noon of hem, to be choſen bi the Wardeyns of the forſaid craft, within the forſaid Citee, ony act of Parliament afore this tyme made to the contrary notwithſtandyng. And that the ſaid Wardeyns in the ſaid Countee and Citee, be ſworne afore the Maire of the faide Citee, and the Styward of the Duche of Lancaſtre within the ſaid Countee for the tyme beyng, if it ſhall happe hym within the faide Citee to be preſent, or elles byfore the Maire oonly, the ſayde Styward beyng abſent at ſuch tyme; and that all the faide Wardeyns, aſwell within the faide Citee as withoute, or elles the more partie of hem, undre this fourme afore reherced choſen and ſworn, have full power to overſee the workemanſhipp of the faide Craftymen, and that thei make and work well and truely; and to make and ordeyne ſuche rules and ordenaunces within the ſaid craft, as often as it ſhall ſeme to them nedefull, as ſhall be to the amendement of the faide Worſtedes and craft; and that ſuch rules and ordenaunces be them ſo made and ordeined, to be by the ſaid Craftymen obeied and kept, or elles the faide Wardeyns, yem of the faide Craftymen that ony of thaire ſaid rules and ordenaunces breke, or doo the contrary, by the diſcretion of the faide Maire and Styward to punyſshe; and alſo that no man of the ſaid Craft, make ony Worſtede withoute he ſette theruppon his marke, by ordenaunce of the faide Wardeyns, or elles the faide Worſtedes be forfaite unto oure Soveraigne Lord the Kyng; and that the faide Wardeyns, aſwell within the faide Citee, as within the Countees of Norff' and Suff', have full power to ſerche all maner Worſtedes, or to do ſerche, as well within the Lomes as oute of the Lomes; and that all maner Worſted and Stuff longyng therto, founde by them be ony cauſe afore reherced defectif, by the ſaide Wardeyns to be forfaite. That is to wete, that oon half to the Maires and Baillifs of Citeez, Burghs or Tounes, or to the chief Lordes of the Fee, of and in ſuche places, as it ſhall fortune ſuche Worſtedes and Stuff, by the ſaide Wardeyns to be founde be ony cauſe forſaide defectif and forfaitable; and the other half, to the Wardeyns of the ſaide Craft. And that all maner Maires, Shirefs and Baillifs, and all other Officers, be attendaunt, aidyng and ſupportyng the ſaide Wardeyns in there ſerches, as often as thei, or any of hem, ben by the ſaid Wardeyns or ony of hem reſonabely required: In the reverence of God, and in way of charitee.

Reſponſio. Be it as it is deſired, to endure to the ende of thre yere next folowyng; alway forſeyn, that if it happen the Wardeyns of the Crafte in this Petition eſpecified, aſwele within the Citee of Norwich as withoute, or elles the more partie of hem, in maner and fourme within written choſen and ſworn, to make any ſuch rules and ordenaunces as ben eſpecified in this Petition, and deſired to be made by thayme, that the ſame rules and ordenaunces be in no wiſe putte in execution, afore that the Kyng and his Counſell be certified of thaime; and that it ſeme to the Kyng and his Counſeill, the ſame rules and ordenaunces expedient and byhovefull, for the wele of the Kyng and his Roialme.

32. TO the ryght wiſe and diſcrete Communes of this preſent Parlement; Beſecheth mekely Robert Shirbourne Citezeine and Draper of the Citee of London, to conſidre, that wher one Jenycogĥt de Gales, be the name of John de Gaurtez of Bayon Maryner, by the moſt Reverent Fader in God my Lorde Chaunceller of Englond that nowe is, was committed to William Venour, Wardeyn of the priſon of the Flete, ſaufly for to kepe, for execution of CCC $\frac{XX}{IIII}$ VIII li. III s̃. IIII d̃., at the ſuite of youre ſaid Beſecher, by force of a reconiſaunce to him made of the ſeid ſomme by the ſaid Jenycogĥt, in a Statute of the Staple; and afterward by force of a Writte, the ſeid Jenycogĥt was brought into the Kynges Benche with the cauſe forſeid, by the ſeid Wardeyn of the Flete, and yere was committed to the Ward of the Mareſchall of the ſeid Benche, with the cauſe forſeid ſaufly for to kepe, in execution of the ſomme forſeid; the ſeid Jenycoght afterward by ſotill and untrewe ymagination, for to defraude your ſeid Beſecher of his ſeid execution, made one George Grenelane ſomtyme of London, that hadde beknowe divers felonies, and becam prower for the Kyng, to appele the ſaid Jenycoght of that, that thei two togedir, certayn day, yere and place, felonyſly ſhold have ſtolne certein goodes, pris of VI s., the which felonye the ſaid Jenycoght knowleched, to thentent to be delivered to the Ordinary, and then to make his purgation, and ſo to be delivered, for aſmoche as he was a Clerk, and ſo to avoyde your ſeide Beſecher of the execution aboveſaide, by the cours of the commune lawe. Wheras the ſaid prower afterward, byfore the Juſticez of the ſaide Benche expreſſely knowleched, that no ſuch ſtelthe nor felony was comitted by the ſaid Jenycoght and hym, but the appele made by hym upon the ſaide Jenycoght, and the confeſſion made therof by the ſaide Jenycoght, was done by and colluſion bitwene hem bothe, to thentent of deliveraunce of the ſaide Jenycoght to the Ordinaries priſon, as it is aboveſaide: and after that, the ſeide Jenycoght, as Clerk convict upon the knowliche of the ſaide Felony, was delivered to the Abbot of Weſtm' as Ordinarie, wherthurgh your ſeide Beſecher is excluded and defrauded of his ſaide execution, to his finall diſtruction, without other remedie to him therof be purveyed.

Pleaſe it your ryght wiſe diſcrecions, to conſidre tenderly the premiſſes, and therwith that by ſuch ſubtill and untrewe colluſion and ymagination, any man committed to Priſon for execution of dette, ſhuld mowe delude and defrawde his Creditour, be it by the Kyng, or any other perſone, at whos ſute he is ſo enpriſoned; and in eſchuyng of ſuch colluſions and fraudes, and of the inconveniences like als to enſue, to praye oure Soverayn Lord the Kyng, by thaſſent of his Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and by auctorite of this preſent Parlement, to ordeine, eſtabliſſh and graunte, that the ſaide Juſticez of the Kyngs Benche, have power by auctorite of this preſent Parlement, by a Writ to ſend for the body of the ſaid Jenycoght; and the ſeide Abbot as Ordinary, by vertue of the ſaid Writ, ſhall delivere the body of the ſaid Jenycoght to the ſeid Juſtices, upon peyne of the ſeid ſomme of CCC $\frac{XX}{IIII}$ VIII li. III s. IIII d., to be paied by the ſeid Ordinary to your ſeid Suppliaunt, be an action of dette, in cas that the ſeid Abbot as Ordenarie, wol not delivere the body of the ſeid Jenycoght as it is byforeſeid. And in caas that the ſeid Abbot, by vertue of the ſaid Writ, delivere the body of the ſeid Jenycoght to the forſeid Juſticez, that than the ſeid Juſticez, to delivere the ſame bodi to the Merſchall of the ſeid Kynges Benche, yere to abide in Priſon under the Ward of the ſaid Mareſchall, in execution for the ſeid CCC $\frac{XX}{IIII}$ VIII li. III s. IIII d., in the ſame maner and fourme as he was afore in the forſeid priſon of the Flete, withoute lettyng to maynpriſe, or in any other wiſe to go at large by or under Baſton, unto the tyme that the ſeid Robert Shirborn be yerof ſatisfied and paied of Recorde in the ſeide Kynges Benche, upon payne of the ſaide CCC $\frac{XX}{IIII}$ VIII li. III s. IIII d. to be paied to your ſeid Beſecher, by an action of Dette, in cas it be founde by Recorde, that the ſaide Mareſchall do the contrarie; and after ſuch paiement and ſatisfaction made unto the ſame Robert of Recorde, that than the ſeide Juſtices of the Kynges Benche, have power by the auctorite aforeſeid, to ſend for the ſeid Jenycoght by Writ therupon to be made, and to committe him to the Ordinarie after fourme of lawe. And in like maner, that if any perſone nowe beyng, or that hereafter ſhall be in any Priſon in execution, by force of any Statute of the Staple, or Statute Merchaunt, or of any condempnation in any Court for dette or damage, what Court ſo ever it be, at the ſuyt of oure Soveraigne Lorde the Kyng, or of any of his Liege poeple, hath be appeled or endited, or ſhall ſo be, of any Felonye; that in cas that the perſone that is or hereafter ſhall be ſo empriſoned, and in execuſion, afterward by the lawe, hath be putte to anſwere or ſhall be of the Kyng, byfore any Juge or Juges, and yerof convict or atteint, or ſhall be by cla ... or any oyer ... and yerupon hath and wold take hym to his Clerge; that than the ſame perſone ſo atteint or convict of Felony, be remitted withoute any delaye to the ſame Priſon wherin he was putte in execution, yere to abide and ſaufly to be kept, till ſuch perſone or perſones, at whos ſuit he is putte in Priſon by any ſuch manere of execution as is aboveſaid, be fully of Recorde in the ſame Court ther he was condempned, agreed and ſatisfied of the ſame, by the ſeid perſone ſo convict or atteint of felonie; and that after ſuch agreement and ſatisfaction duly and truly made of Recorde, that than ſuch Juge or Juges, bifore whom the Record of ſuch conviction or atteyndre remayneth, have pleynly power and auctorite, to ſend for the ſaid Felon by a Writ duly to be made, and to committe hym to the Ordinarie, and the Ordinarie hym to receyve upon peyne of XL li. and to kepe hym till he have made his due purgation in fourme of lawe; for the love of God, in way of charitee.

vaunt, Artiſicer, Werkman or Laborer, do contrarie to the premiſſes, or denye his ſervice, occupation or labour, by reſon of none gevyng Wages or Salaryes contrarye to this Statute, that he leſe to the partie that wil ſue in this part xx s.; and that the yevers of exceſſyſſ Salaryes or Wages, renne in the ſame payne. And that the ſaid Juſtices of pees, have power to here and determyne all manere offences doon ayen the fourms of this Statute, aſwell at Kynges ſuyte, as atte ſuyte of partye; and that every of the Kynges Lieges, may have ye ſuite ayen every perſone yat ſhall offende in eny poynt ayen yis Statute, and ye proceſſe yerin, be Attach', a Capias and Exigend'.

ITEM, that ye Juſticez of pees, aſſeſſe no Fyne upon eny that ſhall be convicte afore theym, of thyng done ayen eny Statute of Laborers or Artificers, or by that cauſe ſhall put hym in the Kynges grace, bynethe III s. IIII d.

ITEM, yat the Juſticez of pees by all the Roialme, II tymes every yere, alle Statutes of Laborers, Artificers, Hoſtelers, Vitaillers, Servauntz and Vagarauntz, afore this tyme made and not revoked, with yis Statute, openly in their Seſſion do to be pronounced.

ITEM, that by colour of tenure of laſſe Teñtz, yan the Huſbondry yerof ſuffiſeth to a mannes contynuel occupation, no man be excuſed to ſerve by the yeer, upon peyne to be juſtified as a Vagaraunt; alſo that Juſticez of pees, have power to take all Servauntz, witholden with eny perſone by colour of Huſbondrye and not dewly occupyed aboute it, whiche Servauntz owed by the lawe to be Servauntes of Huſbondrye, oute of ye ſervyſe of theire Maiſters, and to compelle theym to ſerve in occupation of Huſbondrye, to ſuch as ſhall require theire ſervyſe, and to juſtifie thaym in every poynt, lyke as ye ſame Juſtiſes have power to juſtifie Vagarauntz; and that this Statute begynne to be of force and executorye, in the Feſt of Mighelmeſſe yat ſhall be in the yere of oure Lord MCCCCXLVI, and in no wyſe before.

Reſponſio. Wher by this Petition it is deſired ymonge other thynges, that every Servaunt of Huſbondrie, purpoſing hym to departe from his Maiſter atte ende of his terme, atte middes of his terme, or elles before, make Covenaunt with an other man, to ſerve hym for the next yere, if he be in ſuch caas as the lawe wille compelle hym to ſerve; the ſame Covenaunt to be made in preſence of the Coneſtables of Tounes, wher ſuch Servauntes atte that tyme be in Service; and that the ſaide Servaunt, and he that ſo ſhall make Covenaunt with hym in preſence of the Coneſtables, atte Middes of the ſaide terme or before, warne the Maiſtre of the ſaid Servant, of the ſaide newe Covenaunt ſo of newe made; and if eny Covenaunt with eny ſuch Servaunt be made in other wiſe, or that ſuch warnyng in manere and fourme aboveſaide be not hade, that the ſame Covenaunt be voyde as to all the premiſſes. And to all the remenaunt of this Petition, the Kyng wille that it be as it is deſired, except onely the ſaide Covenaunt and warnyng to be made in the preſence of the Coneſtables; and that the Covenauntez made in other wiſe than ſo, ſhuld be voide; and except that the yevers of exceſſyfs Salaries or Wages, renne in ſuch peyne as is conteined in this Petition. And as to the eſpeciale Articles ſo afore except, the Kyng wille be advyſed; ſo alway, that the ſaide Covenant makyng with a newe Maiſtre by ſuch Servaunt of Huſbondrye, and warnyng of the departyng of ſuch Servaunt oute of the ſervice of his former Maiſter, be made atte ſuch tyme as is deſired by the ſaide Petition, and undre ſuch peyne as is eſpecified in the ſaide Petition touchyng this matier.

wher as in olde tyme, al manere of Wynes that have be made in the ſeid parties of Gaſcoyn and Guyen, in her makyng and in fillyng of Veſſels, were woned and uſed to paſſe thurgh a Veſſell or Inſtrument, in tho parties cleped a Canner, ſo that there myght neither Cluſters of Grapes, ne hole Grapes, ne none other thyng, entre in no wiſe into the Veſſels filled by the ſaid Inſtrument, yat myght cauſe yat Wyne after that to reboille or myſcare; and alſo where as in the ſaid tyme, after that the Veſſels were ſo filled, yei had certein daies of boillyng and paryng, and by all yat tyme were filled atte leſt thre tymes in the day, and in the nyght, ſo yat the ſaide Wyne had his true makyng, and trewe boillyng and paryng, and trewe kepyng, and fillyng of the Veſſels yerof by the ſaid tyme, wherthurgh the ſaide Wynes in tho daies made, were trewe in Wyne and lye, and not reboilled, ſo that no manere man had cauſe to compleyn, of gretneſſe of lyes in any Veſſell of Wyne of the Contrees, ne of reboillyng of hem. But in theſe dayes, for aſmoche as the poeple of tho Contrees, hav full conſideration yat ther is no rule ſette, obſerved ne kept here, on ye makyng of theire Wynes, ne on the fillyng, boillyng ne paryng therof, to her ſinguler availl, and to grete hurte of oure Soverayn Lord the Kyng, and of all his Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and of all his Liege peple of this Roialme, they fillen her Wynes in ſuch wyſe, that ther paſſeth into the Veſſels hole grene Grapes, and grete quantite of lye; and notwithſtandyng all this untrouth done in the puttyng of theire Wynes into Veſſels, thei will not ſuffre the ſame Wynes to have his tyme of boillyng ne of paryng, nor kepe the tymes of fillyng, as yei ought to do, and as it was accuſtumed in olde tyme, but thei lettyn ye Veſſels lye unfilled, and ſo moch lakkyng, that it may not pare as it ſhuld if it were kept full; wherthurgh of ſuch Wyne be kept toward the latter ende of the yeer, yat it reboilleth and ſtynketh, and is not able for any mannes drynke, ne no thyng els but to caſt oute into the Cannell, the which hath notably be founde and proved in the ſelers of oure ſaid Soverayn Lord, and of his Lordes aboveſaide, and other Gentils, and alſo among his pouere Communes of this Reaume, to her grete and importable damages, withoute covenable remedie be the ſouner purveide herinne. And more overe, wher as of old tyme every Tonne, Pipe, and other Veſſell of tho Contrees, heeld the full gauge after the gauge of Englond; now in theſe dayes ye Tonnes, Pipes, and oyer Veſſels made in tho parties, ben made laſſe then the gauge of Englond in grete quantite; ſo yat yere as Englyſh Merchauntz byen yere xx Tonnes Wyne in nombre, and paien Cuſtumes, Freightes, and many other coſtes that rennen yerupon, after the nombre of xx Ton, when that Wyn is come into Englond and is yere gauged, yei have litel more yen xviii Ton, and ſom tyme nat ſo moche, the which is grete loſſe and hurte to all the poeple, aſwele of this Roialme, as of the Londes of Irlond and Wales, and ſpecially to the Merchauntz yat yerely gon yerfore into tho parties, and by proceſſe is like to be moche wers, withouten that ſharp remedie be ye more haſtely purveied and ordeined therinne: and how be it that for the cauſes and maters aforeſeid, it hath pleaſed oure Soverain Lord ye Kyng, to ſend into the ſeid parties of Gaſcoyn and Guyen, his Letters Patentz commaundyng and chargyng, yat the manere of makyng of theire Wynes, and alſo thaſſiſe of theire Veſſels, ſhuld be duely kept and obſerved as it was of old tyme, and yit yere is none amendement founden in neither partie.

Wherfore pleaſe it youre wiſe diſcretions, by conſideration of theſe premiſſez, to deſire oure Soverayn Lord the Kyng, by thadviſe and aſſent of his Lordes Spirituel and Temporell in this preſent Parlement beyng, by auctorite of this ſame Parlement to ordeyn; that al manere of Wynes herafter to be made in ye parties of Gaſcoyn and Guyen, be truly and duely made, and yat the ſame Wynes in puttyng yerof into the Veſſels yerwith to be filled, paſſe thurgh a Canner, ſo yat neither Cluſters of Grapes, ne hole Grapes, ne none other thing that may hurte or appeire the ſame Wynes, entre into the ſame Veſſels; and yat the ſame Wynes after yei ben putte into the Veſſels, from henſforth have reſpite of boillyng and paryng as longe tyme as is ſufficient, and yat every Veſſell of the ſame Wynes be filled iii tymes every day and nyght duryng the ſeid tyme, ſo yat the ſame Wyne may have his full boillyng and paryng. And alſo to ordeyne by auctorite aforeſeid, yat every manere Veſſell for Wyne herafter to be made in tho parties, contene and hold ye full aſſiſe of old tyme uſed and accuſtumed; that is to ſey, that every Tonne contene $\frac{xx}{xii}$ and xii Galons, and every Pipe $\frac{xx}{vi}$ vi Galons, every Tercian $\frac{xx}{iiii}$ iiii Galons, and every Hoggeſhede lxiii Galons; and yat all the Wynes and Veſſels herafter made ayenſt the fourme of this Ordenaunce, withinne ye Juriſdiction and power of oure Soverain Lorde the Kyng, in the parties of Gaſcoyn and Guyen, be forfeted and be taken ſeiſed: that is to ſey, withinne ye Juriſdiction and power of the Citee of Burdeux, be the Mair and Juratz of the ſame Citee for the tyme beyng, and in all other placez withinne ye obeiſaunce of oure ſaide Soverain Lord in the ſeid parties, by ye Kynges Coneſtable of Burdeux, or other Officers of oure ſaid Soverain Lord yere for ye tyme beyng; the ſaide Maire, Juratz and Coneſtable, or other Officers, to have for thaire labour in this partie, that one half of al maner Wynes and Veſſels ſo to be forfeted, and yei to anſwere to oure ſaide Soverain Lorde of that oyer half of the ſame forfaitures; and yat ye ſaid Mair and Juratz in the Citee of Burdeux, and in other places of her juriſdiction and power, and the Kynges Lieutenaunt, Seneſchall, Coneſtable, and other Officers yere for the tyme beyng, in all other Citees, Burghs, Townes and places of the Kynges obeiſſaunce yere, do yis Ordenaunce to be procleymed yeerly herafter, foure tymes atte leſt afore the makyng of Wynes and Veſſels yere; and in caas the ſeid Maire and Juratz withinne theire juriſdiction and power, or ye ſeid Lieutenaunt, Seneſchall, Coneſtable, or ther Officers in all other placez aforſeid, at any tyme be negligent, and make nat Proclamation in the fourme aforeſeid, or do not the execution of this ſeid Ordenaunce from tyme to tyme as oft as nede ſhall be, in the fourme aforeſeid, yat yen the ſaid Mair and Juratz forfete m li. ſterling, to be arezed aſwele of ye Merchauntz of the parties of Gaſcoyn and Guyen repairyng into yis Roialme, and of her goodes, as of the Maire and Juratz ſo founde defectif and necligent, and of her goodes; and if it happe yat for ſuch' defaute or necligence of the ſeid Maire and Jurats, ye perſone or perſones, or goodes, of any Merchaunt or Merchauntz, of the parties aforeſeid, at any tyme hereafter be diſtreſſed, taken, hade or arreſted, for levyng of the ſeid m li. or of any parcell yerof, yat then by the auctorite of this preſent Parlement, the ſame Merchaunt or Merchauntz, whos perſone or perſones or goodes, ſhall happe to be taken, arreſted, diſtreſſed or hadde, may have and purſue a lawfull Action afore the Seneſchall or his Lieutenaunt, and ye Kynges Counſell yere for the tyme beyng, to recover ayenſt the ſaid Mair and Juratz, ye value of the goodes ſo take, arreſted and diſtreſſed, with theire coſtes and damages in yat partie hade and ſuſteyned; and that the Seneſchall, Coneſtable, and other Officers of our ſeid Soverain Lord yere, in whom ſuche defaute or necligence as is aforeſeid ſhall happe to be found, forfete

49. TO the full worthi and diſcrete Communes at this preſent Parlement aſſemblid; Shewen all the Communes of this noble Roialme repairyng to the Citee of London with Wynes. That where as in a Statute made the XXVII^ti yere of Kyng Edward the Third, as for gawgieng of all Wynes rede and white, and in an other Statute and Act made in the IIII^th yere of Kyng Richard the ſecund, for gawgieng aſwell of all maner Veſſelx of ſwete Wynes and Reynyſſh, and other Wynes, as of other Veſſelx with Vynegre, Oyle and Hony, and all other lycours gaugeables repairyng to this Reaume, and the Londes of Wales and Irlond, hit is ordeined and ſtablyſſhid; that all maner Veſſelx with Wynes rede, white, ſwete, Reynyſſh, and other Wynes, and all maner Veſſelx with Vynegre, Oyle and Hony, and all other Lycours gaugeables, ſhull well and truly by the Kynges Gaugeours, or their Deputees, be gaugyd, whan thei therto by ony of the parties ben required, upon certeyn peyne compriſed in the forſaid Statute of Kyng Edward, rehercyng in thiſe wordes; if the defaute be founde in the Gaugeour, that he or his Deputee be not redy to doo his office whanne he therto be required, or doo fraude or diſceite in his Office doyng, to damage of the beyour or ſellour, he ſhall pay to the partie damaged treble the damages, and leſe his Office, and be punyſſhed be priſonnement, and reyned at the Kynges will; which Statut bi the ſeid Kyng Richard is confermed. And wher alſo of old tyme paſſed, it hath been accuſtumed and continuelly uſyd, that the Gaugeour ſhuld have for gaugieng of every Tonne but 1 d., the which 1 d. afore this tyme, hath be taken and receyved in gree by the Gaugeours and theire Deputeez; but nowe for the more ſikreneſſe of the Cuſtumers of oure Soverayn Lord the Kyng in the Citee of London, whanne that ony Merchauntz come to theme to entre theire Wynes in theire Bokys, they will delyver no Billes to the Merchauntz, wherby theire Wynes myght come to lond, unto the tyme that thei have paide to hem in the name and to the uſe of the ſaid Gaugeour, the Gauge peny of every Tonne that the Merchaunt hath entred; and yit this notwithſtandyng, his Deputee beyng in London will not gauge ony Wyne, whenne he is therto be ony partie required, oo leſſe thanne he be paied of newe for his labour, like as he will have hymſelf, and atte ſomtyme he compellith the people to paie for gaugieng of a Tonne IIII d. and ſomtyme VI d. and ſomtyme more, and leſſe as thei be fayne to aggree with him, or ellis he will not doo his Office, ſo that often tymes the partie is grevouſly hurt for tarieng of his Veſſelx gaugieng, and alſo the Gaugeour yerto aſſigned nor his Deputee, will come into no mannys Celer or Hous, where as Wynes lyen to gauge hem, though he therto in the fourme aboveſeid be required and prayed, nor upon noo Wharf ne Lane, wher Wynes for the eaſe of the poeple ben leyed to be gauged, oo leſſe thanne the people will yeve him after his deſire, to grete damage and hynderyng of the Kynges true Liege people, and grevous ſclaundre and hurt of this Reaume.

Wherfore pleaſe it youre wiſe diſcretions, thiſe premiſſes conſidered, for the prouſite and welfare of all this noble Roialme, to pray the Kyng oure Soverayn Lorde, that he, by thadvys and aſſent of his Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, wold ordeyne and provyde bi thauctorite of this preſent Parlement, yat the peny which is called the Gauge peny, be not paied to the Gaugeour, nor to noon other in his name, unto the tyme yat he or his Deputee have gaugid the Wynes, and than he to take and receyve his peny therfore in gree, withoute more encreas or avauntage therfor claymyng; and alſo that he be redy or his Depute, to doo thoffice of Gaugeour in all placis whan he therto bi the partie be required, and this to be obſerved thurgh oute all the Kyngis Reaume, upon the payne in the ſaid Statute of Kyng Edward compriſed, duely to be executed. And more over, wher as in a Statut made at Redyng, the XVIII^e yere of the gracious reigne of the Kyng oure Soveraigne Lord that now is, it is compriſed, that what man ſell a Tonne or Pipe, Tercian or Hoggeſhede, of Wyne, Oyle or Hony, or than hit be gauged, that he ſhall forfait hit to the Kyng, or the value yerof; which Act may not duely be kept, oo leſſe yanne the Gaugeour be redy to gauge every Veſſell forthwith as it is londed, which is as an impoſſibill for diſceveraunce of placis, and ſo the Kyng, his Lordes, Knyghtes and Squiers, and other Comunes, ſhull be taried and abide long or thei have ony Wyn; to ordeyn by the ſame auctorite, for the eaſe and availl of all peple, yat the ſame Statute in that part be repealid, and ſtond in the caas of the ſaid Statut, made the ſaid XXVII^ti yeer of Kyng Edward.

Reſponſio. As to all the matiers conteined in this Petition, ſave onely repellyng of the Statute of anno XVIII° eſpecified in this Petition, or any parcell therof, the Kyng will that it be as it is deſired: and as touchyng the ſame Statut of anno XVIII°, the Kyng will that it ſtond in his ſtrenght. xx li. of his owne ꝑpre godes, and that thei ben true Burgeys and receantz within the ſeid Toün, to have and to occupie from this tyme forth the Office of reſceite of all maner cõen godes that cometh or oweth to come yerely to the cõen Eſcheker of the ſeid Toun, and well and truly to kepe the ſeid godes for the cõen ꝑfite. And if the ſeid xxv ꝑſones cheſe the ſeid vi men, or eny of hem, contrarie to this ſeid Ordinauncez, that then everych of the ſeid xxv ꝑſones renne in the peyne of an c s. as ofte as thei ſo don; and yef the ſeid xxv may not accorde in her ſeid elleccion of the ſeid vi men, that then the ſeid elleccion ſtond bi xv of hem atte leſte; and if the ſeid xv or eny of the xxv cheſe the ſeid vi men, or eny of hem, contrarie to this ſeid Ordiñncez, that then everych of hem leſe the peyne of an c s. to the uſe of the ſeid Cões: And that the ſeid Baillifs for the tyme beyng, have power to make leve of the ſeid peynes ſo forfeted, and thei therupon duly convicte bi an enquerre afterward tofore the ſeid Baillifs founden.

ITEM, the ſeid xxv ꝑſones ſworn in manere above ſeid, ſhall cheſe bi her othes ii Coronours of the ſeid Toun, ſufficient Burgeyſez receauntz within the ſeid Toun, the whech ſhall occupie the Office of Coronour within the ſeid Toun, and Fraunchiſe of the ſame; and the ſeid Coronours ſhall have the overſyght of the cõe werkes of the ſeid Toun, for the tyme, that hit be truly don from tyme to tyme, as reſon and trouth axeth, for the cõen ꝑfit. And that he that hath ben Coronour oo yere, be not choſen to the Office of Coronour iii yere next folowyng, ne no man that hath ben vi man o yere, be not choſen to the Office of vi man iii yere next folowyng. And yef the ſeyd xxv ꝑſones choſe the ſeid Coronours, or eny of hem, contrarie to this ſeid Ordiñncez, that then everych of the ſeid xxv ꝑſones renne in the peyne of an c s., as often as thei ſo don, to the uſe of the ſeid Cões. And yef the ſeid xxv may not accorde in her elleccion of the ſeid Coronours, that then the ſeid elleccion ſtonde bi xv of hem atte leſt; and yef the ſeid xv or eny of the xxv, cheſe the ſeid Coronours, or eny of hem, contrarie to this ſeid Ordiñnce, that then everych of the ſeid xv or of the ſeyd xxv, leſe the ſeid peyne of an c s., to the uſe of the ſeid Cões: And that the Baillifs for the tyme beyng, have power to make leve of the peynes bi hem ſo forfeted, to the cõe ꝑfite, as it ys in the Article afore reherſed.

ITEM, that no man that hath ben or ſhall be in the ſeid Office of Coronour or vi man within the ſeid Toun, occupie not the Office of Sergeantz, from this tyme forth, everych of hem upon the peyne of an c s. to be rered of hem, and everych of hem, bi the Baillifs for the tyme beyng, to cõe ꝑfite, in fourme as it ys in the ſeid ii Articles next tofore reherſed.

ITEM, it ys aſſented, that the Baillifs that ben, or in tyme comyng ſhall be, ne non of hem, ne non othur ꝑſone, ſpeke ne go with the ſeid xxv ꝑſones, after the tyme that thei ben ſworn and truly tried bi examinacion in maner aboveſeid, and have her charge to make her ſeyd elleccion, to the place where the ſeid elleccion ſhall be made, except the cõen Clerk of the ſeid Toun that ys or in tyme comyng ſhall be; and he to be ſworn upon a boke, tofore the Cões of the ſeid Toun, that he ſhall not ꝓcure ne make ꝓcure hem, ne non of hem, ne ſuffer non othur man to ꝓcure hem, to cheſe no maner Officer in ſpeciall, and ſo to kepe hem truly till thei ben accorded or the more ꝑtie of hem, in fourme aboveſeid: and that thei dept not, ne non of hem dept, oute of the place that thei ſhall be brought into bi the ſeid Toun Clerk to make the ſeid elleccion, till the ſeid elleccion be made, upon peyne everych of hem of xl s.: And that the Baillifs for the tyme beyng, have power to make leve of the peynes bi hem ſo forfeted, to the uſe of the ſeid Cões.

A. D. 1444. 23 H. VI.

ITEM, it ys aſſented, that the Baillifs of the ſeid Toun, that ſhall be newe choſen from yere to yere, be ſworn upon a boke, tofore the Cões of the ſeid Toun, or thei occupie the ſeid Office, that thei ſhall be gode and trewe to the Kyng and to his heirs, and that thei ſhall well and truly kepe the pees within the ſeid Toun and Fraunchiſe, and rule and governe the aſſiſe of all maner Vitaill within the ſeid Toun and Fraunchiſe, and do right as well to powere as to ryche, and truly governe hem in the ſeyd Office and all that longet therto, bi her connyng and power, after the lawe, cuſtome and uſage of the ſeid Toun.

ITEM, it ys aſſented, that the ſeid vi men ſhall be ſworn openly upon a boke, tofore the Cões, when thei ben choſen, in maner aboveſeid, that thei ſhall every day of reſceit of the cõe godes, bi the ſeid Baillifs and vi men, or iii of hem aſſigned to come to the cõe Eſcheker, and there reſceyve all the ſeid godes, ſuch as ſhall be brought thedir bi all maner ꝑſones, and well and truly kepe the ſeid godes; and alſo overſee well and truly all maner expenſes and coſtages bi the Baillifs don, to the worſhip and ꝑfit of the ſeid Toun, and alſo to be aſſiſtent and of Counſeill with the ſeid Baillifs for the cõe ꝑfit.

ITEM, that the ſeid Coronours that ſhall be choſen from yere to yere, ben ſworn openly in maner aboveſeid, that thei ſhall well and truly ſerve and occupie the Office of Coronour within the ſeid Toun and Fraunchiſe, and alſo overſee all the cõe werkes of the ſeid Toun, and well and truly write, or make write, the ꝓcell of the ſeid werkes, where and when thei ben don, and expenſes and coſtages of hem from woke to woke delyvere unto the Baillifs and vi men, in the forſeid Eſcheker of the ſeid Toun: And yef eny of the ſeid Coronours offend and do the contrarie, and woll not obeye the Ordiñnce aforeſeid, that then he leſe xl s. to the uſe of the ſeid Cões; and that the Baillifs for the tyme being, have power to make leve of the peynes bi hem ſo forfeted, and duly founde and convicte: And yef the Baillifs be necligent and woll not rere the ſeid peynes, that then eythur of hem renne in the peyne of v marcs, the ii ꝑtes to oure Sovereigne Lorde, and the iii^de ꝑt to the ſeid Cões.

ITEM, that the Baillifs of the ſeid Toun that ben, or in tyme comyng ſhall be, have and take for the tyme that thei ben Baillifs, eythur of hem for the yere, an c s. for his fee, and eythur of hem a Robe price xx s., and no more. And that the ſeyd vi men that nowe ben, or in tyme comyng ſhall be, everych of hem have and take for her fee xiii s. iiii d., and a Robe price xiii s. iiii d., for her ſeyd labour. And alſo that the ſeid Coronours that nowe ben, or in tyme comyng ſhall be, have and take every weke yerely for her labour, for the overſyght of the ſeid Toun werkes, xii d. evenly depted betwene hem, of the cõe godes. And that the ſeid Baillifs that ben, or in tyme comyng ſhall be, have allowance of all maner reſonable expenſes and coſtages, bi hem don in ꝑfite and worſhip of the ſeid Toun, upon her accompte, ſo that the ſeid expenſes and coſtages ben overſeyn bi the ſeid vi men, that thei ben truly expended in maner aboveſeid, or bi iii of hem atte leſt, and elles thei nevere to be allowed therof. And if the ſeid vi men, or eny of hem, be abſent from eny day of reſceyt aſſigned, withouten cauſe reſonable, or licence of the Baillif or Baillifs for the tyme beyng, that then thei and everych of hem ſo abſent, leſe at every tyme ii d. withouten eny ꝑdon: And that the abſence of the ſeid VI men be entred bi the Toun Clerk of recorde, ſo that it may be enbregged at the ende of the yere of her fees.

ITEM, it ys aſſented, that the Baillifs that ſhall be in tyme comyng, make II Sergeantz of the ſeid Toun, ſuch as thei woll anſwere fore at her pill, ſo that the II Sergeantz aforeſeyd ben true Burgeys reſceantz within the ſeid Toun, and the III^de Sergeant of the ſeid Toun, that he be choſen bi the ſeyd XXV pſones from yere to yere, at the ſeid day of elleccion, ſo that he be Burgeys true, ſufficiant and reſceant, and contributory to all maner charges within the ſeid Toun; whech Sergeant ſhall have the kepyng of the Toun Gate called the Caſtell Gate. And that the ſeid III^de Sergeant ſhall rere the cõen rent of the ſeid Toun, and truly pay hit unto the ſeid VI men, in the ſeid Eſcheker of the ſeid Toun, at the day of accompte of the ſeid Baillifs and VI men, at the furreſt, and true accompt make therof bi his othe: and he for to have for that labour yerely XX ſ. of the cõen gode, bi the hondes of the ſeid VI men, and anſwere of all that longeth to his charge; ſo that the ſeid Sergeant fynde ſufficiant ſewrte to rere and pay all maner of Money bi him ſo rered, ſuch as ſhall be yeve him in charge bi the ſeid Baillifs to rere, and bring hit to the hondes of the ſeid VI men in the cõe Eſcheker, and therof true accompt make to the ſeid Baillifs and VI men, bi her aſſignement in the ſeid Eſcheker, and attend and obbey the ſeyd Baillifs and her comaundmentz as him oweth to do. And yef the ſeid Sergeant may not fynde ſuch ſuerte as it ys above expreſſed, to ſave and kepe the ſeid Baillifs harmles, that then the ſeid Baillifs cheſe and make ſuch a Sergeant as thei woll anſwere fore at her pill; and then the ſeid III Sergeantz ſhall yeve gode accomptez and trewe, at the ende of every III^de Court, of all maner iſſues and eſtretes of the ſeid Courtes; and alſo of all fynes of Bribeſters, called Sellers of Ale, that breken th'aſſiſe of olde tyme acuſtumed within the ſeid Toun, at the ende of every quarter, or within the quarter yef thei be comaunded or charged bi the ſeid Baillifs and VI men for the tyme beyng; and of all othur ꝑfites that longeth to her charge, that oweth to come to the ſeid cõen ꝑfite, at the ende of every yere, bifore the day of accompt of the ſeid Baillifs and VI men.

ITEM, that the ſeid III Sergeantz ſhall be ſworn upon a boke, before the Baillifs and VI men for the time being, in the cõe Eſcheker, or the tyme thei occupie the ſeid Office of Sergeantz, that thei and everych of hem ſhall be gode and true to the ſeid Baillifs, and Cões and Fraunchiſe of the ſeid Toun, and to do right to povere and riche. And alſo to rere all maner of Money that ys yef hem bi the ſeid Baillifs in charge for to rere, bi eſtretes or in eny othur maner, for the cõe ꝑfit, and true accompte therof make to the ſeid Baillifs and VI men at her aſſignement, and attende and obeye the ſeid Baillifs as hem oweth to do in her ſeid Officez; and that everych of hem have yeerly XXVI ſ. VIII d., and a Robe price X ſ., of the cõe gode; and that the ſeid Sergeantz be remeved at the ende of every yere, as the aboveſeid Officers ſhall be; and that non of the ſeid Sergeantz occupie not the ſeid Officez within the ſeid Toun contrarie to this ſeid Ordiñncez, upon peyne of X marcs: And that the Baillifs for the tyme beyng, have power to rere the ſeid peyne bi hem ſo forfeted, to the uſe of the ſeid Cões.

ITEM, that the ſeid Baillifs and VI men that ben, or in tyme comyng ſhall be, of the ſeid Toun from this tyme forth, cheſe and take ſuch Tolreves to reſceyve and gedre the tolle, and ſuch Cuſtumes as longeth to hem to take at the Yates of the ſeid Toun, for the cõe ꝑfit, of the trueſt and beſt Burgeys that thei can gete to the ſeid Office, and ſo to be ſworn on a boke in the cõe Eſcheker, tofore the ſeid Baillifs and VI men, or thei occupie the Office of Tolreve, to be trewe to the Baillifs and Cões of the ſeid Toun. And all maner ꝑfitez that longeth hem to gedre and reſceyve for the cõe ꝑfite, and to bring hit forth to the cõen Eſcheker of the ſeid Toun, at ſuch tyme as thei ſhall be aſſigned bi the ſeid Baillifs and VI men, or III of hem; and the ſeid Tolreves ſo ſworn, ſhall truly reſceyve and kepe all the Money that of ryght oweth to be taken at the ſeid Yates of the cuſtome ſometyme called Sergeantz fee, and put the ſeid Money bi hitſelf, and bring it forth and pay it in the ſeid Eſcheker in manere aboveſeid, withouten fraude, covyn or gyle, there to be reſceyved and entred in charge yerely by hitſelf; and yef eny defaute or deſceyte be founden in the ſeid Tolreves, or eny of hem, verayly ꝓved tofore the ſeid Baillifs and VI men, thei to be remeved oute of the ſeid Office, bi the Baillifs and VI men, as ofte as thei ben founde in defaute, and othur put in her ſtedes: and more overe when thei ben laufully atteint therof, to leſe everych of hem XL ſ., and her bodyes to be enpriſoned till the ſeid peyne be rered and payd to the ſeid VI men for the cõe ꝑfite, withouten bayle or maynpriſe. And yef the Baillifs that ben, or in tyme comyng ſhall be, do not due execucion of the peynes in the ſeid Article conteyned, that eythur of hem leſe an C ſ., the II ꝑtes to oure Sovereigne Lorde, and the III^de ꝑt to the ſeid Cões.

ITEM, it ys aſſented, that no Baillif of the ſeid Toun from this tyme forth, reſceyve ne kepe no manere rentz, revenuz, cuſtomes ne fynes, ne non othur ꝑfitz that longeth to the ſeid Cõialte, but that hit be brought to the ſeid cõe Eſcheker, and ther to be payd and delyvered to the ſeid VI men for the cõe ꝑfit, and thei to have the kepyng therof; and that the Baillifs that ben, or in tyme comyng ſhall be, ne non of hem, obregge ne pardon no maner of dute that longeth to the ſeid Cõialte, withouten th'avyſe and aſſent of the ſeid VI men, or of III of hem atte leſt, upon peyne of double of the dute bi hem ſo pardoned.

ITEM, that the ſeid Baillifs and VI men, ſhall yeve gode accomptez and trewe, upon her othes ſworn, and charged bi the Auditours that ſhall be choſen from yere to yere bi the ſeid Cões, of all manere rentz, revenuz, fines and othur ꝑfites afore named, to the ſeid Auditours. And that the ſeid Baillifs do, or make do, her true devoir with all her coñyng, to bring, or make bringe to the hondes of the ſeid VI men, all maner rentz, revenuz, fines and othur ꝑfites that cometh, or oweth to come to the cõe ꝑfit, within the yere that thei occupie the ſeyd Office of Baillif, withouten fraude, covyn or eny deſceyte; and that the ſeid VI men, have the kepyng of the cõe godes ſuch as ſhall be left at the ende of every accompte, till the day of elleccion, and then thei to bring it forth tofore the Cões in the Gyldhalle, everych of the ſeid VI men upon the peyne of X li. to be rered bi the ſeid Baillifs, to the uſe of the ſeid Cões; and then there the ſeid Cões to cheſe a Chamberleyn, the whech ſhall have the kepyng of the ſeid godes to the cõe ꝑfite; and then there he to reſceive the ſeid cõe godes, and he to have yeerly for his labour VI ſ. ITEM, yef eny Burgeys or Tenſer of the ſeid Toun, be attached for eny accion ꝑſonell, or for ſuerte of the pees within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, atte ſute of ptie, bi eny of the Sergeantz, or her Servntz of the ſeyd Toun, that non of hem bryng eny ꝑſone of the ſeid Burgeyſz or Tenſerz ſo attached to no Gaoll, unto the tyme that he have brought him or hem unto the Baillifs, or to her Lieuteñntz for the tyme beyng, and then he or thei to take of him ſo attached and arreſt', yef he may fynde ſufficient ſuerte to the Baillif or Baillifs after her diſcrecion, within the Toun of the peaſe, or come to anſwere to the Kyng or to the ꝑte in the ſeid accion, as it hath ben uſed of olde tyme in the ſeid Toun, and as the caſe requireth, at ſuch tyme as he ſhall be aſſigned bi the ſeyd Baillyfs or Lieuteñnt, or on of hem, that nowe ben or in tyme comyng ſhall be, that then the ſeid Sergeantz ne non of hem, ne non of her Servntz, take of him no fee; and yef eny ꝑſone or ꝑſones ſo attached or arreſt', may not fynde ſuerte within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, and be convycte to priſon, and in priſon bi the Baillifs or Lieuteñntz, or bi on of hem, then upon the levere of him ſo arreſted, paye every tyme that hit ſo happeth to the Sergeant for his fee IIII d. and no more, for that arreſte, only ſavyng unto the Toun Clerk for his entre of eny ſuerte of the peas IIII d. And yef eny ꝑſone reſceant within the Toun, or withoute the Toun and Frauncheys, not Burgeys, ne Tenſer, be attached and arreſted for eny accion ꝑſonell at the ſute of ꝑte, that the Sergeant take of him but IIII d. and no more: And yef he be attached and arreſt' for ſuerte of peas bi eny foreyner or reſceant nozt Burgeys, ne Tenſer, that then the Baillifs take for her warant and ſealyng therof but XIIII d., and the Clerk for the writing but IIII d. And yef he be compelled for to fynde ſuerte, that he paye for the ſuerte entre XII d. to the Clerk, and to the Sergeant VIII d. for the arreſte, and no more. And if eny of the Sergeantz take or do the contrarie of this Ordiñnce, or eny of thees, with that the ꝑtie ſo greved compleyne him to the Baillifs, Lieuteñntz, or eny of hem, bi the next Court day, or the IIde Court day after, that the ſeid Sergeantz or eny of hem that ſo doth, and therupon duly preved gilty, that then thei and everych of hem ſo found gilty, leſe to the Cões of the ſeid Toun III ſ. IIII d. and hit to be rered bi the Baillifs, to the uſe of the ſeid Cões; and yef the Baillifs ben necligent, and do not rere duly thes ſeyd peynes, that thei leſe VI ſ. VIII d., the II ptes to oure Soveigne Lorde, and the IIIde pt to the ſeid Cões. And that it ſhall not be laufull to no Baillif ne Baillifs of the ſeid Toun, to take no ſuerte of the peas oute of the Gyldhalle of the ſeyd Toun, of eny ꝑſone or ꝑſones. And that the ſeid ſuerte be there engroſed and of recorde.

ITEM, if ther be eny Burgeys of the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, or eny of the II men, that ſhall cheſe the XXV from this tyme forth, for the elleccõn of Officers of the ſeid Toun, or eny of the XXV, or othur ꝑſone or ꝑſones, ben vexed or ſued bi lawe, or bi eny othur wey troubled for eny due elleccion, or cauſe, wherby thei ſhuld leſe her godes, for the cõen cauſe of the ſeid Toun, that he or thei be defended and kept harmles of ſuch loſſes with the cõen gode, yef it may be founde bi due examinacõn ſo verily proved and knowen, tofore the ſeid Baillifs, XII Aldremen, the VI men, and the XXIIII Cõers, the whech ben aſſiſtent to the Baillifs and Aldremen. And if the ſeid Baillif or Baillifs and VI men be necligent, and woll not with her power and the cõen godes, as hem thinketh bi reſon, delyvere hem or him ſo vexed, bi the handes of the ſeid VI men, reſonable expenſes and coſtagez to defend hem or him wyth, yef ſuch godes ben in the hondes of the ſeid VI men, that then the ſeid Baillif or Baillifs and VI men, and everych of hem, leſe the peyne that foloweth in this ſeid Ordiñnce; that ys to wete, that the ſeid Baillifs and VI men, yef they or eny of hem be in ſuch defaute founden, that he leſe XL ſ., the II ꝑtes to oure Soveigne Lorde, and the III^de ꝑt to the ſeid Cões.

ITEM, yef eny ꝑſone or ꝑſones make eny affray, in offence of the Kynges peas within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, duly and verayly ſo founden, by verdyt of XII ſufficient and indifferent ꝑſones of the ſeid Toun, tofore the Baillifs for the tyme beyng in the ſeid Gyldhalle, that he or thei leſe everych of hem III ſ. IIII d., to be rered bi the Baillifs for the tyme beyng, to the uſe of the ſeid Cões, withouten eny ꝑdon therof. And alſo yef eny ꝑſon or ꝑſones in her owne aſſaute, ſmyte eny man or woman, in offence of the Kynges peas within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, duly and verailly ſo founden as it ys afore reherſed, that he leſe III ſ. IIII d., to be rered in maner aboveſeid. And alſo yef eny ꝑſone or ꝑſones drawe eny blode in her owne aſſaute, of eny man or woman, in offence of the Kynges peas within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, duly and verailly ſo founden in fourme aboveſeyd, that he or thei leſe everych of hem VI ſ. VIII d., to be rered in maner aboveſeid: And yef the Baillifs for the tyme beyng do not execucion of the peynes aboveſeid, yef eny ſuch peyne in tyme comyng happen to be loſt, that thei leſe the double of the ſeid peynes, the II ꝑtes to oure Sovereigne Lorde, and the III^de ꝑt to the ſeid Cões.

ITEM, that the cõe Seall of the ſeid Toun be kept in the cõe Coffre as it hath ben uſed afore this tyme; and IIII worthi men of the ſeid Toun, bi the ſeid Cões choſen, have in keping the IIII keyes of the ſeid Coffre; and that the Baillifs that ben, or in tyme comyng ſhall be, ne non othur ꝑſone, take the ſeid Seale oute of the ſeid Coffre, to enſele no maner graunt made to eny ꝑſone bi the ſeid Baillifs and Cões, withoute th'aſſent of XXIIII worthi men, Burgeys of the ſeid Toun; and thei to overſee the takyng oute of the ſeid Seale and ſelyng, and the puttyng hit in ayein into the ſeid Coffre. And all the Minimentz that longen to the ſeid Cõialte of the ſeid Toun, that ben or in tyme comyng ſhall be, be put into the ſeid Coffre, to be kept and governed in maner aboveſeyd. And yef eny ꝑſone do the contrarie of this ſeyd Ordiñnce in this Article conteyned, that he leſe XX li., the II ꝑtes to oure Soveigne Lorde, and the III^de ꝑt to the ſeid Cões. And alſo that the Rolles and bokes of accompt of the Baillifs and VI men, that ben for the tyme, from yere to yere, be left of recorde, endented betwyx the ſeid Baillifs and VI men, of that on ꝑtie, and the Auditours that ſhall be choſen from yere to yere to here the accomptes of the ſeid Baillifs and VI men, on that othur ꝑtie; and the Rentall rolle, and all Burgeyſz rolles, cõen Compoſicions, and all Court rolles, ben put and kept in the Coffre aboveſeyd.

ITEM, yef eny Burgeys or reſceauntz within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, diſtourbe or contrarie eny of the Ordiñncez aboveſeid, bi colluſion, male engyne, or bi eny othur cauſe, or ꝓcure, or make ꝓcure eny othur to diſtourbe or contrarie eny of the ſeid Ordiñncez, in tyme comyng, or lette or diſtourbe the Baillifs for the tyme beyng, to rere the peynes aboveſeyd bi hem ſo forfeted in fourme aboveſeid, that he be forjugged of all maner Officez and fredomz within the ſeid Toun, for terme of his owne lyf, and not to be made free, ne herd, ne bere no voyſe in no maner aſſemble of the ſeid Cões, for no thing that toucheth to the ſeid Cões.

ITEM, yef it ſo be that eny ꝑſone or ꝑſones that ben put in divers peynes to forfete to the Cões of the ſeid Toun, as in the Articles aforeſeid ben openly expreſſed, not ſufficient to paye the ſeid peynes or peyne, the Baillifs for the tyme beyng of the ſeid Toun arreſt her bodyes, and comytte hem or him to priſon, and there to abyde and ſavely kept, till thei or he have made agrement of the ſeid peyne or peynes to the ſeyd Cões, yef thei or he may be founde within the ſeyd Toun or Fraunchiſe; and yef thei be ſufficient, that then the ſeid Baillifs bi auctorite of this preſent Parlement, have power for to diſtreyne for the ſeid peyne or peynes als ofte as thei ben forfeted, and the diſtreſſes reteyne till they be ſatisfied of the peynes or peyne in fourme aboveſeid ſo forfeted, withouten eny repleviſhing of the ſeid diſtreſſes.

A. D. 1444. 23 Hen. VI.

ITEM, yef eny Burgeys or Tenſer be endited for eny offence or offences bi hem don within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, or ſuppoſed to be don, and therupon arreſted, or let to maynpriſe or bayll' bi the ſeid Baillif or Baillifs, or in priſon remaynyng, that the ſeid ꝑſone or ꝑſones ſo endyted and in Warde, that he may go to his delyvance withouten eny fyne or fee makyng, or fraude or lettyng, with that thei be of gode name and fame, but only to the Toun Clerk for his writing.

ITEM, that all maner Wayffes and Strayes, and othur godes forfeted within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, that owen to come to the cõe ꝓfit, that hit be ſolde bi the Baillifs and VI men, or III of the ſeid VI men at the leſt, and yef eny ſale be the contrarie, that hit be voyde.

ITEM, hit is aſſented bi the ſeid Baillifs and Cões, for the gode rule of the ſeid Toun, and in eſchewyng of myſcheef that myght falle in tyme to come, that ther ſhuld no Burgeys ne reſceant within the ſeyd Toun or Fraunchiſe of the ſame, from this tyme forth, for drede leſt bi ꝓceſſe of tyme the Kyngges teñnts and othur reſceauntz within the ſeid Toun, when the Baillifs hadde nede to kepe the gode rule and peas, wold drawe to her maiſtres and felawes of a fewte, rather then to the Baillifs, the whech have the gode rule and the peas of the ſeid Toun for to kepe, for and every man that liſt to yeve lyverey and reſceyve lyvey within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, ſhuld yeve and reſceyve lyvey contrarie to the Statut of lyveyes tofore this tyme ordeyned; that then yef the ſeid Baillifs had nede at eny aſſemble of Lordes, Aſſiſes or Seſſions, when eny affray or trouble fall in the ſeid Toun, uch man havyng lyvey, wolde drawe to his maiſter, or to his felawe, and not to the Baillifs whech have the peas to kepe, as it ys tofore reherſed; hit is ordeyned, that no man from this tyme forth dwelling within the ſeid Toun or Fraunchiſe, take, ne were, no maner of lyvey, contrarie to the Statutz of lyveys afore this tyme made, under the peyne conteyned in the ſeid Statutz of lyveys. And yef eny Burgeys or reſceant reſceyve lyvey contrarie to the Statut tofore ſeid, then he leſe the peyne conteyned in the ſeid Statutes, and the Burgeys his fredom; and that the reſceant to be forjugged the Toun for ever more: And yef the Baillifs woll not do due execucion upon hem ſo duly founden and convicte, that then they renne in the ſame peyne to the uſe of the ſeid Cões.

ITEM, it ys aſſented, that no Sergeant ſhall be made bi the Baillifs ne bi the XXV, II yere after that he ys oon of the XXV; and that he that ys upon the elleccion oon yere, that he ne be, ne ꝓcede to non elleccion within the ſeid Toun, at eny day of elleccion of Officers, II yere next folowyng. And that no man that hath ben Baillif oon yere, be not choſen to the Office of Coroner within

Credentia declarata ex parte Ducis

17. CREDENCE by my Lord of Somerſet, Lieuten' of Fraunce and Normandie, committed to the Lord Haſtyng Chaunceller of Fraunce, and the Abbot of Glouceſtr', opened by the mouth of the ſeid Abbot in the Parlement, by the Kyngs commaundement, bothe to the Lordes and the Commynes.

A. D. 1449. 27 Hen. VI.

Somerſ', Locumtenens Franc' &c. (m. 5.)

Hit is not unknown to youre grete diſcretions, howe hit liked oure Sovereign Lord, not lange ago to committe the governaunce of the Contrees now beyng under his obeiſaunce, in his Reme of Fraunce and Duchie of Normandie, to the highe and myghty Prynce my Lord of Somerſet; the whiche Prynce in his notable wyſdom, ſeeyng experyence the grete contynuall and daily damages, that ther ben don by the Adverſaries, ſeeyng alſo verry lyklyneſſe within ſhort tyme of intollerable hurt there, of laſſe than covenable and ſpedful remedye be prudently purveied here, ſente hyder my Lord Haſtyng Chaunceller of Fraunce, and me in his companye, with letters of Credence to oure Sovereign Lord, to lete his Highneſſe have knowlych of the doutfull and dangerous diſpoſition of that Contree: the whiche Credence, as his Highneſſe hath commaunded, as compendiouſly as y can, y ſhall open to your wyſdomes.

Our Credence conteyneth principally III thynges. The firſt ys, to ſhewe the grete puiſſance and long advyſed Ordenaunce, furnyſshed with all manere abillements of werre of thadverſe part, the which daily fortifie and repaire, ſtuffe all theire Gariſons in the Fronters of the Kyngs obeiſance, goyng and rydyng within the ſeid obeiſſance armed in grete nombre, ayeinſt the tenour of the Trewes, doyng murdres innummerablez, takyng the Kyngs ſubgettez priſoners, as it were pleyne werre, with other grete and lamentable Injuries, as open Robberyes, Oppreſſions and Pilleries withoute nombre; of the which offenſes, they hadde be dyvers tymes ſomond and required by my ſaid Lord of Somerſet to make ceſſe, and repaire them after the tenour of the Trewes, but nother remedie ne reſonable anſwere may in eny wyſe as yit hadde; wherfore hit may be preſuppoſed, by theire froward dedes and contrarious diſpoſition, that theire intention is not to procede effectuelly to eny good concluſion of pees.

Alſo the Kyngs Oncle hath commaunded and made crye thorogh all his obeiſſance, that all Nobles prepare them to be redy horſed, armed, and in all wyſe abilled as longeth to men of Armes, within xv daies warnyng, uppon peyne of forfeiture of all theire liflode; the nombre of which men is grete and ineſtimable.

Alſo ſemblably, the Kyng's Oncle hath commaunded to be cried in every pariſshe of his obeiſſance, under the ſame payne of forfaiture, that every xxx^ti men furnyſshe a man horſed, and armed in bryganders, and legharneſſe, with a longe Bowe, or a croſſe Bowe, and charged expreſsly that they do non other labour, but excerciſe them to theire ſeid Bowes and Harneys; the nombre of whiche Men ſo abiled and arayed, as it is ſeid by credible perſons, that of reſon ſhold therof have verry knowlych, excedith LX M Men. This is the firſt part of oure Credence.

The ſecunde parte ys, to ſhewe that if the werre ſhuld falle, as God defende, the Contrey of Normandie is in no wyſe of hitſelf ſufficeant, to make reſiſtence ayeinſt the grete puyſſance of the Adverſaries, for many grete conſiderations. Firſt, for ther is no place in the Kyngs obeiſſaunce there purveied nother in Reparations, Ordenaunce, ne in eny maner Artillerie, but well nygh all places ben in ſuch ruyne, that though they were ſtuffed with Men and Ordenaunce, the be ſo ruynous, that they be unable to be diffended and kept; the which Reparations and Ordenaunce to be purveied ſufficiantly, wold drawe to ineſtimable coſtes.

Alſo atte the laſt graunt of the Eyde in Normandie, hit was openly purpoſed by III Aſtates there, that the generall povert of Contree was ſo grete, that it was impoſſible for hem to bere eny more hereafter ſuche charges charges, as they have bore herebyfore; wherfore they desired to have nombre of Men of werre made lesse, or elles to shewe to the Kyngs Highnesse, that ther myght be hadde good of Englond to bere the said charges: for of necessite they saide, they most be spared for certeyn yeres of suche paiementz, or ell they moste be nedly constrayned to goo ther way, and forsake the Contree, and suffre the lande to be abandoined to the Adversaries, the whiche God ever deffend. This is the secunde part of Credence.

The thrid part is, to remembre that the finall terme of the last Trewe approchith fast, for as youre wysdomes have well in mynde, hit shall laste nowe not XIIII monethes, and therfore it is thought right high tyme, to bygynne your purveance for the safgard of that noble land. Wherfore my Lord of Somerset moost humblye besekith the Kyngs Highnesse, tenderly prayeth all my Lordes his Conseilliers, and hertly willyth all youre wysdomes, to have that noble land in youre good and speciall remembraunce, callyng to youre mynde the grete, inestimable, and well nygh infinite cost and effusion bothe of Good and Blood, that this land hath borne and suffered for that land sake; wherof the shamefull losse, the whiche God ever defende, shuld not oonly be to the irreparable hurt of the commyn profite, but also a everlastyng spite, and perpetuell denigration in the fame and renoune of this noble Reme. In eschuyng wherof, and also lest his silence in this behalve myght in eny wyse be leyed hereafter, my said Lord of Somerset, for his trewe aquytaill, yave us in commaundement, to open his Credence on his behalf to the Kyngs Highnesse, or to suche as it pleasyd his Grace to commaunde to here us. Wherfore, seth by his commaundement ye have benyngly herd us, as we have in the name of my said Lord of Somerset, in the most humble wyse besought the Kyngs Highnesse, and lowly prayed all my Lordes in this Parlement assembled, in lyke wyse tenderly we desire all youre wysdomes, that now represent all the Comyns of this land, that it like to wey well all the considerations of this Credence in your grete discretions, and to helpe to purveye such' eide, remedie and brief expedition, as the merites of the mater requiryd.

Pro Comite Arundell', de Sessione sua in Parliamento.

18. MEMORAND'. That in the Parlement holden at Westm', the yere of the reigne of our Soverain Lord Kyng Harry the VI^th after the conqueste XXIIII^th, there was a contraversie moeved, betwene William Erle of Arundell on the oon partie, and Thomas Erle of Devenshire on the other partie, in the presence of oure seide Soverain Lord, for the setes, places and preemynencez of the same Erles, to be hadde in the Kynges high presence, aswell in his high Court of Parlement, as in his Counsells, and elles where, as by diverse Writynges made, shewed and declared betwene the seid parties in the same Parlement, more pleynly it may appere; which maters and declarations, with all theire incidentes, the Kyng of his Highnes, by thadvice of his Lordes Spirituell and Temporell then beyng in the same Parlement, committed to certeyn Lordes of the same Parlement, for to examyn and decide. And for asmoche as the same Lordes, hadde not deliberation of tyme to here, examyn and decide the seide maters, titulls and declarations, bytwene the seide Erles; hit hath liked the Kyng our Soverain Lord of his Highnesse, by thavyce of his Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, in this present Parlement holden at Westm' the XII^th day of Feverer, the yere of his reigne XXVII^th; That the Juges of the lawe of the lande beyng in the same Parlement, shuld here, see and examyn the seid maters, titulls and declarations, and as they conceyve therinne, they to report to the Kynges Highnesse, and to the Lordes in the same Parlement: which Juges heryng and seyng these premysses, and all the writynges put to the Kynges Highnesse by the seide Erles therof, with an Acte exemplified, made in the Parlement holden at Westm' the XI^th yere of the reigne of our seid Soverain Lord, for John late Erle of Arundell, they sayen and declareyn after theire conceites, that it is mater of Parlement longyng to the Kynges Highnesse, and to his Lordes Spirituell and Temporell in Parlement, by theym to be decided and determyned: Howe be it that the seide Acte, made mention but oonly that the seide John late Erle of Arundell, Brother of the seid William, whos Heire he is, shuld have his sete, place and preemynence in the Kynges presence, aswell in his Parlements and Councels, as elles where, as Erle of Arundell, as in the same Acte more openly hit apperith; in which Acte beth not expressed in writyng, the Heirs of the same late Erle, notwithstondyng that he was seisid and enherited in the Castell, Honour and Lordshipp of Arundell, wherto the seid name, estate and dignite of Erle of Arundell, is, and of tyme that no mynde is, hath been unyed and annexed, and by that reason he beere and had that name, and not by wey of Creation, as the same Juges understond by the same Acte; and that it belongeth to be discussid and determyned by the Kyng and his Lordes, and not in other wise. Wheruppon the Kyng oure Soverain Lord, by thavyce and assent of the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, beyng in this same present Parlement, consideryng the title and right of the seid Erle of Arundell, in the premysses opened, shewed and declared, by grete deliberation of tyme, aswell in writyng as otherwyse, betwene the seid Erles, in diverse Parliamentis, declared, determined and decreed, yat William nowe Erle of Arundell, have, kepe and enjoye his sete, place and preemynence, in the high Court of Parlement, and in the Kynges Counsells, and ellesswhere in the Kynges high presence, as Erle of Arundell, by reason of the Castell, Lordshipp and Honour of Arundell, as worshipfully as ever did eny of his Auncetours Erles of Arundell afore this tyme, for hym and for his Heirs for evermore, above the seid Erle of Devonshire and his Heirs, withoute lettyng, chalenge or interruption of the seid Erle of Devonshire, or of his Heirs, or eny other persone; ony title shewed, declared or pretended by the seid Erle of Devonshire in the premysses notwithstondyng. Savyng alwey to the same Erle of Devonshire, his lawfull suete to the Kyng oure Soverain Lord, and to his Heirs and Successours, in his high Court of Parlement, for his right touchyng his sete, place and preemynence afore rehersed, ayenst the seid Erle of Arundell and his Heirs, as right, lawe and reason requireth.

No 1. Staple of Caleys. (m. 6.)

19. PRAYEN the Commens in this preſent Parlement aſſembled, that it pleſe the Kyng oure Soverain Lord to conſidre, howe his noble Progenitour King Edward the Thridde, by grete deliberation ordeined his hole Staple of Wolls, Wolfell and other Merchandiſe, to be at Calais, for the wele of this his Reaume, and ſaufgarde of the ſeide Toune; and by the grete Libertees and Fraunchiſes given to the Marchants thider repairyng, many yeres aftir there come grete Revenus to hym and his ſucceſſours, as is of Recorde in the Kyngs Eſchequer; that is to witte, in ſum yere of his reigne LXVIII M. li. and more, and ſo continued many yeres, at whiche tyme grete riches come in to this Reaume of Englond, by meane of the Marchants of the ſeide Staple, beyng at that tyme many in nombre, and of grete riches, good Juſtice and Lawe betwix partie and partie had, and by theyme wele executed, the ſaid Towne of Calais and the Marches wele reparelled, and the Soudeours paied of thaire wages. How be it now, that by diverſe and many Licences given by Letters Patentes, and by myſuſyng of the ſaide Licence, bying of Wolls and Wolfell in other place than thaire Licence conteyneth, ſhippyng more nombre and weight, and coloring, by newe feyned names, as Morlings and Shorlings, and ſomme perſounes yat ſhuld by thaire Licence have caried thaire Wolls over the Mountaynes, have ſold theyme in Brabant, and in other places, to ſuche men as were wonte to bye thaire Wolls at the Staple of Calais; and alſo by grete ſteling oute of Woll and Wolfell not cuſtumed, in diverſes parties of Englond, Irland and Wales, oftymes by conſent and meane of untrue Officers, as Sercheours and Surveiours, which take no fee, but prive rewardes for doyng the Kyng wrange, and by diverſe reſtreintes of Merchandiſe in Calais, aſwell by werres, as by Soudeours for thaire wages, and many other cauſes wherin the Merchants of the ſaide Staple have not ben cheriſshed, ner of power to rejoys thaire Libertes and Fraunchiſes of olde tyme uſed and accuſtumed; now it is ſoo that by the meanes aforeſeid, and by the brekyng of the hole Staple, the Cuſtumes and Subſidies of the Merchandiſe repairyng to the foreſeid Staple of Calais, paſſe not yerely XII M. li., which is but litell in compariſon to that they have be before tyme, the Communalte of this lande not enriched by thaire Wolles, Wolfell and other Merchandiſe, as they were wonte to be, the Merchants gretly amennyſshed bothe in nombre and goodes, and not in power ner in comfort to bye the Wolls, Wolfell and other Merchandiſe, as they have don of olde tyme, the Soudeours of Calais and of the Marches there not paied of thaire wages, the Towne of Calais, for defaulte of reparations, aſwell within the Towne walles, Towres and Caſtell, as withoute the Towne, of Dikes, Geteys, Keyes, Scluces, Bankes, and other reparations that ſhuld be made for defence of the Towne and the Watir outeward, like to be uttirly deſtroied, that God defende, withoute that remedie be haſtely purveyed; whiche premiſes conſidred, like it oure ſaid Soverain Lord to ordeyne and eſtabliſsh, by aſſent of the Lordes Spiritual and Temporal in this preſent Parlement aſſembled, and by auctorite of the ſame Parlement, that the Maire, Conſtables and Feliſhippe of Marchants of the Staple of Calais for the tyme beyng, and thaire Succeſſours for evermore, may have and rejoys alle the Fredomes, Libertes, Fraunchiſes, and eche of theyme, and hole repaire of al manere Marchandiſe to the ſame Staple, by oure foreſaid Soverain Lord or his noble Progenitours, to theyme or thaire Predeceſſors, or to any of thayme, by auctorite of Parlement graunted or confermed, not repeled nor excepted. And that the ſaide Maire, Conſtables, and thaire Succeſſours, may by theyme ſelf, or by thaire Officers and Miniſtres, do execution of all maner things and matiers, wherof the knawlege to theyme longeth or apperteynyth, aſwell within the Towne of Calais, as withoute the Towne in the Procincte longing to the ſame, called the Skevinage, any commaundement, writyng, or ony other thinge in contrarie made, or to be made, notwithſtondyng. Provided alweyes, that by this Acte no man be excluded of his lawfull ſute of Writte of Errour, of any Juggement given byfore the ſaid' Maire and Conſtables, ner the Chaunceller of England and the Kynges Counſeill be excluded to redreſſe the defaultes of the ſaid Maire and Conſtables, after the fourme of the Statuit made the XXVII yere of the reigne of Kyng Edward the thridde: And that no manere of Licence for ſhipping of Wolls, Wolfell or Tynne, graunted to ony perſoune or perſounes, be effectuell nor availlable to him or theyme, to carie or lede any ſuche Wolls, Wolfells or Tynne, oute of this Reaume of Englande, Irlande or Wales, to any other place than to the ſeide Staple of Calais. No 14. William Brocas Eſq; Maiſter of the Buckhounds.

TO the Kyng oure Sovain Lorde; Biſecheth mekely your humble ſervaunt William Brocas Squyer, Maiſter of your Bukhounds. Foraſmuche that he holdith of you, and alle his Aunceſtres of tyme that no mynde is have holden of your noble pgenitours, the Manoir of Lityll Weldon in the Counte of Norfit', by Graunte Sergeaunte, that is to witte, to be Maiſter of your Bukhoundes, and to kepe xxiiii rennyng houndes, and vi grehoundes, and to fynde a yoman Veantrer, and two yomen Berners; which Office was of olde tyme ordeyned for the pleaſir and diſporte of your noble pgenitours, and their ſucceſſours; to the which Office ſoo to mayntene and ſuſteyne, been accuſtumed and due certeyn wages and fees, by Statute and Ordeince of the Houſholde of your noble pgenitours and yours of olde tyme purveyed, as hit apperith in a Cedule to this bille annexed. Of which wages and fees, the ſaid Biſecher and his Aunceſtres, have been paid of the iſſues and pfitz of the Countees of Surr' and Suſſex, by the Shirref for the tyme ther beyng, by vertue of a Warante under your Pryve Seal yerely to him made and direct, fro the tyme of your noble pgenitour Kyng Edward the Thirde, unto thre yeres laſt paſt, that the Shirref of the ſaid Countees for the tyme beyng, ſeth that tyme is ſoo charged of othir wages and annuytees graunted by your ſres patentes to othir divers pſonys, that the iſſues and pfites of the ſaid Countees wolle not ſuffice to contente the wages and fees of your ſaid Biſecher, over the wages and annuytees ſoo graunted to othir pſonys; and ſoo your ſaid Biſecher cannot be paid of the Shirrefez of the ſaid Shirez for the tyme beyng, becauſe that the ſaid wages and fees were aſſigned yerely to be paid by waraunte of your Pryve Seal, and not by warant of your ſres patentes: And thus he is like to leſe his wages

Petition of the Duke of Suffolk. (m. 4.)

14. MEMORAND', that the XXII day of Janüary, the Duke of Suff' beſought the Kynges Highnes in the mooſt ſpeciall and humble wiſe, that it liked the Kyng of his good grace, by advis of all the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell than beyng preſent in this Parlement, to admitte his ſupplication and deſire, that he myght be atte his declaration of the grete infamie and defamation that is ſeid uppon hym, by many of the people of this lande, that he ſhuld be other then a true man to the Kyng and to his Reame; if any man wold ſey hit in generall or in ſpeciall, howe, wherof and wherin, that he myght make his anſwere, in declaryng of hym ſelf as he is, afore the Kyng, his Lordes, and all his Commens in this preſent Parlement: And that his ſeid deſire myght be put in writyng, and enrolled in the Rolle of the ſeid Parlement.

His Proteſtation.

15. OURE aller mooſt high and dradde Soverayne Lord, I ſuppoſe welle that it be commen to youre eeres, to my grete hevynes and ſorowe, God knoweth, the odious and horrible langage that renneth thorough your lande, almooſt in every Commons mouth, ſowning to my higheſt charge and mooſt hevyeſt diſclaundre, ayen your mooſt noble and Roiall perſone and youre lande, by a certein confeſſion of the Keper of youre Prive Seall, whome God aſſoile, ſhuld have made at his deth, as it is ſeid; which noiſe and langage is to me the hevyeſt charge and birthen, that I coude in any wiſe receyve or bere as reaſon is, of the which oure Lord above that all thing ſeeth and knoweth, wot that I am full ungilty of: Beſechyng youre Highnes, ye like of youre good grace, to conſidre the true ſervice that my Lord my Fader didde to the Kyng of noble memorie your Graunſire, in all the viages in his daies both by See and Lande, that were made oute of this lande, in the which he was at all. And after in the daies of the mooſt victorious Prince the Kyng youre Fader, in whos ſervice he died at Harflu; myne eldeſt Brother after with hym at the bataill of Agyncourte; myne other II Brethern alſo dieden in your ſervice at Jargn, the day that I was taken but as a Knyght aught to be I truſt to God, and paied XX M li. to my finaunce; my IIII^th Brother lyeng there for me in hoſtage, died alſo in your Ennemyes handes; myſelf hath be armed in the Kynges daies youre Fader, and youres XXXIIII wynter, and of the Felſhip of the Garter XXX, and contynuelly within the tyme beforeſaid abyden in the werre there XVII yere, withouten commyng home or ſeyng of this lande; and ſithen my commyng home, have contynuelly ſerved aboute your mooſt noble perſone XV yere, in the which I have founden as grete grace and goodneſſe, as ever Liegeman founde in his Soverayne Lord, God rewarde youre Highneſſe therfore in Heven and in erth. And in this youre Roialme, Soverayne Lord, I have my birthe, and myne enheritaunce and eſtate to me, and to theym that be, and ſhall come of me, to ſerve you, Soveraigne Lord, and this your noble Reame. And all thees thinges well conſidered, yif for a Frenſh mannes promiſſe, where all thoo that I am comen of myſelf alſo, and all thoo that ſhuld come of me been enhited here in this youre lande, for covetyſe of an erthely good or beheſt, ſhuld be either falls or untrue to your high eſtate, or to this your lande that I am born of, there were noon erthely punycion but that it were to litell for me. And if it ever ſhall like our Lord, that I dey otherwiſe than in my bedde, my blode unſhamed, I beſeche hym for the wele of my ſoule, I may dey in that quarell, that I have ever be true to you, Soverayne Lord, and to youre lande, and to youre proſperite and welfare, and ſo motte he at myne ende ſave me and noon otherwiſe, and ſo wille ever be with his grete mercy. Wheruppon I beſeche youre Highnes in the mooſt humble wiſe I can bethenke, ye like to the fame beforeſeid ſo ſowen, or any other what ſo ever it be that may ſowne ayenſt your mooſt Roiall perſone and youre lande, that wol charge me duryng this youre preſent Parlement, laſt it never ſoo longe, or any ſuch tyme therof as it ſhall like youre Highnes to aſſigne, in ſoo high a blame; that he come forth, and ſey to me in the maters aboveſaid what he wolle; and that in your preſence, before you, Soverayne Lord, I may be herde in myne excuſations and defences reſonable, the which I truſt to the mercy of oure Lord, ſhall be ſo open and ſoo playn, that I truſt youre Highneſſe and youre lande ſhull be content of me; and thenke that it ſhall ſuffice to my diſcharge with his mercy, by all the waiez and meanez as a true Liege man aught to offre hym to: For God knoweth I am, ſhall be, and never was other, but true to you, Soverayne Lord, and to youre lande. And furthermore that it may like youre Highneſſe, that this my requeſt and humble ſupplication, preſented to youre Highnes for my trouth, may be enacted in this youre preſent Parlement.

Requiſition of the Commons.

16. AFTERWARD, that is to ſey, the Monday the XXVI day of Januar', the Commens of this preſent Parlement, ſent unto the Chaunceller of Englond certeyn of their Felawes praiyng hym, that where the Duke of Suff' in his owne declaration, beforne theym the ſame day ſaid and confeſſed, that there was an hevy rumour and noyſe of ſclaundre and Infamie uppon hym, wheruppon they deſired that he wold lette the Kyng have knowlech of this mater on her behalf; and that it like the Kyng to committe hym to warde after the cours of the lawe, in eſchuyng of inconveniencez that may ſue theruppon hereafter. The which mater uppon Tueſday the XXVII day of Januar' then next folowyng, ſhewed to the Kyng and the Lordes in the Counſeill Chambre, by the ſeid Chaunceller; the ſame Chaunceller axed of the Lordes, what ſhuld be doon uppon the Commens requeſt and deſire, and wheder the ſeid Duke ſhuld be put to warde or noo; and it was axed of the Juges what the lawe wold in this mater, that the Kyng and the Lordes myght have knowlech of the lawe. And the chief Juſtice of the Kynges Benche declared for all his Felawes and ſeid, that in thieſe generall termes, Rumoir, and noyſe of ſclaundre and Infamie, may many thinges be underſtand; that is for to ſey, meſpriſions or treſpaſſes; for which cauſes it nedeth not by the lawe to committe hym to warde; or elles Felonyes or Treſons. And for aſmoche as the wordes been generall and noothing in ſpeciall declared, he wold comon with his Felawes, and bryng an anſwere what the lawe therin will after her conceytes. And afterward all the Lordes from the loweſt to the higheſt, held in maner oon opinion; that for cauſe there was noo ſpeciall mater of ſclaundre and Infamie putte uppon hym,

Opinion of the Lords.

A. D. 1450 28 Hen. VI. that he ſhuld not be committed to warde till the ſpecialte were declared and ſhewed.

The ſaid Duke committed to the Tower.

17. ITEM, the XXVIII day of Januar next folowyng, the Speker of the Parlement opened and declared in the Commen Hous, before the Chaunceller of Englond and other Lordes with hym accompanied, to theym ſent doun by the Kynges commaundement, and at here owen requeſt; howe that the Kynges pore Commens of his Reame, been as lovyngly, as hertely, and as tenderly, ſette to the good welfare and proſperite of his perſone and of his Roialme, as ever were eny Commens ſette to the welfare of her Soveraigne Lord. And howe be it that on Monday laſt paſt, there were ſent unto the ſeid Chaunceller, certeyn of the ſeid Hous, havyng in commaundement by all her Maiſters and Felawes, to utter a certeyn mater to hym, deſiryng that he ſhuld utter the ſame matter unto the Kynges Highnes, to th'entent that it pleaſe his Highnes, for the grete rumour and noyſe of ſclaunder and Infamie uppon the Duke of Suff', as it was confeſſed by the ſeid Duke the ſeid Monday, to committe hym to warde after the fourme of lawe; and as they have underſtond, after communication had with the Juſtices, for cauſe there was noo ſpecialte declared uppon hym, wherfore he ſhuld be committed to warde, but a generalte, hiderto there was noo thing doon to her deſire as fer as they have knowlech of. And for aſmuch as daily ſith, from every partie of Englond there is come amonge hem a grete rumour and fame, howe that this Roialme of Englond ſhuld be ſold to the Kynges Adverſarie of Fraunce, and his Uncle and he, as it is ſeid, maketh hym redy to come and entre this lande with all the power he may make, to putte the Kynges perſone in Jupardie and diſtreſſe, and to doo with hym and his Reame as hem liketh, that God defende, which ſhuld be doon and ymagined by the labour of the ſeid Duke of Suff', as it is ſeid; and in proſe hereof, where the Kyng hath committed to the ſeid Duke the kepyng of the Caſtell of Walyngford, he hath fortified it and repaired it, and alſo ſtuffed it with Gunnes, Gunepowder, and other Habilimentez of werre, and with ſufficiant Vitaill, as it is ſeid, to th'entent that if this puyſſaunce come into this Reame, they may have there a place of refute and of ſocour, unto the tyme they may acheve her malicious purpoſe; which mater the ſeid Speker in name of all his Felawes, prayed the ſeid Chaunceller and Lordes to open to the Kyng, and that it liketh his Highneſſe to committe the ſeid Duke unto the Toure duryng this ſaid Court of Parlement, unto the tyme that he may declare hym ſelf of the ſeid mater, and of other thinges that ſhall be putte uppon hym; for it is thought by all their wiſdomes, that they have declared ſpeciall mater ynough of ſuſpecion of treaſon ayenſt the ſeid Duke, for to committe hym to warde; uppon which deſire the ſeid Duke was committed to the Toure to warde.

The Articles to be enrolled, the Duke to answer them.

47. OFF all which offenses, mespriſions, untrue labours and fals deceytes, in the ſeid Articles ſpecified, We your ſeid Commens accuſe and empeche the ſeid Duke of Suff'; and in the mooſt humble wiſe beſeche and pray your Highneſſe, that this be enacted in this youre high Court of Parlement, and that it may be proceded uppon the premiſſes ayenſt the ſeid Duke, duryng the ſame Parlement, as the maters and cauſes foreſaid requiren, in conſervation of Juſtice, to the ſinguler comfort of all your Liege people; your Rightwiſnes conſideryng, that the ſeid meſpriſions, fawtes, and other full untrue coloured Counſeilles, and myſchevous dedes of the ſame Duke, which to reherce were over longe and to diffuſe, have been the grounde and cauſe of the ſubverſion of your lawes and Juſtice, and execution therof, and to the nygh likely deſtruction of this youre Reame, and other places under youre obeiſſaunce.

The Duke brought from the Tower.

48. MEMORAND', yat the ſame IX day of Marche, the ſeid Duke of Suff' was brought from the Toure by vertue of the Kynges writte, and come afore the Kynges preſence, and all the Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx in the Parlement Chambre, and there was declared to hym, the grete accuſations and empechementez made ayenſt hym by all the Commens of the Parlement, of grete and heynous treaſons doon ayenſt the Kynges owne perſone, his Corone, his Regalie and his land; and alſo another Bille of grete deceytes and meſpriſions of XVIII Articles, doon by the ſame Duke ayenſt the Kyng and his land, to all the which he muſt anſwere. He then beſought the Kyng of his good grace, that he myght have copies of hem, that he myght the more ſouner make and be at his anſwer, the which the Kyng graunted that he ſhuld have; and alſo to th'entent that he myght be the more redyer and nere to come to his anſwer, the Kyng, by the adviſe of all the Lordes, committed hym to the warde of William Myners, John Stanley and Thomas Staunton, Squiers, to be kept in a Toure within the Kynges Paleys of Weſtm'.

His appearance before the King and Lords.

49. ITEM, the XIII day of Marche than next folowyng, the ſeid Duke of Suff' was ſent for, to come tofore the Kynges Highnes, and his Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx, for to anſwere to ſuch Articles concernyng dyvers grete and horrible treaſons, uppon which he is accuſed and empeched by the Commens of Englond, aſſembled in this preſent Parlement, and to declare hymſelf therin for his excuſe. And the ſeid Duke, before the Kyng and all the ſeid Lordes knelyng, anſwered to everyche of the ſeid Articles of treaſons by hymſelf, which was VIII in nombre, and to all thoo that touched high treaſon to the Kynges perſone, he denyed hem utterly, and ſaid, ſavyng the Kynges high preſence, they were fals and untrue, and that he wold make it good and prove in what wyſe the Kyng wille rule hym to. And ſpecially to the firſt parte of the firſt Article, he ſaid, it muſt nedes be untrue, for it is ympoſſible that he ſhuld ſoo doo, for they that thus have accuſed hym can not fynde the meanes howe to make it poſſible. And as for the ſecund part of the firſt Article, it is ayenſt lawe and reaſon to make the ſeid Margarete ſoo nygh the Corone; and as for his aquitall, he reporteth hym to a grete part of the Lordes, that if the Duke of Warrewykes Doughter hadde lyved, he had caſt to mary his ſonne to her, and not unto the ſeid Margarete. And as to many of the remenaunt of the Articles, ſom he referreth hym to Actes made in the Counſeill, and to ſome Actes made in the Parlement, and alſo to the Kynges Lettres patentes to hym made of the ſame Actes. And as for the Article of Anjoy and Mayn, he reporteth hym to the Acte that is made theruppon in the Counſeill, ſaiyng that other Lordes were as privy therto as he. And as for the delyveraunce therof, he leyde all that charge to the Pryvy Seall late Byſhop of Chicheſtre, declaryng the fourme howe and in what wiſe the ſeid Pryvy Seall delyvered the ſeid Towne, declaryng the ſeid Pryvy Seall alſo in dyvers maters laboured by hym to the grete diſclaundre of the ſeid Duke, full falls and untrue. And as touchyng to that he ſhuld have ſeid in the Sterre Chambre, which wordes been expreſſed in the VI Article, he ſaid hem not in forme as that Article ſpecifieth, but under other langage, and yet that he ſaid, he ſaid it not in ſuch wyſe as it myght enforce the mater of the ſeid Article, nor to that entent that he ſhuld therby be any Counſeller to the Kynges Adverſarie.

A. D. 1450. 28 Hen. VI.

The XIIII day of Marche then next folowyng, the Chief Juſtice reherſed to all the Lordes by the Kynges commaundement, ſaiyng, that it is well in youre remembraunce in what wyſe the Duke of Suff' demeaned hym here yeſterday; and uppon that he axed a queſtion, what adviſe the Lordes wold yeve to the Kyng, what is nowe to doo furthermore in this mater, which advis was differred unto Monday then next commyng, on the which Monday was noo thyng doon in that matier.

His ſecond appearance. (m. 8.)

50. MEMORAND', that on Tueſday the XVII day of Marche, the Kyng ſent for all his Lordes both Spirituell and Temporell thenne beyng in Towne, that is for to ſey, the Cardynall of Yorke, the Archebiſhop of Caunterbury, the Duke of Buk', the Biſhoppes of London, Wyncheſtre, Lincoln, Ely, Sarum, Bathe, Worceſtre, Seint Aſſ', Norwych, Cheſtre, Seint Davies, Bangore and Hereford; Erles Warrewyk, Devonſhire, Oxenford, Northumberland, Wilteſhire and Worceſtre; Viſcountes Beamond, Bourgchier; Abbottes Weſtmynſter and Glouceſtr'; Priour of Seint Jones; Barons Roos, Grey de Ruthyn, Wellys, Scales, Cromwell, Liſle, Ferrers de Groby, Cobham, Dudley, Sudeley, Beauchamp, Say, Seint Amond, Haſtynges, Moleyns, Stourton, Ryvers and Veſſy; into his Inneſt Chambre, with a Gavill Wyndowe over a Cloyſter, within his Paleys of Weſtm'; and whenne they were all aſſembled, the Kyng ſent for the Duke of Suff', the which Duke when he came into the Kynges preſence he kneled doun, and ſo he kneled contynuelly ſtille, unto the tyme the Chaunceller of Englond had ſaid to hym the Kynges commaundement, in fourme that foloweth.

Sire, ye be well remembred when ye were laſt in the Kynges preſence and his Lordes, of youre anſwers and declarations, uppon certen Articles touchyng accuſations and empechementes, of grete and horrible thinges putt uppon you by the Commons of this lande, aſſembled in this preſent Parlement, in her firſt Bille preſented by theym to the Kynges Highnes; and howe at that tyme ye putte you not uppon youre Parage; what woll ye ſey nowe furthermore in that mater? And the ſeid Duke anſwered and ſeid, they were to horrible to ſpeke more of theym, and ſeid openly to the Kyng and all the Lordes, that all the Articles comprehended in the ſeid Bille, touchyng the Kynges high perſone, and th'aſtate of his Roialme, he truſteth to God he hath anſwered hem ſufficiently, for he hath denyed the dayes, the yeres, the places, and the communications hadde, which were never thought nor wrought, ſeiyng utterly they been fals and untrue, and in manere impoſſible, for he ſeid ſo grete thinges coude not be doon nor brought aboute by hymſelf alone, onleſſe that other perſones had doon her parte and be pryvy therto aſwell as he, and he toke his ſoule to perpetuell dampnation, yf ever he knewe more of thoo maters then the Childe in the Moders wombe; and ſoo he not departyng from his ſeid anſwers and declarations, ſubmytted hym holy to the Kynges rule and governaunce, governaunce, to doo with hym as hym liſt: wheruppon the ſeid Chaunceller, by the Kynges commaundement, ſeid unto hym ageyne in this fourme.

His Baniſhment.

51. SIRE, y conceyve you that ye not departyng from youre anſwers and declarations in the maters aforeſeid, not puttyng you uppon youre Parage, ſubmitte you hooly to the Kynges rule and governaunce. Wherfore the Kyng commaundeth me to ſey you, that as touchyng the grete and horrible thinges in the ſeid firſt Bille compriſed, the Kyng holdeth you neither declared nor charged. And as touchyng the ſecund Bille putte ayenſt you, touchyng meſpriſions which be not crymynall, the Kyng, by force of youre ſubmiſſion, by his owne advis, and not reportyng hym to th'advis of his Lordes, nor by wey of Jugement, for he is not in place of Jugement, putteth you to his rule and governaunce: That is to ſay, that ye, before the firſt day of May next commyng, ſhull abſente youre ſelf oute of his Reame of Englond; and alſo, from the ſeid firſt day of May, unto the ende of v yere next folowyng and fully complete, ye ſhull abſtene you to abyde in his Roialme of Fraunce, or in any other Lordſhippes or places beyng under his obeyſaunce, wherſoever they be. And that ye ſhall not ſhewe nor wayte, nor no man for you, as ferforth as ye may lette it, noo malice, evill wille, harme ne hurt, to any perſone of what degree he be of, or to eny of the Commens of this Parlement, in noo maner of wiſe, for any thing doon to you in this ſaid Parlement, or elles where. And forthwith the Viſcount Beammont, on the behalf of the ſeid Lordes both Spirituelx and Temporelx, and by their advis, aſſent and deſire, recited, ſaid and declared to the Kynges Highnes, that this that ſo was decreid and doon by his Excellence, concernyng the perſone of the ſeid Duke, proceded not by their advis and counſell, but was doon by the Kynges owne demeañnce and rule; wherfore they beſought the Kyng, that this their ſaiyng myght be enacted in the Parlement Rolle, for their more declaration hereafter, with this proteſtation; that it ſhuld not be nor tourne in prejudice nor derogation of theym, their heires ne of their ſucceſſours in tyme commyng, but that they may have and enjoy their libertee and fredome in caſe of their Parage hereafter, as frely and as largely, as every they or eny of their Aunceſtres or Predeceſſours had and enjoyed before this tyme.

some of $\frac{M}{xix}$ ccc $\frac{xx}{iiii}$ xv li. or thereaboute. The Kyng oure Soverain Lord, willyng the seid Capitein and Soldiours to be duly paied, content and satisfied of the seid duetees, willeth, ordeineth and graunteth to the seid Duk, by th'avyse and assent of his Lordes Spuell and Temporell, and Cõens in this his psent Parlement assembled, and by auctorite of the same Parlement, that the seid Duk and his Executours, have as well all manere Custumes, as al manere Subsidies, comyng or growyng of all manere goodes and Merchandises which shall come into the Porte of Sandewych, and in all other places to the same Port belongyng, and ther to be put to lond, or to passe oute of the same by wey of Merchandise overe the See, after the Fest of the Purificacion of oure Lady next comyng: and all sõmes of Money comyng of the same Custumes and Subsidies. And also as well al manere Custumes as al manere Subsidies, comyng or growyng after the seid Fest, of al manere Wolles and Wolfelles, Hydes, Tynne, and other Merchandise of the Staple, that within the same Port and places, after the seid Fest, shall be shipped. And all sõmes of money, comyng of such Custumes and Subsidies, by the handes of the Collectours and Custumers of the seid Custumes and Subsidies in the seid Porte and places for the tyme beyng; and vi s. viii d. in money or obligacions, comyng or growyng of the Subsidies of every sak Woll, and of every ccxl Wolfell, in every other Porte of this Reaume, or in any of theym, after the seide Feste shipped or to be shipped, by the handes of the Collectours of such Subsidies in any such other Portez for the tyme beyng, by endentures severally to be made bitwene the seid Duk or his Executours, and the same Collectours of the same Subsidies in the same other Portez for the tyme beyng, unto the tyme that to the same Duk or his Executours, full paiement and contentyng be had or made of the seid some of $\frac{M}{xix}$ ccc $\frac{xx}{iiii}$ xvli.; and overe that, of all that shall be due to hym for his seid Wages and rewardes, and his seid Soldiours, into the tyme of his discharge of the seid office of Captein.

And also that the seid Duk and his Executours, fro tyme to tyme, at their wille, shall name and assigne to the Tresorer of Englond for the tyme beyng, a pson as well to be oon of the Custumers as oon of the Collectours of the seid Custumes and Subsidies, in the said Porte of Sandewych, as well of the petite Custume, as of the grete Custumes and Subsidies to be leveed in the same Porte, of all manere Wolles, Wolfelles, Tynne, and all other Merchandisez, unto the tyme the seid Duk or his Executours be fully paid and content of all the seid sõmes of money and duetees for the wages and rewardes aforeseid.

Provided alwey, that if the seid Duk or his Executours, by force or colour of this Act, resceyve any more sõmes of money than shall be founde due to hym for the seid wages and rewardes, upon any accompte or accomptes to be had duely in fourme accustumed in the Kynges Eschequer, of or for paiement of the same wages and rewardes; than he, his heires and his seid executours, shall repaie to the Kyng all that so shall be by theym resceived, overe the sõme founde due for the seid wages and rewardes, upon such accompte or accomptes.

And that the seid Tresorer of Englond for the tyme beyng, upon such nominacion and assignement, shall make sufficiantz warantz to be direct to the Chaunceller of Englond for the tyme beyng, for Lres Patentz under the Kynges grete Seall, to be made in due fourme to such pson or psones so named, with other, to be Collectours of al manere Custumes and Subsidies of all Wolles, Wolfelles, Hydes, Tynne, and other Merchandisez of the Staple, and all other manere Merchandises in the same Port, and places therto longyng, comyng or growyng.

A. D. 1450. 28 Hen. VI.

And that the same pson for the tyme named to be oon of the seid Collectours in the same Port of Sandewych, after such Lres Patentes to hym direct, have and take fro tyme to tyme, to the use and pfite of the seid Duk and of his Executours, all sõmes of money comyng or growyng in the same Port of the same Custumes and Subsidies; and the same sõmes, and every part of theym, pay to the seid Duk or to his Executours, by endentures therof to be made bitwene the same Duk or his Executours, and every such Collectour in the same Porte, by hym or his Executours to be named, unto the tyme that full paiement and contentyng be had to the same Duk or his Executours, of the seid sõmes of money and duetees for the wages and rewardes aforeseid.

And that every such Custumer or Collectour, by the seid Duk so to be named in the seid Port of Sandewych, in his accompt at the Kynges Eschequer, of all such paiementz by hym to the same Duk or to his Executours aforeseid, in the fourme foreseid to be made, have due allowance, and be therof in the same Eschequer fully quyte and discharged.

And that the Collectours of the seid Subsidies, of every Sakke Wolle, and of every ccxl Wolfell, to be shipped in any other Porte of this Reaume, oute of the seid Port of Sandewych, have plein discharge uppon their accomptes in the seid Eschequer, of vi s. viii d. of every Sak of Woll, and of every ccxl Wolfelles comyng of the same Subsidies, so to be paied to the seid Duk or his Executours, by endentures thereof to be made bitwene theim, into the tyme that full paiement and contentyng be had of the seid sõmes of money and duetees for the seid wages and rewardes: And that the same Collectours, of the same vi s. viii d. comyng of such Subsidies, have noon allowance therof in eny wyse, but by such endentures. And overe that, if eny of the seid Collectours or Custumers, make eny paiement in contrarie of eny of the grauntes aboveseid, than it shall be liefull to the seid Duk and his Executours, to take her suyte ayens the same Custumer or Collectour, and therby to recovere of hym or his Executours, the double of the sõme or sõmes so paid by hym in the contrarie of the seid graunte or grauntes.

Provided alwey, that no prejudice be doon by this Act to eny thyng of old tyme accustumed in the daies of the Kynges noble Progenitours, nor to eny graunt made by eny of theym, of eny comoditees or revenuz in the seid Port of Sandewych; and that the Kyng oure Soverain Lord, and his Heirs and Successours for ever, be discharged ayens the seid Duk and his Executours, of all such sõmes of money as shall be duely founden to growe in the seid Port of Sandewych, by the bokes of the Custumers and Countrollers ther, duryng the tyme that such pson or psones so named by the seid Duk or his Executours, shal be oon of the Custumers in the same Port, overe the seid comoditees and revenuz, and other thynges used and graunted to be taken there in tymes of the Kynges noble pgenitours.

Provided alwey, that pleyn deliverance be made by the seid Duk, or his deputee or deputees, of the seid Toun, Castell and Toure, by the secund day of Aprill next comyng or byfore, to such pson or psones as hit shall lyke to the Kynges good grace to appoynte and assigne, by his Lres Patentes under his gret Seall, to resceive the seid Toun, Castell and Toure: So alwey, that by the seid secund day of Aprill or byfore, ther be direct to the said Duk, a sufficiant warant under the Kynges gret Seall, to delivere the seid Toun, Castell and Toure. And that such pson or psones, as the Kynges Highnesse woll depute to resceive the seid Toun,

Acceleracio Levac'ois subsid' prius concess'. (m. 2.)

7. MEMORAND', That forasmoche as the Subsidie graunted to the Kyng oure Soveraigne Lord, by the Commons of this Reame, by th'assent of the Kyng, and of the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, in the Parlement last begun at Westm', and holden and ended at Leycestr', is yit unlevied and unpaied, to the grete hurt of the Kyng and of the lande, and lette of such behovefull usesse, as the good that shuld have growe of the seid Subsidie shuld have been emploied in, aswell for lak of diligence of Commissioners therfore ordeyned and assigned, and of Shirrefs of Shires of this Reame, for noon executing of such thinges as to theym belongeth to doo in that partie, as for lak of entendaunce of such persones as beth chargeable to the paiement of the same Subsidie &c.

The Kyng therefore, by th'advis and assent of the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and of the Commons, in this present Parlement assembled, and by auctorite of the same, ordeigneth and establisheth, that severall Writtes makyng mention of the graunt of the seid Subsidie, be directe to all the Shirrefs of the Shires of this Reame, commaundyng theym, that they with all diligence possible, make open Proclamation in places covenable, that the Commissioners ordeigned and assigned, or to be ordeigned and assigned, by the Kynges Commissions uppon the premisses, or some of theym, accordyng to their seid Commissions, be redy at such daies and places, as by the seid Proclamations shall be lymyted and assigned, to examyn all such persones, as beth or oweth to be chargeable to the payments to be hadde, by force of the graunte of the seid Subsidie. And that every such persone so beyng chargeable of eny paiement, by hym to be made by force of the graunte of the seid Subsidie, be thenne there redy after the fourme of the seid Proclamation, to be examyned accordyng to the graunte of the seid Subsidie, and after the fourme and effect of the same, and to doo and admitte to be doon by hym, and to hym, all that to hym belongeth by force of the seid graunte, uppon peyn, that is to sey, on every Commissioner by whos negligence the execution of the seidCommissions is delayed or fayled, xx li.; and uppon every persone that oweth to be examyned for execution of the seid graunte, and entendeth not to the seid examynation, the forfeiture of the treble of that that the same persone shall be founde chargeable by vertue of the seid graunte, be it by enquerry or otherwise, by the discretion of the seid Commissioners.

Also by auctorite of the same Parlement it is ordeyned, that the Shirref of every Shire, by hym or by his sufficient Depute, entend uppon the seid Commissioners, at daies and places to be assigned by the seid Proclamations, there to execute all maner of Preceptes and Warauntez, to hym fro the seid Commissioners directe, for the expedition and hasty execution of the seid graunte; and to doo all that to hym belongeth with theym, for the spedy payment of the seid Subsidie, uppon peyn of empriſonement, and of makyng fyne and raunsome with the Kyng, by the discretions and assessyng of the same Commissioners, havyng consideration to the yerely value of livelode.

Alwey provided, that every persone so to be examyned by force of the seid graunte, commyng in his persone bifore any Commissioners to be examyned, in any Shire of this Reame, that he then and there by the same Commissioners be examyned, of all the livelode that he hath in all the Shires of this Reame; and thenne by that examynation, that he be quyte and discharged of the examynation for the premisses in all other places. And that no persone by force, manasses or violence, yefe impediment or lette, to fre, restfull and peasible execution of the seid Commissions, uppon peyn of empriſonement, and forfeiture of all that they may forfeit to the Kyng.

And to yefe occasion and mater to the seid Commissioners, the more diligently to entend to the effectuell execution of the same Commissions, it is ordeyned by auctorite of this same Parlement, that everyche of theym so entendyng, shall have a resonable daily reward for his labour and costes, the which shall be estemed by th'advis of the Kynges Counseill.

Provided also, that this present Ordynaunce and Acte, extend not to charge eny persone, for havyng hymself, or any man to his use, any Frehold or Copyhold within or under the yerely value of XL s., and not XL s. or above, over all yerely charges and repriſes; nor also to the charge of any persone, for havyng of any Office, Wages, Fee or Fees, terme of yeres or otherwise, within or under the somme or the yerely value of III li., and not III li. or above; nor that any persone, beyng under state of Lorde, in this present Parlement as a membre of the same; nor that any person under state of Lord, that was in the last Parlement as a membre therof, except Shirrefs of Shires, in any wise be made Commissioner or Collectour, uppon or of the graunte of the seid Subsidie; and every Commission for the seid Subsidie hereafore made, or hereafter to be made, contrarie to this, be voide in all that that it is or shall be contrarie yerto, except the Commissions that afore this day the XVIII day of Decembr' have put in execution: nor that any persone, beyng chargeable by force of the seid graunt, renne in the peyn of forfeiture of the treble &c. for noon apparaunce bifore the Commissioners of any Shires, but oonly where he is receant and abidyng in propre persone, at the tyme of the seid Proclamation, and there at his large, fredome and of power to come; but that they that have, or any man to their use, Frehold or Copiehold within or under the yerely value of XL s., and not XL s. or above, or Office, Wages, Fee or Fees, terme of yeres or otherwise, within or under the somme of the yerely value of III li., and not III li. or above, be and stand fully discharged of any paiement to be made therfore, by force of the graunt of the seid Subsidie made unto the Kyng in the seid last Parlement at Leycestr': This seid Acte and Ordenaunce, or the Acte of the graunt of the seid Subsidie made in the seid last Parlement, or any thing conteigned in the same, notwithstondyng.

Pro morte W. Tresham.

8. ITEM, quedam Petitio exhibita fuit in presenti Parliamento, per Isabellam que fuit uxor Willielmi Tresham, in hec verba:

TO the Kyng oure Soverayne Lord; Besecheth mekely and lamentably compleyneth unto your Highnes, the pouer and sorowfull wydowe and Oratrice Isabell, late the wyfe of William Tresham; that where the said William late hir husbond, was in Goddes peas and youres Soverayne Lord, the Tuesday next after the Fest of Seint Mathewe th'Appostell, the yere of your reigne the XXIX, atte Sywell in his owen place, purposyng by the writyng direct unto hym of the right high and myghty Prince the Duke of York, to ride on the morowe for to mete and speke with the seid Duke; there oon Simon Norwyche, late of Bryngherst in the Shire of Rutland Squier, of sotill ymagination and malice of longe tyme forthought, purposyng to murdre and destroye the seid William Tresham, excited, procured and stirred Evane Aprice, John Dee, Thomas Tedre Maddokke the yonger, late of Wales yomen, William

Steyneur,

A. D. 1450. 29 Hen. VI.

Steynour, late of Riſley in the Shire of Bed' yoman, Criſtofir Hothum, late of Wymynton in the ſame Shire yoman, John Bocher, late of Caſtell Aſſheby in the Shire of Norlit' yoman, William Kyng, late of Kiſlyngbury in the ſame Shire yoman, John Gode, late of Barton Pynkeney, in the ſame Shire yoman, Simond Willes, late of the ſame Town yoman, and William Auncell, late of Norhampton in the ſame Shire Goldſmyth, to execute his ſeid malicious purpoſe; which Evane Aprice, John Dee, Thomas Tedre Maddokke the yonger, William Steynour, Criſtofyr Hothum, John Bocher, William Kyng, John Gode, Simond Wylles, and William Auncell, ſuppoſyng that the ſeid William Treſham wold ride and departe fro his owne hous for to mete with the ſeid Duke, ſent the ſeid Tueſday toward' nyght, oon William Kyng to the ſeid William Treſham, which William Kyng feynyng to have had certeyn maters to ſue fore to the ſeid Duke, deſired and praied the ſeid William Treſham to be his good Maiſter, and ſpeke for hym to the ſeid Duke, and to late hym knowe what tyme, and which wey he wold ride toward the ſeid Duke, ſo that he myght mete with hym on the wey, to gyfe hym pleyn inſtruction in the ſeid maters; by which ſubtill meanes, the ſame William Kyng knowyng by the anſwers of the ſeid William Treſham, that nothing myſdemed, what tyme and which wey he purpoſed to ride, therof made notice to the ſeid Evan Aprice, John Dee, Thomas Tedre Maddokke the yonger, William Steynour, Criſtofir Hothum, John Bocher of Caſtell Aſſheby, William Kyng, John Gode, Simon Wylles, and William Auncell; wheruppon the ſeid Evane Aprice, John Dee, Thomas Tedre Maddokke the yonger, William Steynour, Criſtofir Hothum, John Bocher of Caſtell Aſſheby, William Kyng, John Gode, Simon Wylles, and William Auncell, gadered and aſſembled with theym dyvers myſdoers and murderers of men, to the nombre of an CLX perſonnes or moo, arraied in fourme of werre, with Jakkes, Salettez, longe Swerdes, long Debeofs, Boreſperes, and all other unmerciable forbodon wepons, in the nyght next folowyng the ſeid Tueſday, come to a place called Thorplandcloſe in Multon, in the Shire of Norlit', and there logged them under a longe Hegge adjoynyng to the high wey, wherby they knewe by the ſubtill meanes above reherced, that the ſeid William Treſham ſhuld ride, and thenne there lay in awayte of the ſeid William Treſham, for to execute their malicious purpoſe, from the oure of mydnyght next ſuyng the ſeid Tueſday, till the oure of VI before noon on the Wedneſday then next folowyng; atte which oure the ſeid William Treſham, ridyng in the high wey to the ſeid long hegge toward the ſeid Duke, ſeiyng matyns of oure Lady, the ſeid William Kyng, which was ſent by the ſeid myſdoers to awayte and gife theym parfit knowlech of his commyng, made to theym a token accorded bitwene theym, wherby they knewe the perſone of the ſeid William Treſham, the day thenne beyng darke; wheruppon the ſeid myſdoers, felonefly as Felons to you Soverayn Lord, ayenſt youre peas, Corone and dignite, the ſeid Wedneſday, and oure of VI aboveſeid, at Multon aboveſeid, in the ſeid high wey iſſued out uppon the ſeid William Treſham, and the ſeid Evane thenne and there with a Launcegay, ſmote the ſeid William Treſham thorough the body a fote and more, wherof he died, and other dyvers perſones of the ſeid myſdoers above named, gafe hym many and grete dedely woundes and kutte his throte, of every of the which woundes and kuttyng of throte he ſhuld have died, if he had not died of the wounde which the ſaid Evane gaf hym, and every of theym thenne and there comforted, ejded, aſſiſted and ſtrenghted other, to the ſeid murdre, to be doon in the fourme aboveſaid; and ſo the ſame myſdoers above named, thenne and there felonefly as youre Rebelles, diſpiſyng your lawes, murdred and ſlough the ſeid William Treſham, and ſpoiled hym and robbed hym of a Coler of youre lyvere, a cheyne of gold, an Hors, and XX li. of money, his Signet, and other dyvers Juelx to a notable ſomme; and thenne and there bette and ſore wounded Thomas Treſham, ſon to the ſeid William Treſham, and robbed hym of an Hors, his Coler, and his purſe and money, and other dyvers Juelx therin, ayenſt youre peas, your Corone and your dignite; and the ſeid Evane hath riden, and daily rideth uppon the Hors of the ſeid William Treſham, with a childe folowyng hym uppon the hors of the ſeid Thomas Treſham; and contynuelly after the ſeid horrible murdre and robberie doon in fourme aboveſaid, the ſeid myſdoers not dredyng you Soverayn Lord, ne your lawes, have been and are abidyng, ridyng and goyng in the ſeid Shire of Norlit', avauntyng theymſelf of the ſeid murdre: Howe be it that your ſeid wofull compleynaunt, hath dyvers tymes required the Shirref of the ſeid Shire to areſte theym, and put theym in warde for the ſeid murdre and robberie, as the lawe wold, which the ſeid Shirref in no wiſe dare. And alſo where as Richard Willughby, and William Holdenby, Coroners of the ſame Shire, uppon the ſight of the body of the ſeid William Treſham ſlayn and murdred in fourme aboveſaid, had charged XII men to enquere of his deth, which deſired a reſpite of their veredit; the ſeid myſdoers abovenamed, ſent unto the ſeid XII men, and charged theym uppon peyne of their lyfes, that they ſhuld no verdit gif, but if they wold endite the ſeid William Treſham of his owen deth: Wherfore the ſeid XII men, for fere of deth, dar noo thing ſay ne preſent agayns the ſeid Myſdoers.

A. D. 1450. 29 Hen. VI.

9. PLEASE it to youre Highnes thees premiſſes tenderly to conſider, and howe the ſeid myſdoers beth ſo enforced and aſſiſted by other myſdoers and riotours to theym accompanyed of their affinite, by whome for their riotous rule, aſwell your Officers in that Contre, as other of the cõen people of that Shire, been putte in ſuch drede and fere, that yf your ſeid Compleynaunt ſhuld ſue to venge the deth and horrible murdre of hir ſeid Husbond, after the cours of the cõen lawe, yet nother the Shirref of the ſeid Shire, Coroner, ne noon other of the ſeid Officers, neither myght ne derſt take ne areſt the ſeid myſdoers and riotours, ne noo maner of Writtes ne other proceſſe to theym direct at hir ſute ſerve ne execute; and ſo the ſeid foule and horrible murdre and robberie are like to paſſe unpunyſhed, to the mooſt hevy and dredefull example that hath been ſeen, that God ne reſonable man ne wold, but if ſomme remedie for the correction and punyſhment therof, be by your Highnes purveied in more haſt. And theruppon, for the grete zele and ſpeciall deſire that ye have to Juſtice, and in eſchuyng th'example that may be taken herby if it ſhuld paſſe unpunyſhed, that ye of your mooſt habundant grace, by th'avis and aſſent of your Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and the Commens, beyng in this preſent Parlement, and by the auctorite of the ſame, wolle provide, ordeigne and eſtabliſh, that the ſeid Iſabell may have a Writte oute of the Chauncerie, directe to the Shirref of the ſame Shire of Norlit' for the tyme beyng, chargyng hym by the ſame, that he doo make opynly Proclamation in the Towne of Norlit', within x daies next after the livere of the ſame Writte to hym made, that the ſeid Simon Norwiche, Evane Aprice, John Dee, Thomas Tedre Maddokke the yonger, William Steynour, Criſtofir Hothum, John Bocher of Caſtell Aſſheby, William Kyng, John Gode, Simon Wylles, and William Auncell, and eche of theym, appere in their owen perſones or perſone afore you, at the Quinziſme of Seint Hillar next coñiyng, wherſomever ye ſhall be thenne in Englond, for to anſwere (m. 3.)

to

to the ſeid Iſabell, in ſitch maters as ſhall be put to theym, for the deth of hir ſeid Husbond. And if the ſeid myſdoers above named, or any of theym, then and there appiere, that thenne they or he that ſo appereth, ymmediatly after his apparaunce be committed unto the Marchall warde, there to abide in priſon withoute baille or maynpriſe, and put to anſwere to the ſeid Iſabell uppon a bille of Appell to be taken by here of the ſeid deth. And that they ſo apperyng and every of theym, abide in Warde withoute baille or maynpriſe, to the tyme that they of the ſeid felonye be convicte or acquitte, after the fourme of the lawe of this londe: and alſo to the tyme that they and eche of theym, have founden ſufficiant ſuerte of the peas to you and to all your people, and of their good beryng. And if the ſeid myſdoers abovenamed, or any of theym, appere afore you at the ſeid Quinziſme, and plede any forein plee in abatement of the ſeid Bille, or other mater in diſtruction or barre of the ſeid Appell of the ſeid Iſabell, which is noo mater of Recorde, but ſuch mater as aſketh a triall to be tried by XII men, accordyng to the cours of the commen lawe of this land; that thenne the ſeid mater of plee, be tried by perſones dwellyng in the ſeid Shire of Norfit'; and that the ſeid Shirref retourne not ne empanell in the ſeid ſute, noon other perſones but ſuch as dwell within the ſeid Shire: And that they or other to their uſe, have Londes and Tenementes to the yerely value of xx li. And that the ſeid Shirref, retourne iſſuez at the firſt diſtreſſe, ayenſt every of the perſones empaneled in the ſeid ſute v marcs, and atte the ſecund diſtreſſe c s., and atte the thirde diſtreſſe x li., and at every diſtreſſe after till they appere x li.: And that no chalange be allowed in the ſeid Appell but for a reſonable cauſe, to be tried after the cours of the lawe. And if the ſeid myſdoers above named, appere not afore you at the ſeid Quinziſme, that then the ſeid myſdoers, and every of theym that then and there appere not, of the ſeid felonye be convict and attainted. And that the ſame conviction and atteindre, be of the ſame force and effect, and of the ſame nature, as if the ſame perſones not apperyng, were convict and atteint by origynall ſuyte of Appell of the ſeid Iſabell of deth, after the cours of the commen lawe. And after the ſeid conviction and atteindre, that the ſeid Iſabell may have oute of youre Benche, as many Writtes for the execution therof, as ſhall be thought in that partie behovefull and neceſſarie. And if the ſeid Shirref, after the ſeid Writte or Writtes of Proclamation to hym delyvered, duly ſerve not the ſeid Writtes, accordyng to th'entent and effecte therof in the fourme aforeſeid, or the ſame Writte retourne not afore you in your ſeid Benche at the ſeid Quinziſme duely and lawfully ſerved; and alſo all other Writtes, aſwell the venir' fac', as other Writtes theruppon dependauntez ayenſt ſuch perſones to be empaneled in the ſeid ſute, in the fourme beforeſeid; or yf the ſeid Shirref, retourne not ſufficiaunt perſones to be empaneld betwixt the partie beforeſeid, havyng eche of theym Landes and Tenementes to the value of xx li. in the fourme beforeſeid, or ellys retourne not the ſeid iſſues ayenſt the ſeid perſones; or elles if the ſeid Shirref, ſerve not and duely execute and retourne all the ſeid Writtes of execution, after th'effect and entent therof, that thenne the ſeid Shirref forfait and pay to you for every defaute and myſpriſion of the ſeid premiſſes, cc li. of lawfull money, wherof ye may have the oon halfe, and the ſeid Iſabell the other half. And that every Writte, Bill or other ſute, to be taken ageynſt the ſeid myſdoers, or any of theym, touchyng the ſeid murdre, namyng and callyng theym be ſuch names as they are named in this preſent Bille, by the which names they be called and knowen in the ſeid Shire of Norfit', and by noon other, be as ſufficiaunt and effectuell, as if they were named by name of baptiſme, ſurnon and addition. And alſo to ordeyne by the ſeid auctorite, that in caas any of the ſeid myſdoers above named, be atteint by their defaute atte the ſeid Quinziſme, and after that atteindre, any maner perſone or perſones wilfully recette or comfort hym or theym ſo atteint, knowyng hym or theym to be ſoo atteint, that thenne the ſeid Iſabell may have a Writte or Writtes of Proclamation, direct to the Shirref of the Shire where ſuch recette or comfort ſhall be had, commaundyng hym to make open Proclamation in the Shire Towne within the ſame Shire, that the ſame recettours and Comfortours appere before you, at a certein day to be conteyned in the ſeid Writte or Writtes, to anſwere to the ſeid Iſabell of the ſame recettement and comfort; at which day if the ſeid recettours and Comfortours or any of theym appere, that thenne the ſeid Iſabell may have ayenſt them ſoo apperyng, a Bille of Appell of the ſeid recettement and comfort: And that bille to be as good and as effectuell in the lawe, as though the principall murdrer were named in the ſeid Appell; and like atteindre for lak of apparaunce at the ſeid day, conteined in the Writte or Writtes, and all other proceſſe and execution theruppon; and like triell to be hadde of the ſeid recetment and comfort, in the ſame Shires where ſuch recette or comfort ſhall be hadde, as is above deſired, ayenſt the ſeid myſdoers abovenamed. And in cas the ſeid Iſabell deceſſe, or in any oyer wiſe be diſabled to ſue before the ſeid Appell determyned, or elles after the ſeid Appelez determyned, and byfore execution had of theym; that thenne the next heire of the ſeid William Treſham, may have by the ſeid auctorite, like Writtes of Proclamation, billes of Appelles, and all other proceſſe, executions, benefices and avauntages in lawe, for the punyſhement of the deth of the ſame William Treſham, ayenſt the ſeid myſdoers abovenamed, and their recettours, in fourme aboveſaid, as is above deſired to be hadde for the ſeid Iſabell.

No 1. An Act of Reſumption. (m. 6.)

17. PRAYEN the Commyns in this youre preſent Parlement aſſembled to conſidre. That where youre Chaunceler of youre Roialme of Englond, youre Treſorer of Englond, and many other Lordes of youre Counſeile, by youre high commaundement to youre ſeide Commyns, at youre Parlement holden at Weſtm', and ended at Wyncheſtre, ſhewed and declared th'eſtate of this youre Roialme; which was, that ye were endetted in CCCLXXII M. li. which is grete and grevous, and that youre lyvelode in yerely value was but V M. li.; and for aſmoch as this V M. li., to youre high and notable eſtate to be kept, and to pay youre ſaid dettes wolde not ſuffice, therfore that youre high eſtate might be relevyd. And furthermore it was declared, that youre expenſes neceſſaries to youre Houſhold, withouten all other ordinarie charges, come to XXIIII M. li. yerely, the which excedith every yere in expenſes neceſſaries over youre lyvelode, XIX M. li. Alſo pleaſe it youre Highnes to conſidre, that the Comyns of youre ſaid Roialme, ben aſwell willed to theire pouere power, to the relevyng of youre Highneſſe, as ever were people to any Kyng of youre Progenitours, that ever reigned in youre ſaid Roialme of Englond; but youre ſeide Commyns been ſo empoverysſhid, what by takyng of vitaile to youre Houſhold, and other thynges in youre ſaid Roialme, and not paied fore, and the Quinziſme by youre ſeide Comyns afore this tyme ſo ofte graunted, and by the graunte of Tonnage and Poundage, and by the graunte of the Subſidie uppon the Wolles, and other grauntes to youre Highneſſe, and for lak of execution of Juſtice, that youre pore Comyns been full nygh diſtroied, and if it ſhulde contynue lenger in ſuch grete charge, it cowde not in any wyſe be hadde nor born. Wherfore pleaſe it youre Highneſſe the premiſſes graciouſly to conſidre, and that, by advyſe and aſſent of youre Lordes Spirituell and Temporelx, and by auctorite of this youre preſent Parlement, for the conſervation of youre high eſtate, and in comfort and eaſe of youre pouere Commons, wolde take, reſume, ſeiſe and reteigne in youre handes and poſſeſſion, all Honours, Caſtells, Lordſhipps, Townes, Touneſhipps, Maners, Londes, Tenementes, Waſtes, Rentes, Reverſions, Fees, Fee fermes and Services, with all theire appurtenaunces, in which ye hadde eſtate in Fee in Englonde, Wales, and in the Marches therof, Irlonde, Guyſnes, Caleys, and in the Marches therof, the which ye have graunted by youre Letters Patentes or otherwyſe, ſith the firſt day of youre reigne. And all the Honours, Caſtels, Lordſhippes, Townes, Towneſhippes, Maners, Londes, Tenementez, Waſtes, Rentes, Reverſions, Fees, Fee fermes and Services, with all theire appurtenauncez, the which were of the Duchie of Lancaſtre, and paſſed from you by youre graunte or grauntes: And ye to have, holde and reteigne all the premiſſes, in and of like aſtate as ye hadde theym at the tyme of ſuch grauntes made by you of theym. And yat all Letters Patentez or Grauntes, by you or by any other perſone or perſones at youre requeſt or deſire, made to any perſone or perſones, of the premiſſes, or of any of theym, in that that is of any of the premiſſes, be voide and of noo force. And over that, all maner of grauntes of rentz charges or annuitees, made by you of eſtate of enheritaunce, for terme of lif, or terme of yeris, or at wille, to any perſone or perſones, to be taken of any of theſe premiſſes, or of any oyer of your poſſeſſions, or of youre Cuſtumes or Subſidies, or Awnage, or of youre Hanipere, or at or yn youre Reſceite, or in otherwyſe, or in any other place, or in any of theym, or of the profites comyng of theym, or any of theym, withynne this youre Roialme, Irlonde, Wales, Guyſnes, Caleys, and the Marches of the ſame, be voide and of non effecte. And that all maner of grauntes, made by you to any perſone or perſones, of eſtate of enheritaunce, terme of lif, or terme of yeres, or at wille, of eny Herbage or Pawnage, Fiſhyng, Paſture, or comyn of Paſture, Wareyn, Wode, Wyne, Clothyng, Furres, to noon office longyng nor perteynyng, ſith the ſaid firſt day of youre reigne nor afore, not yeldyng to you the verrey value therof, nor doyng noo charge to you therfore, to the value therof, be voide and of noon effecte. And that all Letters Patentes by you made, in or of any of the premiſſes, to any perſone, of the which any recoverer hath been hadde ayenſt the ſeid Patentes, or any other by covyn or collution; that aſwell the recoverer therof, as the Letters Patentes, be voide and of non effecte.

And over that, like it youre Highneſſe to take, reſume, ſeiſe and reteigne in youre ſaid handes and poſſeſſion, all maner Libertees, Privileges, Fraunchiſes, Hundredes, Wapentakes, Letes, Rapes, Viewe of Frankeplege, Sheref Tournes, Sheref Gildes, Fynes, Amerciamentes, Iſſues and profites of the ſame, by you graunted ſith the ſeid firſt day of youre reigne, to eny perſone or perſones, Abbot, Priour, Deane, Chapitre, Maiſtre or Wardeyn of Collage, Fraternite, Crafte or Gilde, and all maner ſuch grauntes to be voide and of noon effecte: Except ſuch Libertees, Privileges, Fraunchiſes, Hundredes, Wapentakes, Letes, Rapes, Vewe of Frankplege, Sheref Tournes, Sheref Gildes, Fynes, Amerciamentes, Iſſues and profites of the ſame, and all other Libertees, Privileges, Fraunchiſes and Immunitees, as ye have graunted to the Provoſtes and Scolers of youre Collages Roiall of oure Lady and Seint Nicholas of Cambrigge, or to youre Provoſte and Collage Roiall of oure Lady of Eton, and to theire ſucceſſours. And for aſmoch as it is thought to us, youre humble and liege people of this youre noble Roialme, comen to this youre high Courte of Parlement, by youre auctorite Roiall, that certein diverſe Libertees, Privileges, Fredoms, Fraunchiſes and Immunitees, by you to the Provoſtes, Scolers, Soit baille as Seigneurs.

To the Kyng our Soverain Lord.

PRAYEN the Commons; that where in your Parlement laſt holden at Weſtm', the Comunalte of this your Roialme in the ſame Parlement aſſembled, accuſed and empeched William de la Pole thenne Duke of Suff', aſwell of divers grete, heynous and deteſtable Treaſons, as of many other fauxtees, deceites and other untrue meſpriſions, by him doon and comytted: Unto whiche accuſementes and empechementes he beyng put to anſwere therto, yave non anſwere ſufficient after the Lawes of this youre Lande, as in the Actes and proceſſe hadde upon the ſaid accuſement and empechement, the tenour wherof herto is annexed *, more pleynly it appereth; by cauſe wherof, Jugement of Atteyndre of the ſeid Treaſons ought to have ben yeven ayenſt him, and he convict of the ſeid Meſpriſions after the cours of youre ſeid Lawes; and foraſmoche as ſuche Jugement ayenſt him than was nought hadde, as Juſtice after his merites required. Pleaſe hit youre Highneſſe to graunte, ordeyne and eſtabliſh, by the Avyſe and Aſſent of the Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx in this preſent Parlement aſſembled, that by Auctorite of this ſame Parlement, the ſeid William de la Pole be adjuged, demed, declared, publiſhed and reputed, as Traytour to you, ayenſt youre Regalie, Dignitie, and youre Corones of youre Roialmes of England and of Fraunce, culpable and defectif of alle the ſeid Treſons, fauxtees, untrue coloured deceytes and meſpriſions, and that his Blode be corupt, and his iſſue and other perſones be unabled and forjuged to be heires to him of blode, to enherite eny Londes, Tenementes, Rentes, Services, or eny other manere enheritaunces or poſſeſſions of Fee Symple as heires to him; and that non iſſue of him lyneally comyng, have, enjoye, opteine nor enherite, the Name or Eſtate of Duke, Marquys or Erle, nor eny place or preeminence to eny ſuche Eſtate longing. And that alle the Manoirs, Londes, Tenementes, and alle other enheritances and poſſeſſions, of whiche the ſaid William de la Pole, or eny other perſone or perſones was or were ſeiſed of Eſtate of Fee Simple to the uſe of the ſeid William, in the Feſte of Saint Hillary the Biſhop, the xxv^th^ yere of your Regne or eny tyme ſytthe, and alle eſtates, right or title, of eny remaindre or reverſion of Fee Symple of eny Manoirs, Londes, Tenementes or other enheritaunces, beyng in eny perſon or perſones to the uſe of the ſame William or of his Heires, in the ſame Feſte or eny tyme ſytthe, be forfette unto you for evere. Provided alweyes, that no Lordſhipps, Seignuries, Manoirs, Londes, Tenementes, Rentes, Reverſions, Services, or eny other enheritances, profites, thinges or poſſeſſions, wherin the ſeid William de la Pole hadde eny eſtate ſoull, or joynt with eny other perſone or perſones, nought to his owne uſe, but to the profite and behoef of eny other perſone or perſones, in the ſeid Feſte of Saint Hillary, or eny tyme ſyth, be nought forfeite nor ſeiſed into youre handes in eny wyſe by reaſon of this Act, but forpriſed and except oute of the ſame. And that the Title, right or intereſſe of alle your Lieges, other than the Iſſue of the ſame William, and ſuche perſones as ſhulde clayme enheritaunce by him, or eſtate in eny of the premiſſes, to the uſe, profite and behoef of him or of his Iſſue, be ſaved to theym in alle the ſeid Manoirs, Londes, Tenementz, and alle other premiſſes. And that alle the godes and catelx whiche were ſumtyme to the ſeid William de la Pole in the feſte of Seint Leonarde, the xxviii yere of youre Regne, or eny tyme ſytthe, or thenne or eny tyme ſytthe beyng in the handes of eny perſone to his uſe or behoef, or to the uſe and behoef of his Executours or Adminiſtratours, or to execute his Wille, or to his profite in eny wyſe, be forfeite to you, to ben applied for the defenſe of this youre Royalme.

A. D. 1451. 29 Hen. VI.

Provided alweyes, that no perſone to whom eny Godes or Catelx that were ſumtyme to the ſeid William, or ſumes of money have been delyvered or paied in the ſeid feſte of Seint Leonard, or eny tyme ſytthe, for contentyng of eny duety to eny ſuch perſone due or perteynyng, withouten fraude or colour; nor noo perſone whiche in the ſame feſte or ſytthe, bifore the firſt day of this youre Parlement, hath truly bought eny godes that were to the ſeid William, withouten deceyte, colour or male engyne, be prejudiced nor hurte be this Acte, nor compelled to make deliverance, reſtitution or paiement therof ageyn in eny wyſe. And that by this Acte no damage ne prejudice growe or be to the Univerſitee of Oxenford, of eny gode or money yeven to the profite of the ſame Univerſite.

Youre grete Wyſdome, rightwiſneſſe, and high diſcretion conſidering, that the ſeid William de la Pole hath nought only don and comytted the forſeid Treaſons and miſchevous dedes, but was the cauſe and laborer of the arreſt, empriſonyng and fynall deſtruction, of the moſt noble vaillant true Prince, youre right Obeiſſant Uncle the Duke of Glouceſtre, whom God pardon, and of the abreggyng of the dayes of other Princes of youre blode, and eſtraunged from youre good grace, favour and conceyte, full grete Lordes to you right nygh, and was morcovere the moſt damageous Counſeillour and unprofitable perſone to youre high Eſtate and youre ſeid Reaumes, that can be remembred of in dayes paſſed.

16. ITEM, quedam alia Petitio exhibita fuit prefato Domino Regi, in preſenti Parliamento, per Edmundum Ducem Somerſ', in hec verba:

TO the Kyng our Soveraine Lorde; Beſechith in lowely wyſe, your humble Subget and Liegeman Edmunde Duc of Somerſ', Captaine of youre Towne and Caſtell of Cales. That where there is due unto hym, and othir Capitaines Lieuetenaunts in youre Marches of Cales, for the wages and rewardes of theymſelf, their Lieuetenaũntes, Souldeours and Artificers, entendyng uppon ſaufgarde and ſure keping of your ſaid Toune, Caſtell and Marches, for the tyme that the ſeid Duc hath be Capteine there, unto the VI^te day of Junii, the XXXI^te yere of youre moſt noble regne, the ſomme of XXI M. DCXLVIII li. X ſ. or there aboute. Hyt pleaſe your Highneſſe, for contentyng of the ſaid duete, to graunte, ordeine and eſtabliſhe, by th'aviſe of the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and of the Communes in this youre preſent Parlament aſſemblede, and by auctorite of the ſame Parlament, that aftir ſuche tyme as Humfray Duc of Bukingham, late Captaine of youre ſaid Towne, Caſtell of Cales, and of the Toure of Ruyſbanke, ſhall be duely paied and content of al ſommes of money deue unto hym, for the arrerages of the wages and rewardes of hym, his Lieuetenaunts and Souldiours, late entendyng uppon the ſaufgarde of youre ſaid Towne, Caſtell and Tour, for the tyme that he hath be Capteine there, aftir the fourme of an Acte late made for the ſame Duc of Buking', for his ſurete of ſuch paiement; thenne the Theſ' of Caleſ' for the tyme beyng, ſhall receyve aſwell al manere Cuſtumes, as al manere Subſidies, for the tyme commyng or growing of al maner Goods and Marchandiſes, which ſhall cõme into the Porte of Sandewich, and in othir places to the ſame Port belonging, and there to be put on lande; or to paſſe out of the ſame by wey of Marchandiſe over the ſee, aftir the time of ſuch contenting and paiement had to the ſaid Duc of Bukingam, by the fourme and auctorite of the ſaid Act for him made; and al ſommes of money commyng of the ſame Cuſtumes and Subſidies, and alſo al manere Cuſtumes, and al manere Subſidies, in this preſent Parlement graunted, or afore, cõmyng or growyng, aftir the tyme of the ſaid contentyng of the ſaid Duc of Bukyng', of al manere Wolles, Wolfell, Hides, Tynne, and othir Marchandiſes of the Staple, that withynne the ſame Port and Places aftir that tyme ſhal be ſhipped, and al ſommes of money commyng of ſuch Cuſtumes and Subſidies, by the handes of the Collectours and Cuſtumers of the ſaid Cuſtumes and Subſidies in the ſaid Port and Places for the tyme beyng, and VI ſ. VIII d. in money or obligations, cõmyng and growyng of the Subſidies of every ſacc' Woll, and of every CCXL Wollfell, in every othir Port of this your Reaume, or in eny of thaim, after the plaine contentyng of the ſaid Duc of Buking' of his ſaid dewete, by fourme and auctorite of the ſaid Act for hym made, by the handes of the Collectours of ſuche Subſidies in eny othir ſuche Porte or Portis for the tyme being, by Endentours ſeverally to be made betwene the ſaid Treſorier of Cales, and the ſame Collectours of the ſaid Subſidies in the ſaid othir Portes for the tyme beyng, unto the tyme that to the ſaid Theſ' full paiement and contenting be had, of aſmoche as ſhal be founde due of the ſaid ſomme of XXI M. DCXLVIII li. X ſ. Alſo that the ſaid Duc of Somerſet and his Executours, as ſoone as the ſaid Duc of Bukingam is contented of his ſaid duete, aftir the fourme of the ſaid Act for hym made, ſhall name at thair willes from tyme to tyme, and aſſigne to the Theſ' of Englond for the tyme being, a perſone aſwell to be oon of the Cuſtumers, as oon of the Collectours of the ſaid Cuſtumes and Subſidies in the ſaid Port of Sandewich, aſwell of the petite Cuſtumes, as of the grete Cuſtumes and Subſidies to be leveed in the ſaid Porte, of al manere Woll, Wollfell, Tynne, Hydes, and al othir Marchaundiſes, unto the tyme that the ſaid Treſorer of Cales for the tyme being, be fully paied and contented of the ſommes of money and dewtees, longing to the ſaid Duc of Somerſet, and to othir Captains, Lieutenaunts, Souldiours, Artificers, and al othir entending uppon the ſaufgarde of the ſaid Towne and Caſtell of Cales, and of the Marches there, for there wages and rewardes unto the VI day of Junii aboveſaid. And that the ſaid Treſorer of Englond for the tyme beyng, upon ſuch nominations and aſſignement, ſhall make ſufficient Warants, to be directed to the Chaunceler of England for the tyme being, for

A. D. 1453. 31 Hen. VI.

Letters Patentes undre your grete Seale to be made in due fourme, to ſuche perſonne or perſonnes ſo to be named, with othir, to be Collectours of al manere Cuſtumes and Subſidies, of al Wolles, Wolfells, Hydes, Tynne, and othir Merchaundiſes of the Staple, and al othir manere Marchaundiſes in the ſame Port and Places thereto belongyng, commyng or growyng. And that the ſame perſonne for the tyme named to be oon of the ſaid Collectours in the ſame Port of Sandwich, aftir ſuch Letters Patentes to hym directed, have and take from tyme to tyme, to the uſe and profitte of the ſaid Theſ' of Cales for the tyme beyng, all ſommes of money comyng or growyng in the ſame Porte of the ſaid Cuſtumes and Subſidies; and the ſame ſommes and every parte of thayme, paie and delivere to the ſaid Theſ', by Endentures betwene theym therof to be made. And that the ſaid Treſorer of Cales paie and delivere forthwith, the ſame ſommes of money ſo by hym reſceyved, aſwell to the ſaid Duc of Somerſet or his Executours, as to all othir Captains, Lieuetenaunts, Souldiours and Artificers, dwellyng uppon the ſaufgard of your ſaid Towne, Caſtell and Marches, by lyke Endentures betwene theim therof to be made, and everych ſuch Collectour in the ſame Port, by the ſame Duc or his Executours to be named, unto the tyme that full paiement and contentyng be had to the ſaid Theſ' of Caleſ', of aſmoche as ſhal be founde due of the ſaid ſomme of XXI M. DCXLVIII li. X s., for the wages and rewardes aforeſaid. Alſo that every ſuch Cuſtumer or Collectour, by the ſaid Duc of Somerſet ſo to be named in the ſaid Porte of Sandwich, uppon his accompt in your Eſchequier of al ſuch paiements by hym made to the ſaid Treſorer of Cales, by Endentures in fourme aforeſaid, have due allouance, and therof in your Eſchequier be fully quyte and diſcharged. And that the Collectours of the ſaid Subſidies, of every ſacke Woll, and of every CCXL Wolfell to be ſhipped in eny othir Port of this youre Reaume, out of the ſaid Porte of Sandewych, have plaine diſcharge uppon theire accomptes in your ſaid Eſchequier, of VI s. VIII d. of every ſacc' Woll, and of every CCXL Wolfells comyng of the ſame Subſidies, ſo to be paied by thayme to the ſaid Theſ' of Cales for the tyme beyng, by Endentures therof to be made betwen theym, unto the tyme that full paiement and contenting be had, of aſmoche as ſhal be founde due of the ſaid ſomme of XXI M. DCXLVIII li. X s.; and that the ſame Collectours, of the paiement of the ſaid VI s. VIII d. commyng of ſuch Subſidies, have noon allouaunce in eny wyſe but by ſuch Endentures. And over that, if eny of the ſaid Collectours or Cuſtumers, make eny paiement in contrarie of this your Graunte, thenne it ſhal be liefull to the ſaid Treſorer of Cales or his Executours, to take theire ſuete ayenſt the ſame Collectour or Cuſtumer, and therby to recouvere of hym or his Executours, the double of the ſomme or ſommes ſo paied by hym contrary to this your ſaid Graunte: alſo in lyke wyſe, if the ſeid Treſorer of Cales for the tyme being, make not deliveraunce and diſtribution of al ſuch ſommes of money or obligations, as he ſhall receyve of the ſaid Cuſtumers and Collectours, aſwell to the uſe and profitte of the ſaid Duc of Somerſet or his Executours, as to othir Captaines, Lieuetenaunts, Souldiers and Artificers, dwellyng uppon the ſaufgard of your ſaid Towne, Caſtell and Marches, aftir the fourme afore reherſed; that then it ſhall be liefull to the ſame Duc or his Executours, to take theire ſuytes ayenſt the ſeid Theſ' or his Executours, and therby to recovere of theym the double of the ſommes ſo paied by thayme, contrarie to your ſaid Graunte. And that the Chaunceler of England for the tyme being, may, by th'aſſent and auctorite aforſaid, do make under your grete Seel from tyme to tyme to the ſaid Theſ' of Cales for the tyme being, ſuch and as mony Letters Patentes for th'execution of this Act, as ſhall be thought to the ſame Treſorer neceſſarie and behovefull, without eny fee or fyne therfor to be paied in eny wyſe, to your uſe or profitte. A. D. 1453. 31 Hen. VI.

Provided alway, that by this Act noo prejudice be doon unto the ſaid Duc of Bukingam or his Executours, for the ſaid Act for hym made; nor to eny t'yng of olde tyme accuſtumed in the daies of youre noble Progenitours, nor eny Graunte made by eny of theym, of eny Commodites or Revenues in the ſaid port of Sandwich: and that ye and your heires, for evere be diſcharged of all ſuche ſommes of money as ſhal be duely founde to growe in the Porte of Sandewich, by the bokes of the Collectours and Cuſtumers there, duryng the tyme that ſuche perſonne or perſonnes ſo named by the Duc of Somerſet or his Executours, ſhal be oon of the Cuſtumers in the ſaid Porte, overe the ſaid Commoditees, Revenues, and othir thyngs uſed and graunted to be taken there in tymes of your noble Progenitours.

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

Declaratio facta ex parte Ducis Eborum contra deliberationem predicti Prelocutor.'

26. ITEM, the Friday the xv day of Feverer, it was opened and declared to the Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx beyng in the Parlement Chambre, by the Counſaill of the Duke of York. That where Thomas Thorp, the Monday the . . . day of the moneth of . . . . . the yere of the reigne of Kyng Harry the Sexte XXXI, came to the place of the Biſhop of Durham, and then and there toke and bare away certeyn godes and Cateles of the ſeid Dukes, agayn his will and licence; and theruppon the ſame Duk, camed and toke an action by Bille in Michell terme laſt paſt agayn the ſeid Thomas, in the Court of th'Eſchequer, accordyng to the Privilegge of the ſame Court, for ſomuche that the ſame Thomas was oon of the Court, by which Privelegge he ought to be enpleted in that Court of th'Eſchequer in ſuche caſes, and in noon other Court, to the which Bille the ſeid Thomas wilfully appered, and had diverſe daies to emparle atte his requeſte and deſire, and to the ſaid Bille and Action aunſwered and pleted not gylty: Whereuppon ther was awarded in the ſeid Eſchequer, a Venire fac' to the Shirreve of Midd', retornable in the ſeid Eſchequer, and there by the Jurre that paſſed betwene the ſaid Duke and the ſaid Thomas, it was founde that the ſame Thomas was gylty of the treſpas conteigned in the ſeid Bille. And the ſame Jurr' aſſeſſed the dampmages to the ſaid Duke for the ſeid treſpas to a M li., and for his coſtes x li., and therupon juggement was yeven in the ſeid Eſchequer, and the ſaid Thomas accordyng to the cours of the lawe was committe to the Flete, for the fyne belongyng to the Kyng in that behalve. And therupon it was praied humbly of the behalve of the ſeid Duke, that it ſhuld like theire goode Lordſhips, conſideryng that the ſaid treſpas was doon and committe by the ſaid Thomas ſith the begynnyng of this preſent Parlement, and alſo the ſaid Bille and Action were take and camed, and by proceſſe of lawe juggement theruppon yeven agayn the ſaid Thomas, in tyme of vacation of the ſame Parlement, and not in Parlement tyme; and alſo that if the ſaid Thomas ſhuld be releſſed by Privelegge of Parlement, or the tyme that the ſeid Duke be ſatisfied of his ſaid dampmages and coſtes, the ſame Duke ſhuld be withoute remedie in that behalve; that the ſeid Thomas, accordyng to the lawe, be kepte in warde to the tyme that he have fully content and ſatisfied the ſaid Duke of his ſaid dampmages and coſtes: The ſeid Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx, not entendyng to empeche or hurt the Libertees and Privelegges of theym that were comen for the Commune of this lande to this preſent Parlement, but egally after the cours of lawe to mynyſtre juſtice, and to have knowlegge what the lawe will wey in that behalve, opened and declared to the Juſtices the premiſſez, and axed of theym whether the ſeid Thomas ought to be delivered from priſon, by force and vertue of the Privelegge of Parlement or noo. To the which queſtion, the chefe Juſticez in the name of all the Juſticez, after ſadde communication and mature deliberation hadde amonge theim, aunſwered and ſaid; that they ought not to aunſwere to that queſtion, for it hath not be uſed afore tyme, that the Juſticez ſhuld in eny wyſe determine the Privelegge of this high Court of Parlement; for it is ſo high and ſo mighty in his nature, that it may make lawe, and that that is lawe it may make noo lawe; and the determination and knowlegge of that Privelegge belongeth to the Lordes of the Parlement, and not to the Juſtices. But as for declaration of procedyng in the lawer Courtes, in ſuche caſes as writtes of Superſedeas of Privelegge of Parlement be brought and delivered, the ſaid chief Juſtice ſaid; 27.

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

said; that ther be many and diverse Superſedeas of Privelegge of Parlement brought in to the Courtes, but ther ys no generall Superſedeas brought to ſurceſſe of all proceſſes; for if ther ſhuld be, it ſhuld ſeeme that this high Court of Parlement, that miniſtreth all Juſtice and equitee, ſhuld lette the proceſſe of the commune lawe, and ſo it ſhuld put the partie compleynaunt withoute remedie, for ſo muche as actions atte commune lawe be not determined in this high Court of Parlement; and if any perſone that is a membre of this high Court of Parlement be areſted in ſuche caſes as be not for treaſon or felony, or ſuerte of the peas, or for a condempnation hadde before the Parlement, it is uſed that all ſuch perſones ſhuld be releſſed of ſuch arreſtes and make an Attourney, ſo that they may have theire fredom and libertee, frely to entende upon the Parle-
28. ment. After which aunſwere and declaration, it was thorowly agreed, aſſentid and concluded by the Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx, that the ſeid Thomas, accordyng to the lawe, ſhuld remayne ſtille in priſon for the cauſes abovesaid, the Privelegge of the Parlement, or that that the ſame Thomas was Speker of the Parlement, notwithſtondyng; and that the premiſſes ſhuld be opened and declared to theym that were comen for the Commune of this land, and that they ſhuld be charged and commaunded in the Kynges name, that they with all goodly haſt and ſpede, procede to th'election of an other Speker. The which premiſſes, for aſmoche as they were materes in lawe, by the commaundement of the Lordes were opened and declared to the Commons, by the mouthe of Walter Moyle, oon of the Kynges Sergeauntz atte lawe, in the preſence of the Biſhop of Ely, accompanyed with other Lordes in notable nombre; and ther it was commaunded and charged to the ſaid Commons, by the ſeid Biſhop of Ely in the Kynges name, that they ſhuld procede to th'election of an other Speker with all goodly haſt and ſpede, ſo that the materes for the which the Kyng called this his Parlement might be proceded yn, and this Parlement take goode and effectuell concluſion and ende.

MEMORAND', that on Tueſday the XIX day of Marche, the Communes were before the Duke of York, the Kynges Lyeutenaunt in this preſent Parlement, and the Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx, in the Parlement Chambre, and there it was opened and declared by theire Speker, that howe uppon Wenneſday then laſt paſt, it was ſhewed unto theym by the mouth of the Chaunceler of Englond, the grete juparte and perill that Caleſ' and the Marches there ſtode inne, and alſo the grete neceſſite of purveaunce for the defence and ſaufgard of the ſee, the which kan not be doo withoute XL M. li. or more, praiyng and humbly beſekyng the ſeid Lieutenaunt and Lordes, to call to theire good retentyve and wyſe remembraunce, the grauntes that were made by theym to the Kyng at Redyng, in the begynnyng of this preſent Parlement, the whiche been as grete as they kan calle to remembraunce to have be made to the Kyng by his Communes, or to eny of his full noble Progenitours, the whiche grauntes wull ſuffice as they truſt to the defence of Caleſ' and kepyng of the ſee, and that the ſeid grauntes may be emploide to th'entent and effect that they were graunted fore; praiyng alſo the ſeid Lieutenaunt and Lordes, to have theym excuſed of eny ferther grauntes to be made by theym at this tyme, for they kan not, may not, ne dar not make eny moo grauntes, conſidered the grete povert and penurie that be among the Communes of this land, for whom they be comen at this tyme, and that this theire excuſe myght be enacted in this high Courte of Parlement. And alſo where in the begynnyng of this preſent Parlement at Redyng, it was opened and ſhewed by the mouth of the ſeid Chaunceler of Englond, that ther ſhuld be ordeigned and eſtabliſhed, a ſadde and a wyſe Counſaill of the right diſcrete and wiſe Lordes and othir of this land, to whom all people myght have recours for myniſtryng of juſtice, equite and rightweſneſſe, wherof they have noo knoweleche as yit, and deſired the Lordes that therof they mowe have notice and knowelege, for the grete joy and comfort of all theym that they be come fore. And alſo that it ſhuld lyke the ſeid Lieutenaunt and Lordes, to have ſpecially and tenderly recommended the peas of this land, accordyng to theire requeſt made before tyme, the whiche ſhuld be right joyous and comfortable to theym, and to all the Commune of this land, for whom they be come at this tyme. And therto it was aunſwered be my Lord Cardinal Chaunceler of Englond, that they ſhuld have good and comfortable aunſwere, without eny grete delay or tariyng.

Certi Domini aſſignati fuerunt ad colloquend' cum Rege ſuper certis articulis.

31. MEMORAND', that the XXIII day of Marche, foraſmoche as God hath called to his mercy, and ſhewed his wille upon Maiſter John Kempe, late Cardinall Archebiſhop of Caunterbury and Chaunceler of Englond, whoos ſoule God aſſoile, and by whoos deth th'office of Chaunceler of Englond ſtondith nowe voide; the whiche office, of force and neceſſite for the eaſe of the people and proceſſe of the lawe muſt be occupied; it was adviſed, ordeigned, aſſented and thoroughly agreed by the Duke of York, the Kynges Lieutenaunt in this preſent Parlement, and all the Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx aſſembled in the Parlement Chambre at Weſtm', that certain Lordes, that is to ſeie, the Biſhoppes of Wyncheſtre, Ely and Cheſtr'; the Erles of Warr', Oxon' and Shroueſbury; the Viſcountes Beaumond and Bourghchier; the Priour of Saint John's; the Lordes Fauconbergge, Dudley and Stourton, ſhulde ride to Wyndeſore to the Kynges high preſence, to ſhewe and declare to his Highneſſe the ſeid materes, and othir certain matiers the whiche of neceſſite muſt be ordeigned and purveied fore, as in the inſtruction theruppon made plainly apperith, wherof the tenour ſueth in this forme:

Inſtruction yeven by the Duk of York, the Kynges Lieutenaunt of his Parlement, and othir Lordes Spirituell and Temporell of the ſaid Parlement, to the right reverent Fadres in God the Biſhops of Wyncheſtr', Ely and Cheſtr'; th'Erles of Warrewyk, Oxenford and Shroveſbury; the Vicountes Beaumont and Bourghchier; the Lordes Priour of Seint John's, Faucomberge, Duddeley, and Stourton jointely: The whiche Credence they ſhall opene, if they fynde the Kynges diſpoſition ſuche, that he ſhall mowe and will attende to the heryng and underſtondyng therof, and ellys they ſhall opene but oonly the furſt and ſecond Articles.

Furſt,

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

FURST, they ſhall recommaunde the ſeid Lieutenaunt and Lordes, as humbely and mekely as they can to the Kynges gode grace, ſaying ther is noo erthely thing that they deſire more, or ſetteth nerre to here hertes, than to here of his welfare, and relief of his grete ſykeneſſe that hit hath liked God to viſite his Highneſſe with, accordyng to thaire faith, ligeance, trouth and love, that they owe and bere unto hym.

ITEM, they ſhall ſaye that the ſeid Lieutenaunt and Lordes, aftir theire power, and ſuch diſcretion as God hath endued theym with, beſieth theym, and entende daily to the ſpede of his Parlement, and to ſuche thynges as they thynke is to the weel of his Highneſſe, and of his Landez and Subgettez; and that his lawes may be obſerved and kept, and Juſtice miniſtred to every perſone, for rebukyng of myſgovernaunce; and wuld be as gladde and as joyfull as they coude be, if theire diligence myght avaunce and further the Kynges welfare and his Roiall eſtate, and the comune welle.

ITEM, ſith it is ſoo that hit hath pleſed God, the whiche diſpoſeth all thyng' as he will, to take out of this worlde and calle to his mercy, the moſt Reverent Fader in God late Cardinal and Archebiſhop of Caunterbury, his Chaunceler of this lande, by whoos deth the ſaid Archebiſhopryche is voide, and his Highneſſe remayneth diſpurveide of a Chaunceler: The ſeid Lieutenaunt and Lordes, thinke they muſt of her trouth and verray neceſſite lete the Kyng have knowelege therof, to th'entent that they may underſtonde howe they ſhall demeane and behave thayme, aſwell in providyng for the Churche of Caunterbury, as for the governaunce of his grete Seals. And as toward the ſeid proviſion of the Churche of Caunterbury, that it pleaſe his Highneſſe to open and declare his gracious entent, and what perſoone that is thought moſt expedient to his gode grace to be promoted therto; and in lyke wyſe in providyng for his Chaunceler of this lande; and they ſhall put theym in theire devoire by all the meanes that they canne, to have verray and clere knowelech of the Kynges entent in the matiers aboveſaid.

ITEM, they ſhall late his Highneſſe have in knoweleche, that as ſoone as the ſeid Lieutenaunt and Lordes underſtode that the ſeid moſt Reverend Fader was paſſed to God, they for the ſuerte of the ſeid Seels, and in eſchewyng all inconveniences, made theym in the preſence of diverſe notable Lordes, to be brought afore all the Lordes of his Parlement, and there to be opened and ſhewed, and aftir that to be cloſed in a Coofre, and to be ſealed with diverſe Lordes Seales, and be leide uppe in his Treſorie, where they remayn in his Treſorers and Chamberlayns kepyng.

ITEM, they ſhall remembre that it pleaſed the Kynges Highneſſe in this his Parlement at Redyng, to commaunde to be openned to the Communes of this Lande, his gracious entent to ordeigne and ſtablisſhe a diſcrete and a ſadde Counſaill, the whiche was to the ſeid Communes a grete rejoyſing and comfort, inſomoche that nowe late by the mouth of there Speker, among othir thynges at too tymes hath be made requeſtes to the ſeid Lieutenaunt and Lordes, that the ſeid Communes myght underſtonde and have knowelege, of effectuell procedyng to the ſtablisſhyng of the ſaid Counſaill, wherfor certaine Lordes and perſones be named under the Kynges correction, to take uppon theym the ſeid charge; and they ſhall mowe declare what perſones be ſoo named, and underſtande whethir the Kynges good grace be content with the ſeid perſones, or whethir he will chaunge or ſette aſyde eny of theym, to th'entent that his will may be obſerved and kept.

ITEM, foraſmoche as the matiers aboveſaid be of grete weight, and muſt be kept full ſecrete, they ſhall opene theym to noo perſone but onely unto the Kyng, and they ſhall uſe th'ordre of th'articles aboveſaid, as it ſhall be thought to theym behovefull and expedient. A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

Reſponſio Dominorum predictorum ſuper colloquio habito cum Rege.

32. MEMORAND', that the xxv day of Marche, the Biſhops of Wyncheſtr', Ely and Cheſtre; th'Erles of Warr', Oxon' and Shroueſbury; the Vicountes Beaumond and Bourghchier; the Priour of Seint John's; the Lordes Faukenbergge, Dudley and Stourton, opened and declared by the mouth of the Byſhop of Wyncheſtr', to the Duke of York, the Kynges Lieutenaunt in this preſent Parlement, and the othir Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx aſſembled in the Parlement Chambre, that they accordyng to that that was putte uppon theym upon Saturday the xxiii day of this preſent moneth of Marche, by th'advys of the Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx, that they ſhuld goo to Wyndeſore to the Kynges high preſence, and to open and declare to his Highneſſe, certain matiers conteigned in an inſtruction delivered to theim by the ſeid Lieutenaunt, and the ſeid Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx, were at the Kynges high preſence, and in the place where he dyned; and anoon aftir his dyner was doon, the ſeid matiers were opened and declared by the mouth of the Biſhop of Cheſtr', right connyngly, ſaddely and wurſhipfully, nothyng in ſubſtaunce chaunged from the ſeid inſtruction, added ne dyminiſhed, as the ſeid Biſhop of Cheſtre can more clerely declare to theire Lordſhips. And theruppon the ſeid Biſhop of Cheſtr' ſhewed and declared, howe that the openyng and declaryng of the ſeid matiers, by th'avis of the Lordes that were ſent to Wyndeſore, was put uppon hym, howe be it he thought hym ſelf right unable therto; and that he furſt opened and ſhewed to the Kynges Highneſſe the iii firſt Articles, as it was adviſed by the Lordes or they went; that is to ſey, the humble recommendation of the Lordes to the Kynges Highneſſe, the grete deſire of his hele, and the grete diligence of the Lordes in this Parlement. And then for aſmoche as it liked not the Kynges Highneſſe to yeve eny anſwere to the Articles, the ſeid Biſhop of Cheſtre, by th'advis of all the othir Lordes, declared and opened to the Kynges Highneſſe, the othir matiers conteigned in the ſeid inſtruction; to the whiche maters ne to eny of theim they cowede gete noo anſwere ne ſigne, for no prayer ne deſire, lamentable chere ne exhortation, ne eny thyng that they or eny of theim cowede do or ſey, to theire grete ſorowe and diſcomfort. And then the Biſhop of Wyncheſtr' ſeid to the Kynges Highneſſe, that the Lordes had not dyned, but they ſhuld goo dyne theym, and wayte uppon his Highneſſe ayen aftir dyner. And ſo aftir dyner they come to the Kynges Highneſſe in the ſame place where they were before; and there they moeved and ſturred hym, by all the waies and meanes that they cowede thynke, to have anſwere of the matiers aforſeid, but they cowede have noon; and from that place they willed the Kynges Highneſſe to goo into an othir Chambre, and ſo he was ledde betwene ii men into the Chambre where he lieth; and there the Lordes moeved and ſturred the Kynges Highneſſe the thirde tyme, by all the means and weyes that they coude thynk, to have aunſwere of the ſeid matiers, and alſo deſired to have knoweleche of hym, if it ſhuld like his Highneſſe that they ſhulde wayte uppon hym eny lenger, and to have aunſwere at his leiſer, but they cowede have no aunſwere, worde ne ſigne; and therfor with ſorowefull hartes come theire way. And the ſeid Biſhops of Wyncheſtre, Ely and Cheſtr'; th'Erles of Warr', Oxon' and Shroueſbury; the Vicountes Beaumond and Bourghchier; the Priour of Saint John's; the

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI. the Lordes Faukenbergge, Dudley and Stourton, and everyche of theym, praied that the ſeid Inſtruction, and this theire reporte, myght be enacted in this high Court of Parlement of record.

Proteſtatio Ricardi Ducis Eborum. (m. 18)

33. ITEM, pro eo quod Viceſimo ſeptimo die Martii, Domini Spirituales & Temporales in preſenti Parliamento congregati, certis de cauſis ipſos moventibus, elegerunt & nominarunt Ricardum Ducem Eborum fore Protectorem & Defenſorem Regni Anglie, quamdiu Regi placeret; idem Dux in Craſtino detulit quandam Cedulam in papiro, certos Articulos continentem, quos in Rotulo ejuſdem Parliamenti inactitari affectabat, quorum tenores cum ſuis reſponſionibus hic ſequntur:

34. HOWE be it that y'am not ſufficiant of my ſelf, of wyſdome, connyng nor habilite, to take uppon me that wurthy name of Protectour and Defenſour of this land, ner the charge therto apperteinyng, wherunto hit hath liked you my Lordes to calle, name and deſire me, unwurthy therunto, under proteſtation if y ſhall applie me to the parfourmyng of your ſaid deſire, and at your inſtance take uppon me with your ſupportation the ſeid name and charge; I deſire and pray you, that in this preſent Parlement, and by auctorite therof, hit be enacted, that of your ſelfe and of your free and mere diſpoſition, ye deſire, name and calle me, to the ſeid name and charge, and that of eny preſumption of my ſelf, I take yaym not uppon me, but onely of the due and humble obeiſſaunce that I owe to doo unto the Kyng, our moſt dradde and Souveraine Lord, and to you the Perage of this lande, in whom by th'occaſion of th'enfirmite of our ſaid Souveraine Lord reſtethe th'exercice of his auctoritee, whoos noble commaundementes y am as redy to parfourme and obey, as eny his Liege man olyve: and that at ſuche tyme as it ſhall pleaſe our bleſſed Creatour, to reſtore his moſt noble perſone to helthfull diſpoſition, hit ſhall lyke you ſo to declare and notifie to his good grace.

Reſponſio. As to this Article, it is thought by the Lordes, that the ſeid Duke deſireth that of his grete wyſdome for his diſcharge. And it is thought alſo by all the Lordes, that for theire diſcharge in this behalfe, there ſhuld be ſuche an Acte made in this Parlement for hem, accordyng to an Acte made in the tendre age of the Kyng our Soveraine Lord, that they in ſemblable caſe of neceſſite, be compelled and coarted ſo to choſe and name a Protectour and Defendour.

35. ALSO that it ſhall lyke you lovyngly, diligently, duely and effectuelly, to aſſiſte me of your harty favours, tendre zele and ſad adviſes, to th'execution and expedition of that that may be to the honour, proſperite and welfare, of th'eſtate and dignite of our ſaid Soveraine Lord, to the reſt and tranquillite of his people, and to the obſervation of his lawes; wherunto I ſhall employe my perſone with you, to the uttermuſt perrell or jupardy therof, whan ſo ever hit ſhall nede that ſo y ſhall doo.

Reſponſio. It is agreed, as for all due, lawefull and reſonable aſſiſtence within the lande, for the wele of the Kyng and of his ſaid land.

36. ALSO that ſuche auctorite and power, as it ſhall lyke you that y ſhall have for th'execution of the ſeid charge, and alſo the fredome and libertee that ſhall therunto belong, be to me declared, and that y mowe knowe howe ferre the ſaid power and auctorite, and alſo the fredame and libertee ſhall extende, duryng the tyme that it ſhall plaiſe our ſaid Soveraine Lord that y ſhall have hit; and that the ſame auctorite, power, fredame and libertee, be alſo in the ſeid Parlement, and by th'auctorite therof enacted, ratified and confermed. A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

Reſponſio. As to this Article, it is advyſed by the ſeid Lordes, that the ſeid Duke ſhall be chief of the Kynges Counſaill, and devyſed therfor to the ſeid Duke a name different from other Counſaillours, nought the name of Tutour, Lieutenaunt, Governour, nor of Regent, nor noo name that ſhall emporte auctorite of governaunce of the lande; but the ſeid name of Protectour and Defenſour, the whiche emporteth a perſonell duete of entendaunce to the actuell defence of this land, aſwell ayenſt th'enemyes outward, if caſe require, as ayenſt Rebelles inward, if eny happe to be, that God forbede, duryng the Kynges pleaſer, and ſo that it be not prejudice to my Lord Prince; and theruppon an Acte to be made by auctorite of this preſent Parlement.

37. ALSO that it be ordeigned, appointed and ſtablisſhed in the ſeid Parlement, and by auctorite therof, howe muche y ſhall take and reſceyve of our ſaid Soveraine Lord, to ſuſteyn, maynteyn and ſupporte, the ſeid name and charge, for the honour of hym and this his land, that muſt of neceſſite belonge to the ſame charge, for the pollitique and reſtfull rule of this ſaid londe, for the tyme that it ſhall pleaſe his Highneſſe that y ſhall accept and uſe the ſame name and charge; praiyng and deſiryng you, that thees my proteſtation and deſires mowe bee in the ſeid Parlement enacted.

Reſponſio. As to this Article, it was thought that precedentes were to be ſeyn; and alſo the ſeid Duke to be communed with, to wyte, what ſomme hit ſhall lyke hym to agree to, conſideryng the tyme that was in the daies of lyke precedentes, and the tyme that nowe is; and theruppon an Acte to be made by auctorite of the ſeid Parlement.

Alſo that ſuche Lordes Spirituel and Temporel, as be named and choſyn of the Kynges Counſaill, take uppon theym ſo to bee, and alſo accept and admit the charge therof, aſwell as at theire inſtance, exhortation and deſire, I thogh unhable take uppon me under theire ſupportation the ſeid name, and the charge therto belongyng.

Reſponſio. As to this Article, it was thought that the Lordes that be named to be of the Kynges Counſaill, ſhuld have communication togedre, and to be aviſed theruppon.

De Protectore. (m. 17.)

45. FOR asmoche as oon Robert Ponyngys, late of Suthwerk in our Counte of Surr' Esquyer, the whiche whiche was accompenyed and adherent to the moſt horrible, wykked and heynous Traytour and Tyraunt John Cade in tyme of his Inſurrection, and was Karver and Swerd Berer to the ſeid moſt heynous Traytour, at ſuche tyme as he didde his roberye and tyrannye in the Citee of London, and mony othir places, the whiche Robert . . . . . and ſtirred the grete parte of ſuche as were adherentes and accompenyed to the ſeid Traytour, to ryſe ayenſt our Highneſſe, our lawes and peaix; the whiche Robert yit at this day is perſeveryng, continuyng and habidyng in his ſeid wykked malicious diſpoſition and entent, laboryng daily as fer as in hym is, to all ſuch as will be meved and ſtered by him, to make aſſemblees and congregations of people to ryot ayenſt our Highneſſe, our lawes and peaix, havyng and holdyng daily in his feloweſhip ſuch perſones as ben endited of felonie and treaſon, and ſuche as none othir of our Liege people will have in ther ſervice; and ſith our generall pardon graunted to hym by us, the ſame Robert founde ſuerte unto us to kepe our peaix, and of his good beryng ayenſt us and our Liege people, as it apperith in our Chauncerie of Record, by reconyſaunce by hym and by othir made; the ſame Robert ſith that ſuerte founde, hath done monye riottes, for the which he hath late take the ſayntwarye and liberte of the Chirche of Weſtm' for his tuition; and ſith that, allſo gon out of the ſame ſayntwarye at mony dyvers tymes, and done mony grete and dyvers riottes and offenſes, and aftir reſortyng when he wuld, and departyng when he wolde, noght conſideryng nor peiſyng the grace to him graunted by us, nor the ſurete to us by him and othir founde to kepe our peaix, and of his good beryng, in the fourme as it is above reherſed. Nowe late the ſame Robert hath aſſemblet and aggregat unto him, mony perſones onknowen to us and of evyll diſpoſition in grete nombre, that is to ſey, the xv, xvi, and xvii day of the moneth of Marche, in the xxxii yere of our reigne, at North Cray and Fremyngham, in the Shire of Kent, and at othir places rode in riottes wyſe, and arraied in manere of warre, that is to ſey, with Jackes, Salettes, and with othir array of werre, ayens the fourme of our Statutes in ſuche cas provided. Wherfor we, by th'aſſent of our Lordes Spirituelx and Temporelx, and of the Commyns in this preſent Parlement aſſembled, and by auctorite of the ſame Parlement, ordeyne and eſtabliſh, that the ſeid Robert, and tho perſones that ben his ſuerte and bounden as it is above reherſed, and as it apperith of Record in our Chauncerie as it is ſeid above, forfaite to us and paye, the ſommes in the ſame Record and reconyſaunce in the ſeid Chauncerie conteyned, and leeve to be made therof by fieri facias, or in ſuche wyſe as it can be thought reaſon unto our Treſorer of Englond, and unto our Barons of our Eſcheker: and by the ſame auctorite wee wole and ordeyne, that a tranſcrite of this ſame Act, in all godely haſt be ſent and delyvered, unto our ſeid Treſorer, and unto our ſeid Barons, to th'entent that leeve may be made therof, as trouth and reſon will. The moyte of all that that is forfaited above conteyned in the ſeid reconyſaunce, to be emploide uppon the kepyng of the See. The moyte of that othir moyte unto our grete Wardrope; and that othir moyte of the ſame moyte, to our Stable.

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

aſwell Spirituell as Temporell, the which have be ſommoned and commaunded by your Writtes directed unto everyche of theim ſeverally, to have come and be at this your preſent Parlement, the whiche in no wyſe be come, nor have be at your ſeid Parlement at your Paleys of Weſtm', ſith the xiiii day of Feverer laſt paſſed unto this day, that is to ſey, the laſt day of Feverer the yere of your reigne xxxii^ti; but have abſented hem ſith the ſeid xiiii day of Feverer of commyng to the ſeid Parlement, wherto they have be called, ſommoned or warned; to ordeyne and eſtabliſh by auctorite of this preſent Parlement, that every of the ſeid Lordes ſo not comen, but beyng abſent, be charged to yeve and paie unto you and to your uſe, ſuch ſommes of money, and in ſuche manere as folowith. That is to ſey, every Archebiſhop, and every Duke, c li.; every Biſhop, and every Erle, c marcs; every Abbot, and every Baron, xl li.; to be leevede uppon ther Londes and godes whereſoever they be within this your Roialme; and that by all meanes and proceſſe to be made out of your Eſchequyer, ſuche as hath be accuſtumed to be had for the leeve of othir grauntes, made unto you in your Parlement.

Provided alwey, that the Biſhops of Bangour, Saint Aſſe, and Landaff, that be not come to this ſeid Parlement as above, be not charged but oonly eche of theim in xx li.

(m. 14.) Provided alſo, that ſuche Lordes that for febleneſſe or ſekeneſſe be not able to come, nor may come to the ſaid Parlement at this tyme, be forpriſid of this Acte; ſo that ſuche febleneſſe or ſekeneſſe be ſufficiently and duely proved, by juſte and indifferent examination, before the Lordes of the Kynges Counſeill, and by none othir triall to be therof hadde: and that it be ordeigned and eſtabliſhed by the ſeid auctorite, that everyche Lord as for ſuche febleneſſe or ſekeneſſe mowe not come as above, make ſuche fyne unto you, as ſhal be thought reaſonable by the diſcretion of the ſeid Lordes of your Counſeill, ſo alwey that the ſeid fyne excede not the ſomme in this Acte charged uppon the ſeid Lord for his abſence, as it is afore declared.

Provided alſo, that this Acte extende not to the Duke of Somerſ', nor to the Lord Cobham, beyng in pryſon; nor to the Lord Revers, the Lord Welles, ne the Lord Moleyns, beyng beyonde the ſee by the Kynges commaundement.

Provided alſo, that this Act extende not ne be prejudiciall to the Lordes Beauchamp and Saintamande, beyng abought the Kynges perſone in the tyme of his infirmitee.

Provided alſo, that this Acte atteigne not to eny hurt, prejudice, burdon or charge, of the ſeid Lordes ſo abſente, or eny of hem, ſavyng onely of paiement of the ſeid ſommes or fynes; and the ſeid ſommes to be appliede to the ſaufgarde of your Toun of Caleſ', your Caſtell of Guyſnes, and your Marches ther, and to none othir uſe; this preſent Acte to extende to ſuche Lordes oonly as be not come as above for this tyme, and no lenger.

Declaratio Comitis Devon'.

49. BE hit remembred, that where the XIIII day of Marche, the ſeid XXXII^e yere, in this preſent Parlement, Thomas Erle of Devonſhire, uppon an enditement of high treaſons by hym ſuppoſed to bee doon ayenſt the Kyngs honourable eſtat and perſone, afore Humfrey Duc of Buk', ſteward of Englond for that tyme aſſigned, was arraigned, and of the ſame treaſons, by his Peeres the noble Lordes of this Royaume of England being in this ſeid preſent Parlement, was acquited of all things conteigned in the ſeid enditement. By which enditement, the right high and mighty Prince Richard Duc of York, Lieutenant for the Kyng in the ſaid Parlement, conceyved the trouthe of his alliegeance to bee emblemyſhed and diſteigned; in the preſence of all the Lordes aſwell Spirituell as Temporell there being preſent, anoon forthwith declared hymſelf of his trouthe to the Kyng oure Soveraine Lord, in manere and fourme followyng:

Declaratio Ducis Eborum.

My Lordes, for ſomuch as the matere conteigned in the ſaid enditement, toucheth right nygh my worſhip, honeſtie

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

honeſtie and trouthe; I ſay that y^t yat ſo toucheth me is fals and untrewe, and that I am, all the dayes of my lyfe have been, and to th'ende therof ſhall be, trewe and humble Liegeman to the Kyng my mooſt drad Soverain Lord, and nevere prively ne apertly thought ne ment the contrary, wherof I call into witeneſſe God, and all the Seintys of Heven, and the ſame have been and am redy to prove, and as a Knyght to put my body in devoir ayenſt any perſone to whom it fitteth me to anſwere, that wol take uppon hym to leye any charge uppon me of the ſaid matere, or of any other that in any wyſe mowe ſounde to the blemyſshing of my trouthe to my ſaid Soveraine Lord; deſiryng, exhortyng and requiryng you ſo to take, repute, holde and accepte me, and that my declaration and offre herin ye woll enact tofore you of recorde in this preſent Parlement.

Poſt cujus quidem declarationem factam & auditam, prefati Domini tam Spirituales quam Temporales una voce dixerunt;

We knewe nevere, ner at any tyme cowde conceyve, but yat ye be and have been true and feithfull Liegeman to the Kyng oure Soverain Lord, as hit belongeth to youre aſtate to bee; and ſoo we knowe, take, accepte, repute, holde and declare yowe.

Quidam articuli exhibit' per Ducem Eborum. (m. 10.)

54. MEMORAND', quod Ricardus Dux Eborum exhibuit in preſenti Parliamento quoſdam Articulos, quos in eodem Parliamento conſiderari affectabat; quibus quidem Articulis lectis, auditis & intellectis, de aviſamento Dominorum Spiritualium & Temporalium tunc ibidem preſentium, reſponſum fuit eiſdem; quorum tenores cum eorum reſponſionibus, hic inferius annotantur in forma que ſequitur:

FOR ſomoche as by the Kyng our Soverain Lord, and by all the Lordes aſſembled at this preſent Parlement, I Richard Duc of York am deſired and exhorted, for to take upon me the charge and gouvernaunce of the Toun and Caſtell of Calais, and of the Marches of the ſame: I deſire under proteſtation, if I ſhuld therunto entende, to have the parfit and effectuel accomplisſhement of ſuch things as be conteened in th'articles hereafter enſeuyng.

I. FURST, that a notable ſome of monneye bee to me delivered before hande, for the witholding and contenting of ſuch Souldeours, as I ſhall committe to entende to the ſauve garde and kepyng of the ſaide Toun, Chaſtel and Marches, in partie of paiement of thaire wages; the ſaide ſomme to amonte unto the wages of a quarter of a yere for myſelf, and the ſaide Souldeours, after th'ordinarie charge in th'article next folowyng ſpecified.

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

As to this Article, the precedentes have been ſeen; and hit is agreed to the ordinarie charges in tyme of peax and treux. Reſponſio.

II. ITEM, that ſeure and agreable proviſion be made in this ſaide Parlement, and by th'auctoritee therof, for due and indelaied paiement yerely to be made, for the ordinarie charges required for the ſame ſauve gard and kepyng, and for the wages of me, and of the ſaide Souldeours, as long as I ſhall have and take upon me ſuch charge and gouvernance, aftir th'ordinarie charges therof uſed in the daies of that bleſſed Prince of moſt noble memoir the Kyng your Fader, whom God aſſoile, afore the beginnyng of his werres of France.

Hit can not be agreed for leſſe than a Quarter wages in hand, aftir the ſeid charge, over this the ſeid Duc of York is aſſented to take uppon hym the charge and governance of the ſeid Caſtell and Toune, and alſo of the Toure of Ruyſbanke if hit be in the Kynges hondes, for as mony yeres as ſuerte ſhal be founden by the Maire and Felisſhip of the Staple of Caleis, to ſhippe yerely Wolle and Wolfell to the ſame Staple; whereof the ſeid ordinarie charge ſhall be yerely to hym paide. Reſponſio.

III. ITEM, in caſe your Adverſarie of France, or eny othir your Ennemis, approche toward the ſaide Toun and Caſtel to leye therunto Siege, that ſad proviſion and ordonnance be made by th'auctorite abouveſaid, for a notable puiſſance of men to bee had and ſent over to the ſaid Toun and Caſtel of Caleis, under notable Capitaines, within a monneth next aftir notice therof comen to you or your Counſeill; to th'entent that they may breke and reſiſte the malice of the ſaid Adverſarie, in takyng of his ground, leyeng of his ordonnance and approchements to the ſaide Toun and Caſtel, unto the commyng thedir of the grete Reſcowes; and that the nombre of the ſaide puiſſance be either of IIII M. men over the nombre of the ſaide ordinarie charge, or of V M. men, the ſame nombre of ordinarie charge therin compriſed.

Hit can not be agreed to les nombre than IIII M. men over the ſaid charge. Reſponſio.

IV. ITEM, if than by the ſaide Adverſarie of France, or by the ſeid othir Ennemis, the ſaide Toun and Caſtel of Caleis, or eny Caſtel or Fortreſſe beyng in the Marches therof bee beſieged, notable pourveance be made for the Reſcows therof, to be redie ther for the ſame entent, within a monnethe the monnethe aboveſaid next folowyng. And that I of ſuch Reſcows be put in ſuertee, and have the promis of the Lordes of this lande made upon thaire feith and honneur, to put theim in diligent, effectuel and undelaid devoir, to that that mowe bee the good ſpede and preferrement of the ſaid Reſcows, and that theire promiſſes ſoo made, be enacted of record in this ſaid Parlement.

As to the Reſcows, all ſhall bee therto don that can be thought poſſible. Reſponſio.

V. ITEM, that ſubſtantiall proviſion be made in all haſt poſſible for the kepyng of the See; to th'entent that all your Navire bee redye togedirs, and of power for to aſſemble in ſuch place as is moſt couvenable for th'aſſemblyng of thaim, for to breke the puiſſance of the Navire of the ſeid Adverſarie, before thaire aſſemblyng, ſo that your Subgets may have fre paſſage to and fro the ſeid Toun and Caſtel of Caleis, for th'aide and Reſcows therof.

For

Responsio.

VI. ITEM, that the seid Toun and Castel of Calais, and all the Castels and Fortresses in the Marches therof, be in peisible and restfull wyse delivered withoutyn delaye, to suche persones as shall have of me power to resceive theim on my behalfe, and to kepe theim at fredame and liberte, and to use for me ther suche auctorite, as I shall and mowe of your high auctorite that shal be to me committed committe unto theim, for the sauve gard and kepyng of the same, withouten lette or disturbance of eny of your Subgets.

ITEM, that eny auctorite or power, to eny othir persone before made, for the kepyng and sauve gard of the seid Toun and Castel of Calais, and of the Marches therof, and th'endentures theruppon made, bee by th'assent of the Lordes Spirituelz and Temporelz, and the Communes in this said Parlement assembled, and by th'auctorite therof voied, rappelled, revoked, adnulled, and of no force nor effect, as toward the occupation of kepyng of the seid Toun and Castell of Calef', and the Marches ther, from the day of the deliverance of the same Toun, Castel and Marches, made to me.

Responsio.

Hit is thought sufficiant and agreable, that th'endentures and Letters Patentes of the seid Duc, touchyng the rule and gouvernance of the seid Castell and Toun, shal be surrendede and cancelled; and that in th'endentures betwix the Kyng and the Duc of York, to be of and for the seid rule and gouvernance made, a provision be made, that the same Duc be not charged of the kepyng of the said Castel and Toun, unto tyme they bee to hym or to his Deputees peasiblie and at fredame delivered, the seid Endentures notwithstondyng.

VII. ITEM, that all stuffe of Vitaile, Habiliments of werre, Artillarie, and of all othir ordinance of you our saide Soverain Lord, beyng within the seid Toun, Castels and Fortresses, or eny of theim, be to me shewed by endenture. And in cas that suche Stuffe, Habilimentes, Artillarie and Ordonnance, wull not suffice for the sauvegard, defence and tuition of the same Toun, Castels and Fortresses: That than incontinent aftir notice therof made to you or your Counseil, suffisant and competent stuffe of Vitaile, Ordonnance, Habiliments of werre and Artillerie, be withoutyn delaye pourvede and had, and delivered for the seid sauvegard and defense.

Responsio.

Hit is thought resonable.

(m. 9.)

VIII. ITEM, that hit plaise our said Soverain Lord, by th'assent aboveseid, to ordeine and establisshe in the saide Parlement, and by th'auctorite therof, that all manere of persones havyng eny Office or Offices within the seid Tounes, Castels, Fortresses or Marches, of the graunte of our said Soverain Lord, or of eny of his noble Progenitours, use thaire continuel abood uppon thaire said Office or Offices; and that the Letters Patentes and grauntes, of such persones as woll not so abide and duelle, aftir a monneth next folowyng soo for to abide and duelle, bee by the seid auctorite voide: Except onely, that the Tresorer and Vitailler of the seid Toun and Marches for the tyme beyng, shall repare into this lande by my licence, for suche things as for thaire offices be necessarily required, for the same Toun and Marches.

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

Responsio.

Hit is thought to be had in this fourme. That it please the Kyng our Soverain Lord, by th'assent abovesaid, to ordeine and establisshe in the seid Parlement, and by auctorite therof, that all manere persones havyng eny Office or Offices within the seid Tounes, Castels, Fortresses or Marches, of the graunte of our seid Soverain Lord, or of eny of his noble Progenitours, use theire continuell aboode uppon theire seid Office or Offices, but such persone or persones have licence of me or my Lieutenaunt, to be graunted hym for the tyme of a monethe or within in a yere: And that the Letters Patentes and Grauntes, of suche persones as woll not soo abidee and duelle, aftir a monneth next folowyng aftir proclamation to be made in London and in Calef', so for to abide and duelle, bee by the seid auctorite voide: Except oonly, the Tresorer and Vitailler of the seid Toun and Marches for the tyme beyng, shall repaire into this lande by my licence, for such thinges as for thaire Offices be necessarily required, for the same Toun and Marches.

IX. ITEM, that I may have auctorite and power of the Kyng our said Soverain Lord under his grete Seel, for to doo make and yeve under my Seel, Sauveconduits, Protections, Licences, Sueretees and Sauvegardes, and use, have and enjoye all such emoluments, issues and prousits, and all othir Fredames and Libertees in the seid Toun, Castels, Fortresses and Marches, as amplie, as largelie and as frelie, as that noble and wurthi Prince Humfrey late Duc of Gloucestre ever eny suche there had; soo that my saide Sauveconduits and Licencez, mowe stracche aswell by watur as by lande, for vitaillyng of the said Toun, Castels and Fortresses, and every of theim, and for paiement of the finances of prisonners.

Responsio.

It is thought that there be had such power as Humfrey Duc of Gloucestre, Humfrey Duc of Buk', or Richard late Erle of Warr', late Capitaynes of the seid Toun of Cales, ever ther had.

X. ITEM, for somuch as of tymes here tofore, I have been desired to doo our said Soveraine Lord service, aswell in his Reaume of Fraunce and Duchie of Normandie, as in his lande of Irlond, wherunto at the pleisyr of his good grace I alweye applied me, to my to grete and outrageous charge and coste, which drowe and compelled me for lak of paiement of my wages, to celle a grete substance of my lyvelood, to leye in plege all my grete Jowellys, and the most partie of my Plate not yit raquited, and therfor like to be loost and forfaited; and overe that, to endaungere me to all my Frendes, by chevisance of good of thaire love, for their accomplisshement of the service and charge, whiche at the seid desire I toke upon me in the saide Reaume of France, Duchie and Lond of Irlond, not faisible without notable good, for the which divers sommes of monneye bee to me due; for paiement wherof, mony promisses have been to me made, not parfourmed.

Hit plaise the Highnesse of our said Soverain Lord, by th'advis of his Conseil, to ordeine and provide for me due and agreable paiement of the said sommes, wherthorugh I mowe doo unto his high excellens the better service, upon the saufgard of the said Toun, Castel and Marches, and ellys where.

Responsio.

The Tresorer of Englond, by th'assent and desire of all the Lordes, is agreed to se wher ther may be eny way or grounde founde, for the contentyng of my seid Lord

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI. Lord Duc of York; and that he hath promitted to the ſeid Duc in preſence of the ſeide Lordes; whiche agrement and promiſſe the ſeid Duc hath praied that it may be enacted of record, and ſo hit is graunted that it ſhal be.

XI. ITEM, in caas that the ſaid Toun and Caſtel of Caleis bee not reſcowed afore th'ende of the ſeid II monnethes, that than of any inconvenient that for lak of ſuche reſcowes happen therafter to falle to the ſeid Toun and Caſtel, that God defende, I and myn heires, be therof by the ſeid auctorite, ayenſt our ſeide Soverain Lord, his heires and ſucceſſours, diſcharged for ever: I puttyng me in devoir to the ſeid Reſcowes, ſoo that therfor I be aſſiſted accordyng to the promiſſe abouveſaid.

Reſponſio. It is thought by all the Lordes that it is reſonable.

XII. AND furthermore, it is thought that if of the ſhippyng of eny yere from hens forward to the ſeid Staple, the parte of that Shippyng for the wages for the ſeid Toun and Caſtel aſſigned, excede the ſeid yerely ordinarie charges; that hit be ordeined by auctorite of this Parlement, that that of the ſeid parte that ſoo excedith, be kept in the Kynges Treſorye for the ſeid wages, and to be therunto, and to noon othir uſe emploied.

Reſponſio. The Lordes think it is to be aviſed.

XIII. AND the ſeid Duc of York, deſireth to have to ferme of the Kyng, his demeſnes Landes within the Toune and Marches of Caleis; and that the rent which therfor he ſhall yerely paie to the Kyng, he mowe reteigne in his owne hondes, in partie of paiement of his wages, for the kepyng of the ſaid Toune and Caſtell.

Reſponſo. It is thought reſonable, ſoo it be accorded therfor with the Treſorer of Englond.

MEMORAND', quod Major & Mercatores Stapule Caleſ', exhibuerunt prefato Domino Regi, in preſenti Parliamento, quandam Cedulam certos Articulos continent'; quibus quidem Articulis, in Parliamento predicto lectis, auditis & intellectis, per predictum Dominum Regem, de aviſamento & aſſenſu Dominorum Spiritualium & Temporalium in dicto Parliamento tunc ibidem exiſten', reſpondebatur eiſdem; quorum tenores cum ſuis reſponſionibus, ſequntur in forma ſubſcripta:

Pro Mercatoribus Stapule Caleſ'. (m. 8.) 55. TO the Kyng oure Soveraigne Lord; Beſechen humbely the Maire and Merchauntz of youre Staple of Caleys, that hit pleaſe youre Highneſſe graciouſly to conſider the matiers and motions here aftir enſuyng, for the ſuertee and ſaufgard of the ſeid Staple, Towne, and Marches of the ſame.

I. FURST, that ſufficiant purveaunce be made for the ſaufgard of the ſeid Towne and Marches there; and that the ſeid Merchauntz may have fro hensforth, fre iſſue of all theire Wolles, Wolfelles, and other Merchaundiſes there beyng, or theder hereaftir repairyng, withoute any reſtraynt or impediment.

Reſponſio. It is thought reſonable. And that the Lordes woll doo in that behalve that in theym is to doo, that noo ſuche reſtrainte nor impediment ſhall be hadde.

II. ITEM, that a Petition put to youre Highneſſe by the Commons of this your Roialme, in this youre preſent Parliament, for a certain pris of Wolles to be bought in dyvers places within this youre Royalme, take noon effect ne be auctoriſed; conſidered the grete inconvenientz and damages that ſhuld enſewe of the ordenaunce therof:

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

Reſponſio. It is agreed:

III. ITEM, that an other Petition made by youre ſeid Commons in youre ſaid Parliament, for the ſale and partition of Wolles at Caleys, and bryngyng in of Bullyon to youre ſaid Staple, and other thinges conteigned in the ſame Petition, be not affermed ne enacted by this youre Parliament, for divers hurtes and loſſez that ſhuld enſewe therof, aſwele to you Soveraigne Lord, as to the growers of Wolles, and to the beyers of the ſame.

Reſponſio. It was declared by the Lordes, after advyſe and communication had with the Juſtices, that they have ſeyn aſwell the Acte of partition, made in the VIII yere of the reigne of the Kyng oure Soveraine Lord, at which tyme they conceyve that Reynwell was Maire of the Staple, as the Petition made for partition in this preſent Parlement; and the anſwere made by the Kyng, to that Petition of partition in this Parlement is, that his Highneſſe was agreed, that partition be had and uſed in like wyſe, as it was had and uſed whan Raynwell was Maire of the Staple; and for aſmoche as the Acte made in the ſeid VIII yere, woll that every man that ſelleth or doth ſelle eny Woll or Wolfelles at the ſeid Staple of Caleſ', make true and evyn partition of the money therof, with hem that have Woll or Felles of the ſame Contrees, that his Woll or Felles is of, and that he is ajoyned and aſſocied to make partition with, withoute fraude or maleengyne; and the Lordes verraly underſtondeth, by credible information of the Maire and Felisſhip of the Merchauntz of the Staple, that ther was noon other fourme of partition whan Raynwell was Maire of the Staple, but after the fourme of the ſaid Acte, made in the ſeid VIII yere; and the Petition made in this Parlement woll, that every man that ſelleth or doo ſell eny Woll or Wolfell at the ſeid Staple of Caleys, make true and evyn partition of the money therof commyng, amonge all the Kynges Liege people borne within this Reaume, havyng Woll or Wolfelles there; every man to have after theire aſſerant and portion of his ſeid Merchaundiſes, withoute fraude or maleengyne; it was thought therfore to the ſaid Lordes, for aſmoche as by the Petition of the Communes in this Parlement was deſirid a partition to be made univerſally amonge all men ſellyng Woll at Caleys, and the anſwere of the Kyng to the ſame, includith another manere partition, under another fourme, the which the Communes be not aſſentid, that the ſeid Petition and anſwere made to the ſame, ſhulde make noon Acte of Parlement: wherfore the Kyng woll be avyſed of that Petition.

IV. ITEM, that where afore this tyme, ſeverall aſſignementz have be made to dyvers Merchauntz of youre ſeid Staple, for grete notable ſommes to theym particulerly by you dewe, wherof reſtith as yit unpaied to theym, of the ſomme of XII M. Marc or there aboute, as it may appere of record; which aſſignementz withoute theire defaute, nowe be expired and of noo force; that by auctorite ſufficiant they may have ſure aſſignement for ſeverall repayment of the ſeid duetee, as the cas ſhall require.

Reſponſio. It is agreed, that the Merchauntz have ſemblable ſuertee of the newe Subſidie, as thei had of the olde Subſidie, by the Kynges Letters Patentz and prive Seals; and that the Chaunceller of Englond, and the Keper of the prive Seale, have ſufficiant power to make from tyme to tyme, ſuch and as many Letters Patentes and Writtes executories ſeverally under the ſeid Seals, as ſhall be thought neceſſarie and behovefull in that behalf.

v. ITEM, that ſufficiant remedie may be purveid by auctorite of this youre Parliament, that noo Wolles or Wolfelles be had to paſſe out of this youre Royalme, to any other place than to the ſeid Staple, by colour of licence or ſhippyng in your name or otherwyſe, except Wolles paſſing in Galeys or Carrakes thurgh the ſtraites of Marrok.

Reſponſio. The Kyng, by th'avyſe of his Counſeill, hath yeven in commaundement to my Lord Chaunceller, that noo ſuch licence paſſe withoute th'advys of his ſeid Counſeill.

56. VI. ITEM, that by reaſon of any Graunte made to you in this youre preſent Parliament, for the Subſidies of Wolles and Wolfelles, noo perſone ſhippyng Wolles or Wolfelles to youre ſeid Staple, be chargid for the Subſidie of any ſak of Wolle, or CCXL Wollefells, overe the ſomme of XXXIII ſ. IIII d., as thei have paied to you in all the tyme of youre bleſſid reigne.

Reſponſio. It is agreed, that every Merchaunt Deniſzin borne within this Reaume, which as ſhall ſhipp any Wolls or Wolfells to the Staple of Calef', or thurgh the ſtrattes of Marrok, by the Kynges licence, be quite and diſcharged of X ſ. parcell of the ſaid Subſidie, graunted by the ſeid Acte of every ſakke of Wolle, and of every CCXL Wolfell, from the thridde day of Aprill ſpecified in the ſeid graunte of Subſidie, by the ſpace of V yeres then next folowyng.

VII. WHICH premiſſes fullfilled, youre ſeid Beſechers ſhall be redy to pay to you, at the iſſue of every ſarpler of Wolle and Wolfells oute of the ſaid Staple XL ſ., unto the tyme the ſomme of X M. Marcs therof be levyed, to be applied to the paiement of the Souldeours of Caleys; if it ſo be, that ſufficiant, ſure and aggreable aſſignement to youre ſeid Beſechers be purveid for theim, in this youre high Court of Parliament.

Reſponſio. It is agreed, that the Maire and the Merchauntz of the Staple, ſhall have ſuertee for X M. Marcs by Letters Patentes under the Kynges grete Seale; that is to ſey, of the half Diſme paiable at the Feſt of Seint Martyn in wynter that ſhall be in the yere of oure Lord MCCCCLV, V M. Marcs, and at the Feſt of Seint Martyn in wynter then next folowyng, of the half Diſme paiable, other V M. Marcs; and that the ſeid Letters Patentes and Writtes theruppon to be made, to be delyvered to my Lordes the Biſhops of Wyncheſtre and Coventre, and they to delyver the ſeid Letters Patentes and Writtes to the ſeid Maire and Marchauntz particulerly as they may be acerteined that the Merchauntz paie the ſeid X M. Marcs, or parte therof; and that the Chaunceller of Englond for the tyme beyng, have ſufficiant power to doo make ſuch and aſmany Letters Patentes and Writtes executories under the Kynges grete Seale, as ſhall be thought behovefull and neceſſarie to the ſeid Merchauntz in that behalve, withoute eny other purſuyte theruppon to be made to the Kyng or to his Counſeill.

57. ITEM, quedam Petitio exhibita fuit eidem Domino Regi, in Parliamento predicto, per prefatos Communes, ex parte Jacobi Comitis Wilteſ' & Ormond' in hec verba:

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

Pro Jacobo Comite Wilteſ' & Ormond'.

TO the full wyſe and diſcrete Commons of this preſent Parlement; Shewith unto your notable diſcretions and wyſdoms James Erle of Wiltſhire and of Ormond. That where he is ſeiſed in his demeſne as in fee of the Maner of Hukcote, with the Avowſon of the Chirche of Hukcote to the ſeid Manour appertenyng, and of a Crofte called the lytull Milne Hamme, with their appurtenaunces in the Counte of Buk', of the yifte and feffement of James late Erle of Ormond, Fadir of the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire, and John Neel Clerk; and that the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire, at the Reverence of our bleſſed Lord Criſt Jhus, and of his bleſſed Moder our Lady Seynt Marie, and in wurſhip of that glorius Martir Seint Thomas, ſomtyme Archebyſshop of Canterbury, of whoos blode the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire his Fader, and mony of his Aunceſtres are lineally diſcendid, and the whiche glorius Martir was borne of his Moder within the grounde where now is ſet the Houſe or Hoſpitall of the ſeid Martir called Seynt Thomas of Acrees, within the Citee of London, and alſo for the grete tenderaunce, truſt and love, that the ſeid James late Erle of Ormond, on whom God have mercy, when he was on lyve hade unto that devout and holy place, and alſo for aſmoche as the Modir of the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire is beried within that holy place, is diſpoſed, agreed and fully ſette, for hym and his heires, in conſideration of the premyſſes, and by the agrement, comfort, ſupportation and aſſent of your full grete and notable wiſdomes, that John Neel, nowe Maiſter of the ſeid Hous or Hoſpitall, ſhall have the ſeid Maner of Hukcote with the Avowſon therto appertenyng, and the ſeid Crofte with their appurtenaunces, to hym and to his ſucceſſours for evermore; to th'entent that he and his ſucceſſours ſhall fynde twey Preſtes within the ſeid Hous or Hoſpitall, perpetuelly and daily to pray for the gode eſtate of our Soveraigne Lord the Kyng, and of our Soveraigne Lady the Queene, and of the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire, and for the ſoules of our Soverayn Lord the Kyng and the Queene when they ben paſſed out of this world, and for the ſoules of the Fadir of the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire, and of his Moder, and for the ſoule of the gode Lady Dame Johane Beauchamp, late Lady of Bergevenny, grauntdame to the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire, and for the ſoules of all othir his Aunceſtres that been dede, and for the ſoules of the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire, and of his wiffe, and their heires aftir their diſceſe, and for all Criſten ſoules; whiche entent and diſpoſition the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire may not perfourme ne fulfille, without your ſpeciall favour, helpe and ſocour be to hym ſhewed in this behalfe.

Wherefor pleaſe hit your full grete and notable wiſdomes to conſidere the premyſſes, and to pray the Kyng our Soverayn Lord, that he, by th'aſſent of his Lordes Spirituell and Temporell in this preſent Parlement aſſembled, and by the auctorite of the ſame, will ordeyne and eſtabliſſh, that the ſeid John Neell, nowe Maiſter of the ſeid Hous or Hoſpitall, or his ſucceſſours, may entir into the ſeid Maner of Hukcote, with the Avowſon aforeſeid and Crofte, with their appurtenaunces, and to have and to holde the ſeid Maner and Avowſon therto appertenyng and Crofte, with their appurtenaunces, to the ſeid Maiſter and his ſucceſſours for evermore, without interruption, impediment or impechement of the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire or of his heires, or of eny othir perſone or perſones pretendyng title, by theym or to their uſe, in perfourmyng of the gode entent and diſpoſition above reherſed.

Provided alwey, that this Acte, Statute or Ordenaunce, ſhall not exclude ne forbarre none othir perſone or perſones, of their title or right that they have to the ſeid Maner, with th'Avowſon therto appertenyng and Croft,

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

Croft, with their appurtenaunces, but only to exclude and forbarre the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire and his heires, and all othir perſone or perſones claymyng or havyng title or right to the ſeid Maner, with th'Avowſon aforeſeid and Crofte, with their appurtenaunces, to the uſe of the ſeid Erle of Wiltſhire or of his heires; for the love of God, and in way of charite.

QUA quidem Petitione, in Parliamento predicto lecta, audita & plenius intellecta, eidem Petitioni, de aviſamento & aſſenſu predictis, reſpondebatur ſub hiis verbis:

Reſponſio. Soit fait come il eſt deſire.

Pro Cantaria Thome Romayn in London'. (m. 7.)

58. ITEM, quedam alia Petitio exhibita fuit eidem Domino Regi, in Parliamento predicto, per Johannem Lyouns Capellanum, in hec verba:

TO the Kyng our Soverain Lord, the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and the Commons in this preſent Parlement aſſembled; Pleaſe hit to your Highneſſe of your habundaunte grace to conſidere: That where oon Thomas Romayn, ſumtyme Cetezein of London, in his Teſtament proved and enrolled in the Huſtenge of the ſeid Citee of Common Plees, holdyn the Monday next afore the Feſt of Seynt Dunſtone, the yere of the reigne of Kyng E. the ſon of Kyng E. the ſext, among othir legates, devyſed and by his legate ordeyned, VI Mark of annuell quyte rente to the ſuſtenaunce of a Preſt perpetuell, to do and ſyng divyne ſervice for evermore in the Pariſh Churche of Seint Benet Shorhog, within the Citee aboveſeid, for the ſoule of the ſeid Thomas and all Criſten, to be perceived and taken yerely at the ternes in the ſeid Citee uſuell for evermore, oute of his Tenement within the ſame Pariſh, joynyng to the ſame Churche on the north partie; the whiche device and legate, the noble Princes Sir E., ſumtyme Kyng of Englond the thirde, your noble Progenitour, and Kyng Richard the ſeconde aftir the conqueſt, by ther Letters Patentes ſeverally confermed; by the force of the whiche legate and confirmations, John Lyouns nowe Preſt, doyng divyne ſervice in the ſeid Churche as a Chauntrye Preſt, ſoo ordeigned aftir the fourme of the Teſtament aboveſeid, and his predeceſſours Preſtes ther, ordeigned by auctorite of the ſame Teſtament, have byn poſſeſſed of the ſeid yerely rente of VI Mark, CXX yeres and more, ſuppoſyng that in the ſeid Citee of London, the ſeid Legate with the ſame Confirmations withoutyn more had been a Chauntrie ſufficiently founded in lawe by the fourme above reherſed, and to have ſtoud ſtable in perpetuite; which for certein dymynicion of the fourme of makyng uſed in the lawe, at theſe dayes is not holde ſufficient. And theſe premiſſes thus conſidered, that hit lyke your habundaunte grace, by th'aviſe and aſſent of the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and the Cominalte of Englond in this your preſent Parlement aſſembled, yn accomplyſſhyng of the ſeid devoute entente of the ſeid Thomas Romayn, by the auctorite of this ſame preſente Parlemente, to ordeyne and eſtablyſh a perpetuell Chauntrye, of a Preſt perpetuell, to ſynge daily withoute ende divyne ſervice in the ſeid Churche, for your noble Eſtate, the ſoules of your noble Progenitours for evyr, and the ſoule of the ſeid Thomas Romayn, accordyng to his ſeid entente; and that the ſeid John Lyouns be Preſte perpetuell of the ſame. And that the makyng, fundation and ſtablyſſhyng of the ſame, begynne and take effecte and full ſtrengh the XXIII day of Aprille, on Seynt Georges day, the third yere of your full gracious reigne, at the whiche day the ſaid John Lyouns was firſt deputed to ſyng in the ſeid Churche for the ſeid Thomas Romayn, accordyng to his ſeid entent; and that the ſeid Chauntrye, by the ſeid auctorite ſo to be holdyn and repute fro that day forthe for evermore, and be called withoutyn ende Romayns Chauntrye. And that by the ſame auctorite, John Horle nowe Parſon, and the Pariſſhens of the ſeid Churche and their ſucceſſours for evermore, mowe atte tyme of every avoydaunce of the ſame Chauntrie of a Preſt, put, ordeyn and ſet a Preſte perpetuell in the ſeid Chauntrye, accordyng to the ſeid devout entente of the ſeid Thomas Romayn. And that the ſame John Lyouns nowe Preſte, and everyche of his ſucceſſours Preſtes of the ſame Chauntrie for the tyme beyng, in the ſame Chauntrie ſo put and ordeyned, mowe by the auctorite of the ſeid Parlement, by the name of the Preſt perpetuell of the Chauntrie called Romayns Chauntrie, emplede and be empleded, in all maner Actions reall, perſonell and mixtes, ſuytes, quereles and demaundes, in all maner of Courtes, aſwill afore you our ſaid Soverain Lord the Kyng, and your heires and ſucceſſours, as afore the Juſtices, Officers and Minyſtres of theyme, or afore eny othir Juge Spirituell or Temporell whatſomever they be, and in the ſame to wynne and leſe, as the caſe in that partie ſhall require. And alſo to graunte and ordeyne by the ſame auctorite, that the ſeid John now Chapelleyn, and his ſucceſſours for ever, have and enjoye the ſeid rente of VI Mark with the arrerages of the ſame, from the ſeid XXIII day forth imperpetuite. And that if the ſeid annuel rente of VI Mark or eny parcell therof, be at eny terme of the termes uſuell aboveſeid, behynde onpaide to the ſeid John Lyouns nowe Preſte of the ſeid Chauntrie, or to eny of his ſucceſſours hereaftir for the tyme beyng Preſt of the ſeid Chauntrie; that than it ſhall be lefull to the ſame John nowe Preſt, and his ſuceſſours for evermore, that is to ſey, eche for the rente of the ſeid VI Mark or eny parcell therof beyng behynde, and for the arrerages of the ſame ronne aftir the ſeid XXIII day of Aprille, in alle the ſeid Tenementes entre, and by alle Godes and Catelles ther founde diſtreyne, and the diſtreſſes take oute and reteyne, unto tyme that the ſeid John nowe Preſt for alle his tyme, and eche of his ſucceſſours for her tyme, of alle the ſeid yerely rente of VI Mark for ther ſuſtenaunce, and of the arrerages of the ſame rente, be duely ſatisfied and contente: ſavyng alway to the Tenaunte or Tenauntes of the ſeid Tenementys charged, their avauntage, allegeaunce and exceptions, in diſchargyng of the ſeid Tenementes, be eny tayille, matier or caſe reſonable, comenſed before the ſeid Legate of the ſeid Thomas Romayn.

Provided alſo, that the ſeid Tenaunte and Tenauntes, be quyte and diſcharged of as muche of the ſeid rente as hath be paide to the ſeid John Lyouns ſeth the ſeid XXIII day of Aprille, in the thirde yere of your noble reigne aboveſeid.

Soit fait come il eſt deſire. Reſponſio.

TO the worſhipful and diſcrete Comones aſſembled in this preſent Parlement; humblie beſecheth Henry Beaumont, ſone and heir of Sr Henry Beaumont Knyght, Charles Nowell Squier, and John Twycroſſe Yoman, tenderly to conſidre howe ageyn the peas of oure Soverain Lord the Kyng; where that oure ſeid Soverain Lord afore this tyme, hath of his Highneſſe liked that his peas ſhulde be kept, and that grete riottes, rapes, murdres and manſlaughters, doon in divers parties of his lande ſhulde be punyſshed, and his lawes duely executid as they have ben in tyme paſſed: and this notwithſtondyng, where as Dame Johane Beaumont, late the wyf of Henry Beaumont Knyght, had made a lawfull contract of mariage with the ſaid Charles, within the Manoir of Thorp in Balme: long after the which contract, where as the ſeid Johane on the Friday next before the Feſt of Alhalowes, in the yere of the reigne of oure Soverain Lord xxxi^ti, where the ſeid Johane was in Goddes peas and the Kynges, in the Chapell within the Towne of Thorp in Balme, in the ſhire of York, heryng hir high Maſſe, ther cam oon Edward Lancaſtre, of Shipton in Craven in the ſhire of York Gentilman, William Lancaſtre of Burgham in the ſhire of Weſtmerland Gentilman, John Curſon late of Belthorp in the ſhire of York Gentilman, John Paſlewe of Barneby upon Doune in the ſhire of York Gentilman, Hugh Kyng late of Shipton in the ſhire of York Yoman, Richard Loge late of Shipton in the Craven in the ſhire of York Yoman, Richard Bate of Carleton beſide Pountfret in the ſhire of York Yoman, William Bate of the ſame Toune in the ſhire of York Yoman, Piers Burton of Almeholme in the ſhire of York Yoman, Criſtofore Wythes late of Salley in the ſhire of York Yoman, Richard Burton of Burham in the ſhire of Weſtmerland Yoman, Robert Cooke late of Shipton in the Craven in the ſhire of York Yoman, Thomas Strete late of Pountfret in the ſhire of York Yoman,

A. D. 1453. 31 Hen. VI.

Thomas Watkynſon late of Pountfret in the ſhire of York Yoman, and Robert Withes late of Salley in the ſhire of York Vacabunde, with many other Riottours and Miſdoers gadred to theym unknowen, arraied in the maner of werre to the nombre of XL perſones, as Felons of our ſaid Soverain Lord, lay in awayte in the ſeid Town of Thorp in Balme, felonefly to raviſh and robbe the ſeid Johane; the which Edward, by the help, comfortynge and abettynge to hym made there of the ſaid Miſdoers, the ſeid Johane there and than fonde with force and armes felonefly raviſhed, and toke and ſett her on an hors behynde a man of his, and bonde her faſt to hym with a Towell, and rode awey with her unto unknowen place, and by his ſotell ymagination to th'entent that the ſeid Johane ſhuld have no ſuyt ayenſt hym of the ſeid raviſhment, brought hir to a Chirche, and there a Preeſt of his aſſent was redy to wedde and mary the ſaid Edwarde Lancaſtre and her togidre; and whan the ſaid Preeſt wold have hir to ſey the wordes of matrimony, ſhe wold not ſey hem, for ſhe ſaid that ſhe was another mannes wyf, and therupon the ſeid Edward manaced hir hidouſly, to bete and to lede hir out of this land into Scotlond, but ſhe wold ſey as the Preeſt bad hir; and than ſhe aſked the Preeſt how he durſt take upon hym for to wedde hem togidre, without that they had be lawfully aſkid in the Chirche, after the cours of the lawe, and he ſeid yat he durſt doo noon otherwiſe for fere and dought of his dethe; and ſo ſhe was ayenſt her will by cohercion wedded unto hym; and alſo in the ſeid Town and Manoir of Thorp, and on the ſame Friday, with force and armes the ſaid Miſdoers made aſſaute uppon Anneys Beaumont, Doughter to the ſeid Henry Beaumont Knyght and Johane, and ſuſter to Henry youre ſeid ſuppliaunt, and her they toke and lede awey with hem, and thurgh miſrule and kepyng ſhe is benomen and lame as it is ſeid; and alſo in the ſeid Town and Manoir of Thorp, on the ſame Friday, with force and armes the ſeid Miſdoers made aſſaute upon oon John Cook, and John Louthe, yomen and ſervauntes to the ſame Johane, and the ſeid John Cook bete and wounded with Swerdes, and other Servauntes of the ſame Johane beyng in her Company, with force and armes ayenſt the Kynges peas; and alſo in the ſeid Town and Manoir of Thorp, on the ſame Friday, in the Chapelle there aportuos of the Goodes and Catelx of youre ſeid ſuppliante Henry Beaumont, to the value of c ſ., there and than fonde, felonſly they ſtale and toke awey.

Wherfore pleaſe it youre wyſe diſcretions to conſidre, howe the ſaid Edward nor the ſeid riottours and miſdoers, feren nor dreden the Kyng oure Soveraine Lord nor execution of his lawes, nor no thyng pondreth nor weyeth the ſame, the which is grevous and heynous example but if it be right ſore punyſhed, to pray the Kyng oure Soverain Lord, by th'aſſent of his Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and his Communes, and by auctorite of this preſent Parlement, to ordeyn and provide, that a Writt out of the Kynges Chauncelry of Englond, be direct unto the Shiref of the Shire of York for the tyme beyng, commaundyng hym upon peyne of ccc li., that anon after the ſeid Writ delivered, he do make proclamation ſolemnly at York thre dayes ſuyngly eche after other, that the ſeid Edward Raviſhour, and all other Riottours and Miſdoers afore ſpecified, do appere in theire propre perſones afore our Soverain Lord, where ſoever he be in Englond, in his Benche at the day and retourne of the ſame Writt, the which day of retourne be a moneth and more after the date of the ſame Writt, ſo that the ſeid proclamation be had a moneth before the ſaid day of retourne at the leſt, to anſwere to the ſeid rape, felony or treſpas, by what name ſoever they be called. And in cas that they or any of theym, at the ſaid day of retourne, in theire propre perſones appere nat, that than they that appered nat, by auctorite aforeſeid be atteynt and convict of the ſame felonye, rape and treſpace, as veryly and in the ſame forme and effect, as they were atteynt and convict at theire own myſe, by action at ye ſuyt of the ſeid Henry Beaumont, Charles Nowell and John Twycroſſe. And if ſo be the ſeid Edward Lancaſtre and the miſdoers aforeſeid, or any of thaim, appere by force of the ſeid proclamation as it is afore reherced, that thanne the Juſtices of the plees afore the Kyng to be holden aſſigned by this ſeid auctorite, may put hem or eny of hem to anſwere to the ſeid rape, felonye and treſpas, by bill at the ſuyt of oure Soverain Lord the Kyng, or of the parties aboveſeid, and to committ hem to the pryſon of Flete, there to abide without baille or maynprys, unto the tyme that ſuch action or actions of the felonye, rape or treſpace afore ſeid, ſhewed or to be ſhewed ayenſt hem or any of hem by oure ſeid Soverain Lord the Kyng, or by the ſeid Henry Beaumont, Charles Nowell and John Twycroſſe, or any of hem, or eny perſone, on this ſyde the XV^me^ of the Trinite next folowyng, afore oure ſeid Soverain Lord as is aforeſeid be fully tryed and determyned. And if ſo happen that the Keper of hem or any of hem, let hem or eny of hem goo at large or by baille or baſton, that than the ſeid Keper forfet cc li., that is to ſey, a c li. to the Kyng oure Soverain Lord, and c li. to the parties aboveſeid, or to hym that will ſue hit in her defaute; and the ſeid Henry Beaumont, Charles and John Twycroſſe, or eny of hem, by the ſeid auctorite, may ſue theire appele of rape and actions of treſpace, by Writt or by Bille, in propre perſone or by theire Attourney, of the rape, felonyes and treſpace afore reherced, the ſame eſpouſelx betwene the ſeid Edward Lancaſtre and Johane had and to be allegged notwithſtondyng; and that the alleggynge and pledyng of the ſame eſpouſelx in the ſame appele or actions of treſpace, be had for nought, voide, and for noo plee; and that al maner foreign plees to be pleded and allegged in the ſeid actions of appele or treſpas by the ſeid Edward Lancaſtre, or by eny of the ſeid miſdoers, in any ſhire or place triable than in the ſeid ſhire of York, where the ſeid rape, felony and treſpace were doon, be had for nought, voide, and for noo plees in lawe. And to pray the Kyng our Soverain Lord, by th'aſſent of his Lordes Spirituell and Temporell, and by auctorite of this preſent Parlement, to ordeyn and provide, that the ſeid Johane be delyvered to the Archiebiſhop of York ordinary, or to the Viſcount Beaumont Brother to the ſeid Sr̃ Henry, or elles to whom oure ſeid Soverain Lord the Kyng will aſſigne, within III wokes after the firſt proclamation made, upon peyne the ſeid Edward Lancaſtre to be convict and atteynt of the ſeid rape and treſpaſſe, ſo that ſhe may be at large in her fredam, to ſue ſuche actions as is behoefull for her in the ſeid rape, felony and treſpas. And over that, where in all parties of this Roialme, dyvers people of myght, movyd of inſaciable covetyſe ayenſt all right gentilnes, trouthe and good conſcience, have laboured and founden newe inventions and theym beſily executid, to th'endaungeryng, trouble and miſtretyng of all Ladies, Gentilwomen, and other women beyng ſoule, havyng eny ſubſtaunce of Londes, Tenementes, or other moevable goodes within this Roialme, underſtondyng the grete innocency and ſymplenes of hem, will take hem by ſtrength, or elles come unto theym reſemblyng to be theire gretteſt frendes, promyttyng hem theire feithfull frendſhip, and ſo by grete diſſimulation or otherwyſe geten hem into their poſſeſſion, bryngyng hem into ſuch places where the ſeid miſdoers be moſt of might, and whan any woman by ſuche meanes or by eny other meane been in theire governance, the ſeid evil diſpoſed perſone or perſones will not ſuffre hem to goo at large and be at

No 4. For the Staple of Calais.

PRAYEN the Comons; that where the full noble Kyng Edward the thridde of bleſſed memory, your progenitour, bi greet deliberacion and advyſe, ordeigned his holle Staple of Wolls, Wollefells, and other Merchandiſes, to be at Caleys, for the wele of this his Royalme, and ſaufgarde of the ſeid Town. And bi the greet libertees and fraunchiſes bi hym yoven to the Merchauntz of the ſame Staple, and bi repairing of Wolls, Wollefells, and other Merchaundiſes thider, there cam greet revenuz of Cuſtumes and Subſidies, and other comoditees and rentz there, to him, his heirs and ſucceſſours, Kynges of this Royalme; as hit is of record in youre Eſcheker. Wherby greet richeſſe came into this your Royalme of England, bi means of Merchauntz of the ſeid Staple at that tyme, and many yeres ſith, beyng many in nombre, and of greet ſuffiſaunce; the ſeid Towne of Caleys and the Marches there wele reparellid, and the Souldeours of the ſame wele paid of their Wages, and the Wolles and Wollefelles of your Royalme wele bought and uttrid to greet pris and value. Howebeit nowe that bi dyvers and many licences yoven bi your lres patentz, of ſhipping of Wolles and Wollefelles, and alſo bi coloure of ſhipping of Wolles and Wollefelles in your name, to paſſe to other places thanne to the ſeid Staple, the repairing and comyng of Wolles and Wollefelles thider is greetly decreſid and amenuſed; and the revenuz of your Cuſtumes and Subſidies over greetly enpaired; wherof folowith the nounpayment of the Souldeours which ſhuld attende upon the ſaufgard of the ſaid Towne of Caleys, and the Marches therof; and alſo lak of purveiaunce for neceſſary repacions of the Geteyes and other Werks there, to likly perile of jeopardie of the ſame Towne and Marches, if dewe provyſion for the remedy therof the ſouner be not hadde.

Which premiſſes conſidered, pleaſe hit your Highneſſe to graunte, ordeigne and eſtabliſh, bi th'aviſe and aſſent of the Lordes Sp̃uell and Temporell in this p̃ſent Parlement aſſemblid, and bi auctorite of the ſame, that noo maner of pſonne for you, nor in your name, nor bi any maner of licence by you grauntid or to be grauntid, nor bi any other means, doo ſhippe, lede or cary, any Wolles or Wollefelles oute of this your noble Royalme of England, to any other place thanne to the ſeid Staple of Caleys. And that he that acceptith or puttith in execution any ſuch ſhipping of Wolles or Wollefelles, contrary to this Act and Ordenaunce; and alſo that he and thei to whoos uſe any ſuche Wolles or Wollefelles ſhall be ſhippid in your name, or bi any maner of licence by you grauntid or to be grauntid, or bi eny othir maner means, to paſſe to any other place than to the ſeid Staple of Caleys, be oute of protection and pardon of you Sov̄aigne Lorde in that partie. Provided alweys, that ye be dewly anſwerid of the Cuſtumes, Subſidies, and of all other devoirs and duetees to you to be dewe, of and for all Wolles and Wollefells to be ſhipped to Caleys, according to your Lawes of this your noble Royalme.

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

And over that, that hit be leeffull to the Maire, Conſtables, and Felawſhip of Merchauntz of the ſeid Staple for the tyme beyng, and to their ſucceſſours for evermore, to have and ſewe an accion upon this Ordenaunce, ayenſt any p̃ſonne or p̃ſonnes as doth offende ayenſt the ſame Ordenaunce; and to have ſuche p̃ceſſe therin, as is p̃vydid in a premunire facias, or ſuch p̃ceſſe as bi the Comon Lawe is in an accion of treſpaſſe doon ayenſt your peas, at their eleccion.

And if any p̃ſonne or p̃ſonnes at their ſute, therupon be convictid or atteyntid of any thing doon ayenſt the fourme and entent of this Ordenaunce and p̃viſion, that the ſame Maire, Conſtables, and Felawſhip of Merchauntz, ſhall have jugement for to recovere ayenſt ſuch p̃ſonne or p̃ſonnes ſo convictid or atteyntid, the quatreble value of Wolles and Wollefelles, and of everych of hem ſo ſhippid ayenſt th'entent of this Ordenaunce; wherof the halfendele of the ſaid quatreble value ſo to be recovered and hadde in execucion, ſhall be employed for the repacions of the Geteyes, Scluſes and Bankes at Caleys aforeſaid, bi th'overſight of the Maiſtir of the Werks there for the tyme beyng; and that other half therof, to remayne to the Maire, Conſtables, and Felawſhip aforeſeid. Provydid alweys, that the ſeid accion be hadde and comencid within the Shire where ſuch ſhipping of Wolles or Wollefelles ſhall be hadde, in the name of you, or bi any licence, or in any other wiſe, to paſſe to other places beyonde the See thanne to the ſaid Staple, or in the Shire or Shires where the ſeid Wolles or Wollefelles ſhall growe, or be bought to be caried and ſhippid to paſſe to any other place thanne to the ſeid Staple of Caleys, atte eleccion of the ſaid Mair, Conſtables, and Felawſhip of Merchaunts of the ſame Staple.

And over that, that every p̃ſonne or p̃ſonnes as doth ſhippe or cary, or doth to be ſhippid or caried any Wolles or Wollefelles oute of this Royalme, by colour of any licence, or in ſhipping of them in the name of you, or in any otherwiſe, to be hadde to any other place beyonde the See thanne to the ſaid Staple of Caleys, and them put to ſale in any other Port or place oute of the ſeid Royalme of England, than at the forſaid Staple of Caleys, onleſſe than the ſhippe wherin the ſaid Wolles or Wollefelles is be piſhid and may not be brought to the ſaid Staple; and therof be convictid or atteynted atte ſute of the ſaid Maire, Conſtables, and Felawſhip of Merchauntz of the ſeid Staple, bi ſuch accion, p̃ceſſe and trial groundid upon this Act as is afore rehercid, that he forfaite the quatreble value of all ſuche Wolles and Wollefelles, and of everiche of hem ſo ſhipped and hadde to any other place thanne to the ſaid Staple of Caleys; the ſame quatreble value to be devydid and applied in the fourme above rehercid.

And that every Cuſtumer, Countroller, Serchour and Surveiour, which bi his knowlech ſuffrith or admyttith any Wolles or Wollefelles to be ſhippid within any Port, Creke, Haven, or any other place, where as thei be Officers, to paſſe to any other Port or place than to the ſaid Staple as is above rehercid, ... ſuche ſhippyng therof to be hadde in the name of you, or bi force of any licence or . . . . or bi the mean of any Writte or other cõmaundement, in affermyng or approvyng any ſuch ſhipping, or licence to them to be directid, renne not under the peyne of forfaiture above rehercid; and he and thei be hadde and demed in like caas, as he that ſhippith any ſuch Wolles or Wollefelles in the name of you, or executith any ſuch licence or otherwiſe to any other place thanne to the ſeid Staple, aftir that he therof be convictid atte ſute of the Maire, Conſtables, and Felawſhip; alle ſuche ꝓceſſe and execucion, to be hadde in and by ſuche accions, trialls and ſutes, as is above rehercid.

And that all maner thing doon ayenſt th'Ordeñnce of this Statute, as wele within this Royalme as without, not triable bi matier of record, be put in iſſue, and be triable bi enqueſt in the ſame Shire and Viſne where the accion ſhall be taken, aftir the fourme of this Ordenaunce.

And if any Wolles or Wollefelles hereaftir be caried or ſhipped in your name, or bi any licence or otherwiſe, out of this your Royalme of England, to paſſe to any other place oute of the ſame youre Royalme, thanne to the ſaid Staple, that than hit be leeſſull to every ꝑſonne and ꝑſonnes, beyng youre liegemen, to ſeaiſe all ſuch Wolles and Wollefelles, and everich of hem; and them kepe to their ꝓpre uſe aftir ſuch ſeaiſir.

And forthermore to ordeigne and eſtablisſh by the ſaid auctorite, that th'enhabitantz of the Shires of Northumberland, Cumberland, Weſtmerland, and the Biſſhoprich of Dureham, betwene the Waters of Theſe and Twede, ſhall mowe accept the Kyngs licence for to ſhippe in the Port of Newcaſtell upon Tyne, and in noon other Port or place, the Wolles and Wollefelles of the growing of the ſeid Shires and Biſſhoprych, betwene the ſeid Waters of Theſe and Twede; and the ſame Wolles and Wollefelles ſo ſhippid, to cary and lede into any place or places oute of this Royalme at their fredoms and libertees, bi force of ſuch licence, this Act notwithſtanding; payeng the Cuſtumes, Subſidies, and other devoires therof dewe accordyng to your Lawes. And that for ſhypping, carieng and ledyng, noon of the ſaid enhabitantz renne into the peyne of forfaitur in this ſaid Act ſpecified. And alſo to ordeigne bi the ſaid auctorite, that in caas the ſaid enhabitantz or any of them, or any other ꝑſonne or ꝑſonnes for their ꝓpre uſe, or for them or any of them, cary, ſhippe or lede, or doo to be caried, ſhippid or ledde, any Wolles or Wollefelles of the growing of any other Contre or Shire than of the ſaid Shires and Biſſhoprich, betwene the ſeid Waters of Theſe and Twede; that than he or thei, that ſuch Wolles or Wollefelles ſo carieth, ſhippith or ledith, renne and ſtande in the peyne of forfaiture aboveſaid, to be tryed in the Shire next adjoynaunt, or in the Shire or Shires where the Wolles or Wollefelles ſhall growe or be bought, atte eleccion of the ſaid Maire, Conſtables, and Felawſhip of the Staple aboveſaid.

And to ordeigne alſo by th'auctoritee aboveſaid, that if any ꝑſonne or ꝑſonnes, cary or do to be caryed any Wolles or Wollefelles oute of any Shires or places of this your ſaid Royalme, other thanne of the growing betwene the ſaid Waters of Theſe and Twede, to paſſe to Newecaſtell upon Tyne aboveſaid, for to be ſhipped and paſſe at their libertees and fredoms as is above rehercid; that thanne hit be leeſſull to every ꝑſonne and ꝑſonnes, beyng your liegemen, to ſeaiſe all ſuche Wolles and Wollefelles, and them kepe to their ꝓpre uſe aftir ſuche ſeaiſir.

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

Provydid alwey, that in caas the Maire, Conſtables, and Felawſhip aforeſaid, comence not their accion as is ordeigned bi this Act, within the yer and day next aftir th'offence be doon; that than hit ſhall be leeſſull to ech of your liege peple, to ſewe an accion accordyng to this Act; the ſaid accion to be mayntenable in his name that will ſewe hit.

Provided alſo, that all maner of licence of Wolles and Wollefelles to paſſe thurgh the Straites of Marrok, ſhippid in Galeyes or Carraks, payeng Cuſtumes and Subſidies as Aliens doo or ſhall doo, be oonly except and forpriſed oute of this Ordenaunce.

Forſeen alweys, that this Act begynne and comence to be in his force and effect the VIII^th^ day of Aprille, the XXXII yere of your moſt bleſſed Reigne.

And that this ſame Act be not prejudiciall to any licence by auctorite of this ꝑſent Parliament grauntid, for ſhipping of any Wolles, Wollefelles or Tynne, to be hadde or caried to any place oute of this your Royalme of England.

No 5. For fixing the ſeveral Prices of Wool.

PRAYEN the Cões of this ꝑſent Parlement aſſembled; that where the Wolles growyng withynne this Reaume, here before have ben the grete cõmodite, enrichyng and welfare of this land; and how now late the price of the ſaid Wolles ys ſo gretly decayed and amenuſed in the hondes of the growers, that the Cões of this land be not able nor of power to paye nor to bere no reſonable impoſicions nor charges to the Kyng oure Sovaigne Lord, for the wele and defence of this Land, as their hertis wolde, nor their rentes and dewtees to their Lordis mediates and immediates, as thei owen of right to do. And alſo the makeyng of Cloth withynne all parties of the Reaume, wich is the gretteſt occupacion and lyving of the pore Cões of this land, is ſo anyentyſed and negh deſtroied, by that that grete habundaunce of Wolles as welle by ſtalth as by licence is uttred into the parties beyond the See, whereas Cloth made withynne this land herebifore hath uſuelly ben uttred; whereby the lyvelod and revenues as welle of the Lordes Spirituelx as Temporelx, as of al other ꝑſones thurgh this Reaume, is gretely abated and decreſed, and the pore Cõe poeple of this land have ſtandẽ, and yit ſtand, in gret Idelneſſe for lakke of occupacion of the ſaid Cloth makeyng, the which hath cauſed grete hereſyes, treſons, inſurreccions, rebellions, murdres, robries, riotis, and many of the other myſgovñaunces that have univerſally fallen in this Reaume, and like to growe to moo in tyme to come, onleſſe than good and haſty remedye may therfore be purveied in brief tyme. Wherfore pleaſe it your Hieghneſſe tendirly to conſidre the p̃miſſes, and by th'avys and aſſent of the Lordes Spirituell and Temporell in this p̃ſent Parlement aſſembled, and by auctorite of the ſame, to ordeygne and eſtablisſhe; that no manere ꝑſone ne ꝑſones withynne this Reaume, bye nor do to be bought, by hemſelf or by any other, in his or in theyr name, or to his or to their uſe, any manere of Wolles of the growyng of any partie of this your ſaid Royaulme, to or of any manere ꝑſone or ꝑſones deynſyns or ſtraungers, undere the values and prices ſeverally appoynted, expreſſed and conteyned in a Cedule to this Bille annexed. And what ꝑſone or ꝑſones that ſo bieth or doth to be bought, by hymſelf hymſelf or by any other to thair uſe, by any craft or covyn, any Wolles under the valeue and prices compriſed in the ſaid Cedule, as ofte as they or any of theim that ſo doth, to forfaite XL li. and the ſame Wolles ſo bought or the valewe therof; that one half be to you, Sovayn Lord, and that other half to which of your lieges will ſue. And that no pſone nor pſones, bie nor do to be boght any Wolles withyn this Royaulme, be the ſlees, nor weyed by the awncell, but only by the lying weight, after XIIII li. to the ſtoon, uppon the ſame payne. And that Juſtices of Aſſiſes, and Juſtices of Pees in thare Seſſions, have power to enquere, here and determine, as wele by preſentement as by bille, at your ſute, as at the ſute of party, of all maner pſones in any wiſe doyng or attemptyng any thyng contrarie to the ſaid Acte. Alway forſyen, that it ſhall be leeffull to any pſone or pſonez withyn this Royalme, to bye or do to be bought, ſell or do to be ſowld, uttere or do to be uttred, of the Wolles of any parties of this Roalume, under the valew and priſes in the ſaide Cedule conteyned, at thair libertie; ſo that the ſaide Wolles ſo bought under the ſaid prices, be draped and made yn Clothe withyn thys Realume, withoute any hurt or p̃judiſe by force of this Acte. And that every pſoue or pſones ſhall have the libertie to bye and to ſell all manere of Wolles withyn this Roalume, above the valeu and prices in the ſeid Cedule ſpecified, to the moſt avayle of the ſeller; this Acte notwithſtondyng. This Act to begynne and take effect the XX day of Juyn next comyng, and to endure by the ſpace of X yere thanne next folowyng.

Nº 6. Staple of Calais.

BESECHEN mekely your Cões in this your p̃ſent Parlement aſſembled; That ſithen the time of youre noble ꝑgenitours, for the ꝓſperite and welfare of youre noble Reaume of Englonde, and for the ſuſtentacion of youre Town of Caleys, it was ordeined by divers Statutes and Ordinaunces, that the Staple ſhuld be intierly at youre ſaid Town of Caleys, and in noon other place beyonde the See; that is to wete, that all the Wolles, Wollfelles, Hides, Lede and Tynne, and all other Merchaundiſes paſſing oute of this your ſaide Reaume, and oute of the londes of Wales and Irlonde, ſhuld hoolly paſſen and repaire to the ſeid Staple and to noon other place, upon peine of forfaiture of theim, except ſuche Merchandiſes as in the ſeid Statuts and Ordinaunces been expreſſed and forpriſed, as in theim is pleinly made mencion. The which Statuts and Ordinaunces, the ſecond yere of youre Reigne, were approved, affermed, and ordeined to be duely executed. Nevertheleſſe undre colours of excepcions conteined in the ſeid Statuts and Ordinaunces, als wel as by colour of licences to divers pſones by you Sovaigne Lord made and graunted continuelly from time to time, ther hath been, and yitte is ladde and conveued out of youre ſeid Reaume, and out of youre landes of Irlond and Wales, grete quantite of Wolle, Wolfelles, Hydes, Lede and Tynne, and many other Merchandiſes, into Flaundres, Holand, Zeland and Braban, and to other ꝑties, not reſortyng to youre ſeid Staple as they oughten to doo. For which cauſes, Sovaine Lord, ye be defrauded of your Cuſtumes and Subſidies, that ſhuld amounte to notable ſum̃es to youre encreſſe, if ye therof were duely anſwerd and content. Furthermore youre Mynte at Caleys is like to ſtonde voide, deſolate, and to be deſtroied; and alſo the com̃oditees of Merchaundiſes of youre ſeid Reaume, for the cauſes aforſaide, within ſhort time to be gretly anintiſed, but if remedie be purveied in this ꝑtie. Wherfore liketh it to youre excellent grace to conſidre thees p̃miſſes, and upon that, by th'avys of youre Lordes Sp̃uell and Temporell, and by auctorite of this youre p̃ſent Parlement, to ordeine, that no maner pſone ſhippe nor do ſhippe from this day forward, any maner Wolle, Wolfelle, Hides, Lede or Tynne, and theim lede or conveye out of any ꝑties of youre ſeid Reaume, or out of youre londes of Wales and Irlond, to any other ꝑties beyonde the See, but oonly to the ſeid Staple at Caleys, upon peine of empriſonment of his body by the ſpace of II yere withouten baille or mainpriſe. And he that can aſpie any pſone from this day forward, that offendeth or dothe the contrarie to thees Ordinaunces in any wiſe, and p̃ſenteth that offenſe to the Treſorer of Englond for the time being, the treſpaſſour therof duely and lawfully convicte by examinacion before the Chaunceller of Englonde, or the Treſorer and Barons of

of youre Eſchequier, or otherwiſe, to have for his labour the thridde parte of thoos Merchaundiſes ladde or conveyed contrarie to this Ordinaunce, to be made in forme aboveſaid. Saving alwey, that the Merchaunts of Jeane, Venyce, Tuſkanie, Italye, Luke, Eſterling, Florence, Mileyn, Catelyn, Arragon, Piſan, Merkiſan', Narrabon, Albectyn, Lumbardy, Hanzſe, Pruce, and all other Lumbards, being under youre ſauf conduyt, mow ſhippe Wolles, Wollefelles, Hides, Lede and Tynne, in their Galeys or Carrikes, and them lede thurgh the Streytes of Marrok, and them utter and ſelle beyonde the ſame Streytes, and in noon otherwiſe. And alſo ſaving to the Burgeys of Berwyk upon Twede, the privileges and benefices to them grauntid before this time for ſhipping of Wolles, Wollefelles, of the growyng of Northumberland, Cumberland, and the Biſhopriche of Durham, this Ordinaunce notwithſtonding. And that the price at Caleys upon Wolles, Wolfelles and Tynne, be juſtely kept and obſerved, and noght abated, but rather augmented and put to more encreſſe and advauntage. And that half the paiement there be made in hande for the ſeid Wolles, Wolfelles and Tynne, in Golde and Sylver, and ſuerte made and take for the other halfe, withouten any ſubtilte or colluſion. And that the Bolion be brought to the Mynte at Caleys, that is to ſey, for every Sarplere of Wolle of wihch the ſak weyght is ſolde for xii Marcs, vi Marcs; x Marcs, v li.; viii Marcs, iiii li.; and of the Wolfelles after th'afferaunt, to be forged into the Kynges coyne. And that every man that ſelleth or do ſelle any Wolles or Wolfelles at the ſeid Staple of Caleys, make true and even particion of the Money therof comyng, amonge all the Kynges liege peple born in this youre Reaume havyng Wolles or Wolfelles there, every man to have after the afferaunt and porcion for his ſeid Merchandiſes, without fraude or male engyne. And that at all times the Merchauntz ſellers, make acquitances to the Merchaunts biers, and to be enſeled undre the ſeel there therfore ordeined or to be ordeined within the forſaide Staple; to th'entent that noo Merchaunt ſhall leeve to any Merchaunt ſtraunger, any maner of Money of him received neither of Wolles ne of Wolfelles, but that the ſame Money mowe be brought into this youre Reaume without ſubtilte or fraude. And that it ſhal be leefull for every of youre ſeid liege peple from this time forwarde, to bringe the ſeid Wolles and Wolfelles to the ſeid Staple of Caleys, and them to utter and ſelle there, and to take for his parte at every ſale there made, according to the Ordenaunce and ꝓticion beforſaid; and to be free there to enjoye and have at all times all maner of libertees and cuſtomes, as eny of the felisſhip of the ſeid Staple hath or ſhal have, without any fyne makyng or paying therfore, except ordinarie charges. And that noo Merchaunt continuelly inhabitaunt within the ſeid Town of Caleys, nor any other ꝑſone to his uſe, by crafte or covyn bye, or by wey of eſchaunge accept or take, any maner of Merchandiſe of the ſeid Staple. And that noo maner of licence for ſhipping of Wolles, Wolfelles or Tynne herafter to be graunted to any ꝑſone or ꝑſones, except thoos that by auctorite of this youre ꝑſent Parlement be graunted, be effectuell nor availlable to him or them, to carie or lede any ſuche Wolles, Wolfelles or Tynne, oute of this youre Reaume of Englonde, Irland or Wales, to any other place then to the ſeid Staple of Caleys. And that all maner of licence by you oure forſaid Sovaine Lord, or any of youre heires or ſucceſſours, to any ꝑſone or ꝑſones to be graunted, of or for Wolles, Wolfelles or Tynne, to be hadde, caried or ſhipped out of this youre ſeid Reaume of Englonde, Irland or Wales, to any other place then to the forſaide Staple, except before except, be voide and of noon effecte. And that every ꝑſone or ꝑſones which accepteth, obteineth and put in execucion any ſuche licence, that he or thei to whoos uſe any ſuche licence ſhal be graunted and hadde, by them or any other by their aggrement and conſent put in execucion, be oute of your ꝓteccion, except before except. And over that, that it be leeful to the Maire, Conſtables, and the Felysſhip of Merchaunts of the ſeid Staple, and to their ſucceſſours for evermore, to ſue an accion upon this Statute ayenſt any ꝑſone or ꝑſones as doth offende ayenſt thees Ordinaunces and Statuts or any of them: and to have ſuche ꝓceſſe therin as is ꝓvided in a ꝑmunire fac', or ſuch ꝓceſſe as by the cõe lawe is in an accion of treſpaſſe doon ayenſt youre pees, at their eleccion; ſo that the ſeid accion be comenced within halfe a yere next after the ſeid offenſe, and that their ꝓceſſe be wel continued and effectuelly ſued, and execucion hadde where it requireth, without fraude or covyne; and elles that it be leeful to every of youre lieges that wol ſue either of the ſeid accions, and to have jugement and execucion before reherſed. And if any ꝑſone or ꝑſones atte their ſute therupon be convicte or atteint, that the ſame Maire, Conſtables, and Felyſhip of Merchaunts, ſhal have jugement for to recovere all the movable goodes and catailles that any ſuche ꝑſone or ꝑſones ſo convicte or atteint, at the day of puttyng in execucion of any ſuche licence, or at the time of the ſeid jugement yeven, or atte any time meene betwix the putting in execucion of any ſuche licence and the ſeid jugement gyven, or the value therof, at th'eleccion of the Pleintiff in the ſame accions; wherof the two ꝑtes of the goodes and catailles ſo recovered and hadde in execucion, or the value therof, ſhal be emploied for the repacions of the Jetees, Scluſes and Bankes at Caleys aforſeid, by the overſight of the Mayſter of the Werkes there for the time being; and the ſeid thridde part therof to remayne to the Maire, Conſtables and Felisſhip aforſaid: Provided alwey, that the ſeid Accion be hadde and comenſed within the Shire where ſuch licences ſhal be put in execucion. And if any ſuche licence be putte in execucion in Irlond or Wales, that than the ſute be comenſed in the Shire within Englonde next adjoynyng to the place where ſuche licence ſhal be putte in execucion in Irlonde or Wales. And over that, that every ꝑſone or ꝑſones as dothe ſhippe or carye, or make to be ſhipped or caried any Wolles, Wolfelles or Tynne, oute of this your Reaume of Englonde, Irlond or Wales, by colour of any licence or any otherwyſe, except that is before except, and them put to ſale in any other Porte or place out of youre ſeid Reaume of Englonde, Irlond or Wales, than at the forſaid Staple of Caleys, oleſſe than the Shippe wherin the ſeid Wolles, Wolfelles or Tynne is be piſhed and may not be brought to the ſeid Staple, and therof be convicte or atteint at the ſute of the Maire, Conſtables, and Felisſhip of Merchaunts of the ſeid Staple, or of any other that in their defaute ſhal ſue by ſuche ꝓceſſe and accion grounded upon this Acte as is afore reherſed in the ſame accion to be taken in the Shire where the ſeid Wolles, Wolfelles or Tynne be ſhipped or caried oute, that he forfaite all his goodes and catailles to be emploied and hadde in forme aforſaid. And if any Wolles, Wolfelles or Tynne, herafter be caried or ſhipped to be hadde out of this youre Reaume of Englonde, Irlond, Wales, or to any other place out of Englonde, Irlond or Wales, than to the forſaide Staple, be force of any licence, except before except, that then it be leeful to every ꝑſone, beyng youre liegeman, to ſeaſe the ſeid Wolles, Wolfelles and Tynne, and them kepe to his ꝓpre uſe after ſuche ſeaſir. And that every Cuſtumer, Countrollour, Sercheour and Surveiour, which by his knoulege ſuffreth or admitteth any Wolles, Wolfelles or Tynne, to be ſhipped within any Porte, Cryk, Haven, or any other place where as thei be Officers, to any other Porte or place then to the forſaid Staple as is above reherſed, by force of any licence, or by the colour therof, or by force of any Writte or other Comaundement, in affyrming or appreving of any ſuche licence, except before except, to them to be directe, or ſuffre where they or any of them is Officer any ſuche Merchandiſe to paſſe out of this youre Reaume uncuſtumed or unweyed at youre beame, ſuche therof as ought to be weyed, renne and ſtonde in the peine and forfaiture above reherſed, and he or they be hadde and demed in like caſe, as he that executeth any ſuche licence to any other place then to the ſeid Staple, after that he therof be convicte, at the ſute of him which in this caſe wol purſue. And that it be leeful to every pſone, being youre liegeman, whiche in this caſe wol purſue, to have ſuche Accion ayenſt the ſeid Cuſtumers, Countrollours, Sercheours and Surveiours, or any of them, as is ꝓvided ayenſt ſuche pſones as putte in execucion any ſuche licence as is aforſaid. And that all maner thinge doon ayenſt th'ordinaunces or Statuts beforſaid, or any of them, as wel within this youre Reaume as withoute, not triable by mater of Recorde, be putte in iſſue by triall by enqueſt in the ſame Shire and Viſne where the ſeid Accion ſhal be taken. Provided alwey, that al maner of licences for Wolles, Wolfelles and Tynne, to paſſe thurgh the Straytes of Marrok, ſhipped in Galeyes or Carrikes, paying Cuſtumes and Subſidies as Aliens doon or ſhal do, and the ſame Merchandiſes ſelle or eſchaunge and utter beyonde the Straytes of Marrok aforſaid, be oonly except.

Alſo foraſmoch that the outrageous Toll of late ſette by the Duc of Burgoigne at Gravening, upon Wolles and Wolfelles bought at Caleys to paſſe into his Countreys of Flaundres, Brabant, Holand and Seland, and upon noon other Wolles comyng into his ſaid Countreys, which is grete letting and hurte to the utterance of the ſaid comoditees; and over that, the ſaid Duk hath made a gret penale reſtreint, upon paſſage of Merchaundiſe called Bullyon of Silver to paſſe thurgh eny of his londes aforſaid to come to Caleys, which Merchaundiſe growith in no land of his, wherof Money ſhuld be coyned in the Kyngs Mynte atte Caleys, to be caried and ſprade in this Reaume, for to pay the growers of the ſaid comoditees, the lakke wherof is grete hurte to the cõe well, as it is openly known. For remedie herof be it ordeigned be the ſaid auctorite, that after the third day of Aprill next comyng after Seint Markes day, the yere xxxi of the Reigne of the Kyng our Sovain Lorde, that noo maner of Wolles ne Wolfelles be caried, hadde or ſolde oute of this Reaume or of eny ptie therof, nor out of the ſaid Town of Caleys, into eny of the ſaid Dukes Countries by licenſes nor other wiſe, onleſſe than the ſaid Duke ſette aparte the ſaid outrageous Toll of late ſette at Gravenynge upon Wolles and Wolfelles bought at Caleys. And alſo that the ſaid Merchandiſe called Bullion of Silver, which growith in no Land of the ſeid Dukes, may have free paſſage thurgh his ſaid Countreys to come freely to Caleys. And if any pſonne pſume to ſende, ſelle or carie, any Wolles or Wollefelles into the ſaid Dukes Countreys contrarie to this Acte, that then he or thei that ſo doth ſtand undir the peine and punyſshement, as it is ꝓvided and ordeined upon them that accepten any licenſe or othirwiſe to carie any Wolles or Wollefelles to paſſe to any other place oute of this Reaume than to the Staple of Caleys.

A. D. 1454. 32 Hen. VI.

Item, foraſmoch as oon ſakke of Wolle clakked, barbed and forced, is more of value than iii ſakkes not clakked, barbed ne forced, wherby ye Sovain Lorde, be gretly hurte in your Cuſtumes, and the makyng of price of Clothe within this your Reaume ſore abated and anintiſed, to ordeine by th'auctorite aboveſeid; that noo Merchaunt ſtraunger clakke, barbe ne force, ne doo clakke, barbe ne force, any Wolles withinne this your ſaid Reaume. And that no ſtraunger nor Deinzin carie, nor do to be caried oute of your ſaid Reaume, any Wolles clakked, forced ne barbed, upon paine of forfaiture therof, and of the duble value of the ſame; the oon half therof to yow Sovaine Lorde, and the other halfe to which of your lieges that in that caſe will ſue.

And foraſmoch as it is notarie knawe, that the Lumbardes and other Merchaunt ſtraungers before named, of longe time have uſed to colour the Merchaundiſez and Goodes of your Enmies laufully taken upon the See in Shippes and other Veſſeles of your Enmes, be meanes of ſres ſente from them to the ſaid Merchaunts ſtraungers before namede being in this your ſaid Reaume, of the markes, prices and certeintee of the pcells of the ſame Goodes and Merchaundiſez, to defraude yowe Sovain Lorde, and your trewe liege people of the forfaiture therof, takyng for the coloring and ſauſing of the value of every c li. of Goodes or Merchaundiſez of your ſaid Enmes, ſoo colored and ſaved, x li. clerely over all charges and coſts; to ordeine and eſtabliſh by th'advis, aſſent and auctorite aboveſaid, that all the Goodes and Merchaundiſes of eny of the ſeid Merchaunts ſtraungers, being in any Shipp or Veſſell of your Enmes upon the See, bute oonly in Galeis or Carrikes, be forfete; and that it be lieſſull to all your trewe liege people, to take and enjoye the ſame Shippes, Veſſells, Goodes and Merchaundiſez, to their propre uſe. And that all Merchaunts ſtraungers, and every of them, hereafter bringyng any Merchaundiſez into this your ſaid Reaume, or any havyng withinne the ſame, utter their ſaid Merchaundiſez to your liegemen born withinne iii Monethes after time thei be broght to any Porte withinne this your ſaid Reaume and cuſtumed, upon paine of forfaiture of them or of the value of them not uttred in forme aforſaid. WHERE that Edmunde late Duc of Somerſet, Thomas Thorp, and William Joſeph, entendyng as it is ſuppoſed to the hurte and deſtruction of oure true right truſty and well beloved Couſyns, Richard Duc of York, Richard Erle of Warrewik, and Richard Erle of Saliſbury, and of theire heires; moved and ſollicited us by diverſe meanes to miſtruſte oure ſeid Couſyns, and to inſtraunge theym from oure favour and good grace, affermyng theym not oure true Liegemen, and therefore provoked and ſtired us to have proceeded with grete might of people under colour of oure matiers, where noon we hadde, to the avaunſyng of theire owne matiers and quarelles. Oure ſaid Couſyns underſtandyng and conſideryng as they ſaye, the labours made ayenſt theym, and that the ſaid Edmonde, Thomas, and William, for th'execution of theire entent, enforced thaim with grete might of men in diverſe Countreyes, moche harneys and grete habilmentes of werre, addreſſed thaim toward oure preſence, to declare theim oure true Liegmen, the better accompanyed for theire ſuertee, and to reſiſte ſuch malice as they verrely demed was purpoſed to have been executed ayenſt theim, at thaire commyng unto us, by the ſeid Edmunde, Thomas, and William, and for noon other cauſe; and to th'entent that we ſhuld not wondre nor mervaille of the commyng of oure ſaid Couſyns aforereherced toward us, nor of the manere therof, nor have any ſuſpicion or myſtruſt therof toward oure perſone, they wrote thaire letters at Roiſton the xx day of May laſt paſſed, and thaim ſent afore thaire commyng unto us, for thaire declaration and deſire, to the moſt Reverend Fadre in God Th'archiebisſhop of Caunterbury, oure Chaunceller of Englond, to be by hym openned unto us, whereof th'endorſment and teneur foloweth hereafter.

A. D. 1455. 33 Hen. VI.

The Duke of York's L're to the Abp' of Cant'.

19. TO the right Reverend' Fadre in God, right worſhipfull and with all oure hertes right entierly welbelovyd Couſyn, Th'archiebisſhop of Caunterbury, and Chaunceller of Englond. Right Reverend Fader in God, right worſhipfull and with all oure hertes right entierly welbelovyd Couſin, We recommaunde us unto you. And for ſomuche as we here that a greet rumour and wondre is hadde of oure commyng, and of the manere therof, toward the moſt noble preſence of the Kyng oure mooſt doubted Soverain Lord, and that by diverſe perſones ſuch as of approved experience have not put thaim in ſuch devoir to that that might have avaunced the honour and proſperite of him, of this his noble Reaume, and his people of the ſame, as accorded with theire trouthe and duetee, many doubtes and ambiguitees be thrawen to his Mageſtee Roiall, and amonge the peeple, of oure trouth and duetee unto his Highneſſe: We havyng conſideration unto th'office the heed of Juſtice of this lande that ye occupie, notiſie unto youre worthy Faderhood and Couſinage, that of oure ſaid comyng, ner of the manere therof, we entende not with Goddes grace to procede to any matier or thyng, other than with Goddes mercy ſhal be to his pleſire, the honour, proſperite and wele of oure ſaid Soveraine Lord, his ſaid land and people. Alwey kepyng oure trouthe to his ſaid Highneſſe unſpotted and unbruſed, entendyng to drawe directly togidres with you, and all other Lordes of this lande, that be of ſuch tendre zele and affection to the honour, proſperite and wele of oure ſaid Soveraine Lord, his ſaid Reaume and people, as we hold undoubted ye bee, and as bliſſed be God ye approve youre ſelf to youre grete laude and worſhip, to the profite and uncolored groundes and concluſions of ſuche thinges as of reaſon mowe moſt ſpedely growe to the ſaid honour and wele, and the good publique, reſtfull and politique rule and governaunce of his ſaid lande and people, withoute any thyng takyng or preſumyng upon oure ſelf, withoute th'avis and aſſent of you, and of the ſaid Lordes; leiyng therefore apart oure owne particuler quarels, which we ſhall never preferre afore the duetee, trouth, love and affection, that we owne unto oure ſaid Soveraine Lord, his ſaid Reaume and people. Over this like it you to wite, that we underſtond the callyng and ſtabliſhyng of the Kynges Counſail at his Towne of Leyceſtre, toke the grounde by ſuch as we conceyve cauſed th'appointement therof there, for ſuertee of his mooſt noble perſone, which of commun preſumption implieth a miſtruſt to ſomme perſones: We therfore his true and humble Liegemen, have accompaigned us the better, to th'entent to emploie us in ſuch devoir as accordeth with oure duetee, to that that may be the ſuertee of his ſaid moſt

A. D. 1455. 33 Hen. VI. noble perſone, wherin we woll neither ſpare our bodies ner goodes; and alſo to knowe whoo be had in jeloſy of ſuch miſtruſt, to th'entent that we mowe procede to the ſubduyng of thaim, beyng culpables of the thyng cauſyng ſuch miſtruſt, or elles by th'avis of your ſaid Faderhood and the ſeid Lordes, to remove the ambiguitee and th'occaſion of the ſame miſtruſt. We alſo, underſtoud what colerable and ſubtile meanes be made by oure Enemies, holdyng thaim colorably aboute the ſeid mooſt noble perſone of oure ſaid Soveraine Lord, of might of men and habilementes of werre have the more ſurely accompaigned us, to th'entent that at oure commyng to his moſt high preſence, we mowe be of power to kepe oureſelf oute of the daungier whereunto oure ſaid Enemies have not ceeſſed to ſtudie, labour and compaſſe to bryng us, ſuch as in allewiſe we will eſchewe with Goddes grace.

ITEM, for aſmoche as we underſtonde that other Lordes of this lande have be late ſent fore, by the Kynges commaundement under his Letters, to comen unto his Counſail privately late called at Weſtmynſtre, whereunto we have not been among the ſaid Lordes called, we conceyve a jeloſy had ayenſt us, wherof we purpoſe with Goddes grace to declare us, and to ſhewe us ſuch as we bee in oure trouthe, duetee and ligeaunce, to oure ſaid Soveraine Lord, entendyng in alle wyſe to remove the ſaid Jeloſy, which we woll eſchewe to have liyng dormant upon us. Furthermore, we heryng the grete defaime and blaſpheme thrawen ayenſt us by oure ſeid Ennemies of oure ſaid comyng, require you on Goddes behalf, and of the feith and trouth that ye owe unto oure ſeid Soveraine Lord, on his behalf alſo require you, and on oure owene exhorte and pray you, that ye ſtandyng the Fadre and Metropolitan of the Chirche of Englond, wol at oure requeſt make oute with all poſſible diligence, the cenſures of the Chirche, to be opened and leied at the croſſe of Seint Paule within the Citee of London, and thurgh all the parties of this land, in as rigorous and timorouſe manere as the Chirche wol ſuffre it, uppon and ayenſt all thaim that entende any untrouth, prejudice, hurt or derogation, ayenſt th'eſtate, proſperite and welfare of oure ſaid Soveraine Lord, or his ſaid land. And that this oure Lettre of oure entent God knoweth, wherin we truſt ye wol be partiner, and therof require you of the feith, trouth and duetee that ye owe to God, to oure ſaid Soveraine Lord, his ſaid land and people, it wol like you to ſhewe and miniſtre unto his high Excellence, and to the Lordes of his Counſail, makyng alſo oure ſaid entent to be ſhewed to all other to whom it apperteigneth by youre wiſdome, for the removyng and overthrawyng of the cedicious and fraudelent blaſpheme and defaime, untruly ſavyng youre reverence leyed upon us, oure Lord knoweth; the which requeſt in the premiſſes we make unto you, firſt on Goddes behalf, as to the Fader of the Chirche of this land, and on the Kynges behalf, as to the Chaunceller and Chief Juſtice of the ſame; and alſo on oure owne behalf, and on the behalf of the Lordes, Knyghtes, Squiers, and all other people beyng with us, which have deſired and required us to make to you the ſaid requeſt, wherein we deſire and pray you to put you in ſuch devoir, as it belongeth you of youre duetee to God, to oure ſaid Soveraine Lord, and his ſaid land; that of any inconvenient that for lacke therof mowe falle, that God defende, noo charge or burdon be leyed upon you, wherof we wold be right ſory, as knoweth oure bleſſid Creatour, whoo your ſaid Faderhood and Couſinage evermore preſerve and guyde in all honour, felicite and welfare.

20. AND uppon the mofowe next after, that is to ſay, the xxi day of May laſt paſſed, oure ſaid Couſyns wrote unto us theire Letters, ſigned by thaire handes, and undre theire Signetes ſealed, wherin was cloſed the copie of thaire ſaid Letter to the ſaid mooſt Reverend Fader in God, the ſaid xx day ſent: The tenour of the which Letter to us ſent of the date of the ſaid xxi day, foloweth hereafter. A. D. 1455. 33 Hen. VI. Letters to the King.

TO the mooſt Criſten Kyng, right high and mighty Prynce; and our mooſt redoubted Soverain Lord the Kyng of Englond and of Fraunce, and Lord of Irlond. Mooſt Criſten Kyng, right high and mighty Prynce; and oure mooſt redoubted Soverain Lord, we recommaunde us as humbly as we ſuffice unto youre high Excellence. Where unto pleaſe it to wite, that for ſomoch as we here and underſtond to oure gretteſt ſorowe erthly, that oure Enemies of approved experience; ſuch as abide and kepe theim ſelf undre the wynge of your Mageſte Roiall, have thrawen unto the ſame right cedicioufly and right fraudelently, many ambiguitees and doubtes of the feith, liegeaunce and duetee, that God knoweth we bere unto youre Highneſſe, and have put thaim in as greet devoir as they coude to eſtraunge us from youre mooſt noble preſence, and from the faveur of youre good grace; the which good grace to us is, and awe to be, oure ſinguler and mooſt deſired joye and conſolation: we at this tyme be commyng with Goddes grace, as youre true and humble liegemen, toward youre ſaid high Excellence, to declare and ſhewe therunto at large oure ſaid feith and liegeaunce, entendyng with the mercy of Jhu, of oure ſaid commyng to put us in as diligent and herty devoir and duetee, as any youre Liegemen alyve, to that that may avaunce or preferre the honeur and welfare of your ſaid Mageſte Roiall; and the ſuertee of your ſaid mooſt noble perſone, the which we beſeche oure bliſſed Creatour to proſpere in as greet honour, joye and felicite, as ever hadde eny Prynce erthly, and to youre ſeid Highneſſe ſoo to take, accepte and repute us, and not to plaiſe to yeve truſt or confidence unto the ſiniſtres, maliciouz and fraudelentes labours and rapportes of oure ſaid Enemies, unto oure commyng to youre ſaid mooſt noble preſence; whereunto we beſeche humbly that we mowe be admitted as youre Liegemen, to th'entent to ſhewe us the ſame, wherof yiſterday we wrote oure Letters of oure entent to the right Reverend Fadre in God Th'archiebiſhop of Caunterbury, youre Chaunceller of Englond; to be ſhewed to youre ſaid Highneſſe. And for ſomoche as we be not acertaigned whether oure ſaid entent be by his Faderhood ſhewed unto youre ſaid good grace or not, we ſend therunto in thees cloſed, a copie of oure ſaid Letters of oure diſpoſition towarde youre ſaid high Excellence, and the honeur and weel of youre lande, wherein we woll perſevere with the grace of oure Lorde, whoom we beſeche youre Roial perſone to proſpre and guyde in all honour and felicite.
